

County News

Kenly

KENLY, Oct. 31.—Friends of W. J. Hooks are sorry to hear of his illness. Mr. Hooks was taken to the Carolina General Hospital in Wilson last Wednesday for treatment. He is doing nicely.

Mrs. L. C. Wilkinson and children attended the Goldsboro fair Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Broughton spent Thursday morning in Smithfield on business.

Velma Atkinson has been home several days from Carolina College to be with her father, Charlie Atkinson, who has been very ill.

Rev. C. P. Jerome, of Goldsboro, will be here Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 3, 4 and 5 and will be glad to make the photograph of his friends.

Mrs. W. J. Hooks spent Thursday and Friday in Wilson with her husband who is ill in a local hospital.

Misses Nellie and Eloise Alford and Arthur Crumpler attended the Goldsboro fair Thursday.

Charlie Atkinson died in a Wilson hospital last Friday morning. Mr. Atkinson had been sick for some time and was taken to the hospital Monday for an operation. He died early Friday morning.

Prof. G. T. Whitley made a business trip to Clayton Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hollowell and Mrs. C. F. Darden attended the fair in Goldsboro Thursday.

Miss Margaret Hooks, of Flora McDonald College, Red Springs, and Jack Hooks of Wake Forest College are home to be at the bedside of their father, who is ill in a Wilson hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. White made a business trip to Wilson and Goldsboro Thursday.

Mrs. Marvin Revell, of near town visited Miss Margaret Hooks Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Broughton and son, Phillip, went to the Goldsboro fair Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Ethridge and children, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Pulley and children attended, the Goldsboro fair Thursday.

The Freewill Baptist revival closed last Wednesday night with four additions to the church. Rev. W. B. Everett, of Morehead City, did the preaching.

Stephen Eure, John Woodard, Jack Hales and Joe Alford went to the fair in Goldsboro Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Wilkinson visited in Wilson Friday.

Mrs. Worth Williamson, of St. Pauls, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Edgerton.

Miss Mary Lee Hooks, of Micro, spent the week end at home.

Mrs. P. Godwin spent Saturday morning in Wilson.

Micro

MICRO, Oct. 29.—A contest is being held in the high school this year and a reward is offered for the grade that has the best news for the Smithfield Herald each month.

The senior class has a total of twelve members: Effie Aycock, Sadie Atkinson, Ruth Bagley, Willie Brown, Myrtle Hill, Hazel Barnes, Worth Bagley, William Pittman, Willie Sellers, Arthur Creech, Clyde Mazingo, Stella Wall.

Last week the class organized and elected officers as following: Willie Sellers, president; Myrtle Hill, vice-president. The class motto is "Onward and Upward." The class color is grey and pink.

The class is planning to make money in various ways to leave to the school library this year.

After several representatives from various firms had shown us their trigs, we decided on the Heif-Jones Jewelers.

We had as our visitors Thursday, Dr. Massey and Mrs. Thurston of Smithfield.

On account of sickness one of the seventh grade teachers, Mrs. Corbett, was absent from school Tuesday.

Miss Elva Maness was the week end guest of Miss Mildred Boyette, one of the third grade teachers.

Miss Hooks, one of the second grade teachers, spent last week end with her parents in Kenly.

A Hallowe'en party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Barefoot Monday night, October 31 in honor of the school faculty.

The school enjoyed a very interesting program Thursday morning given by the freshman class sponsored by Miss Pearl Aycock. The subject of the program was "Hallowe'en," the stage and exercises carrying out the Hallowe'en idea. The program was as follows:

Meaning of Hallowe'en, Walter Boykin.

Bible Reading from 21 and 31st Chapters of Proverbs—or fortunes of the seniors, Lois Barnes.

Prayer, Mr. Moser. Little Orphant Annie, Elgah Godwin. Hallowe'en Song, Several girls. Your Fortune Told, Mabel Aldridge.

Sanders Chapel

SMITHFIELD, Route 2, Oct. 28.—A large delegation of members from this community attended the Smithfield fair and we are unusually proud of the honors we won over there.

Luther Starling and John K. Sanders are spending today at Wilson on business.

Miss Helen Starling is making arrangements to leave Saturday for her school at Piney Grove where she will teach the fourth, fifth and sixth grades.

Miss Leila Talton will leave also Saturday for Pleasant Plains to begin her duties as principal for this session.

Dr. Hooks was called to this community Tuesday to attend the 11-months-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Talton. Kenneth Anderson is suffering from some form of stomach trouble.

George Starling, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Starling, who is partially blind and lives at Winston-Salem, visited his parents for the week end. He is a piano tuner by trade.

Mrs. James A. Woodall is visiting her granddaughter, Mrs. Vick Hill for a few days.

Miss Mildred Creech, of Brogden, was a visitor here Sunday.

Mrs. Fred Sasser and Mrs. Vick Williams, of Rocky Mount, spent some time in this section and at Brogden last week.

Mrs. Fate Barnes visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jodie Creech of Brogden, one day last week.

Z. L. Talton is cooking syrup at his home in the grove this week.

J. Rufus Creech went to distant markets with his tobacco last week.

Percy Barnes has gone to Kodaik, Tenn., to visit his wife's people. Mrs. Barnes has been visiting in and around Kodak for some time, having returned with her sister, Mrs. Allen, who recently visited here. Mrs. Barnes is expected to return with Mr. Barnes in a few days.

Mrs. Bob Howell, of Brogden, passed through this community Wednesday.

Willie Howell and sister, Miss Marie Lee, visited Miss Myra Hill Sunday.

John Caudill has accepted a position with the Davis stores in Smithfield.

Little Miss Gean Sasser, of Smithfield, spent Monday night with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John K. Sanders.

Mr. and Mrs. John Barnes and Mr. and Mrs. John K. Sanders and William Wade Crocker visited Mrs. Joe Crocker of near Pine Level Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smith and daughters spent the week end with relatives in Sampson county.

Lonnie Mitchell, of Smithfield, was a business visitor here Wednesday.

Mrs. Claud Hill, Mrs. C. T. Hill, Miss Martha, Helen and Winston Hill visited friends near Pine Level Sunday afternoon.

Mose and Mike Hill spent the week end with relatives in Pine Level.

Miss Estelle Talton, of Archer Lodge, visited relatives here Sunday afternoon.

J. J. Eason and family spent Sunday in Johnson school section with Mrs. Eason's sister, Mrs. Eunice Johnson.

The Sanders-Smith Missionary Society will hold its first regular meeting at Sanders Chapel the first Sunday in November. Ladies of all denominations have a special invitation and especially do we want as many of the ladies of the Sanders-Smith descendants present as possible.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Massengill, James, Thel and Thelma Lee Massengill and Master Ralph Starling visited Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Massengill of near Princeton, recently.

Wilbert Capps, of Pleasant Plain section, spent the week end with Thel Massengill.

Mr. and Mrs. John Strickland have a new daughter—Hilda Gray.

John Barnes, of Creech's section, gathered five barrels of apples from three trees one day last week. Some he took to the fair won the blue ribbon, and sold for five cents each.

Wilson's Mills

WILSON'S MILLS, Oct. 27.—Leonard Massey, who is in business at Spencer, spent the week end in town with his mother, Mrs. Clara Massey.

Miss Margaret Wilson, who is teaching school in Raleigh, was the guest of her father, W. G. Wilson, during the week end.

C. M. and W. T. Wilson made a business trip to Louisburg Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Todd, of Rocky Mount, visited relatives here Sunday.

E. R. Wilson, of Hopewell, Va., is spending a few days in town with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Jones and daughter, Miss Evelyn, of Clayton, spent Sunday afternoon in town with Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Youngblood.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Parrish and children, Helen Reid and Geatchen, and Mrs. Ida Hall, of near Clayton, spent Sunday afternoon in town with relatives.

Miss Odessa Massey who is a member of the Cleveland school faculty, spent the week end in town with her mother, Mrs. Clara Massey.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Barbour had as their guests on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Tolley and daughter, Miss Ora, of Pine Level, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Strickland and daughter, Miss Lucile Mrs. Thelbert Strickland and little son, of Four Oaks, and little Miss Vera Rackley, of Smithfield.

Lunie Adams, of Selma, was a visitor in town on Sunday.

Alton Dupree of the Pisgah section, was a visitor in the home of W. O. Youngblood on Sunday night.

Noah Wilson, who holds a position in Raleigh, was a week end visitor in town.

Miss Bettie Vinson, of near Selma, visited relatives in town on Sunday and attended Sunday school at Christian church.

Mesdames E. R. and G. C. Youngblood recently visited Mrs. Augusta Youngblood who is ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Raines in Selma.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie T. Wilson visited relatives in Selma on Friday afternoon.

Oak Ridge Farm

(Too late for last issue) SMITHFIELD, Route 2, Oct. 25.—Several of this section went to Black Creek Primitive Baptist Association Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Talton and Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Talton visited relatives near Wilson Sunday.

Mrs. William A. Woodard and son, Hubert, went to Princeton to church Sunday.

Nathan Worley's mule ran away with him last Saturday, badly hurting his hands.

Joe Edwards, of Boon Hill, was speeding his Buick Sunday morning and had the misfortune to turn it over in Holt's mill pond. He soon had Lee Motor company's force there to work on it, but it took several hours to get it out.

Thurman Langley, of Durham, came home Sunday to see his mother and sisters. However, they had gone to Pine Level to visit Mrs. Jasper Thompson. He returned home from Durham Tuesday and is now planning to start to school. He says he does not like town life but had rather be a farmer.

Bridge End Farm

WILLOW SPRINGS, Route 1, Oct. 27.—Mrs. L. H. Stephenson returned last Wednesday from a few days' visit to her sister, Mrs. N. P. Terrell of Selma.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Johnson, Sr., of Black Mountain, after spending a couple of weeks with their daughter in Coats and with Mrs. Johnson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Johnson, have returned to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Stephenson went to Smithfield on business last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Ogburn, of Willow Springs, spent Saturday night with their brother, A. Brooks Ogburn, on Bridge End Farm.

Elder L. H. Stephenson and A. Brooks Ogburn went to Smithfield on business and to Kenly looking over some farm property last Saturday.

Quite a few of our people attended the Barnum and Bailey & Ringling Bros. circus in Raleigh last Thursday and Thursday night.

Mrs. W. T. Johnson accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. John L. Johnson, Sr., of Black Mountain, spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. L. H. Stephenson.

The fourth Sunday in each month is a day off for Elder L. H. Stephenson in the service of his churches as he does not have the care of a church on that Sunday. Friends visiting at his home on that day were: Mr. and Mrs. Parlia Hudson, of Benson; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Ogburn, of Angier; Mr. and Mrs. Millard Ogburn, of Willow Springs; W. C. Langdon, of Coats; and A. H. Langdon, of near Benson.

Kenly

KENLY, Oct. 25.—Miss Selma Hooks, a student at the Greenville Training school, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hooks, of Kenly.

J. W. Darden has returned from Washington, where he went to buy corn for the Lowell Mill.

Howard Davis, son of Mr. and

Mrs. James H. Davis, had the misfortune to lose two fingers while operating a sausage mill at Crawford's Market recently.

Miss Virginia Kester of Spencer was the week end guest of her aunt, Mrs. Skinner, at the teacher's home.

Misaez McCallum, Ormitil Woodhouse, of Kenly Lucile Johnson of Dunn, Elizabeth Brooks of Selma, and Mrs. H. M. Grizzard, spent Saturday afternoon in Wilson.

Mesdames J. W. Woodard, T. C. Bailey and Miss Adna Lee Bailey spent Saturday in Raleigh.

Misses Pattie and Francis Hunter motored to Four Oaks Saturday.

Prof. G. T. Whitley attended stunt night Friday night, and the community fair Saturday in Smithfield.

Miss Lemora Patterson, a member of the High School faculty spent the week end in Smithfield with Dr. and Mrs. Gilliam Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Shackelford and Dr. Morgan of Dunn visited Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Broughton Sunday.

Miss Adna Leigh Bailey of Four Oaks spent Friday night with her mother Mrs. W. T. Bailey.

Remember to buy your cake for Sunday at J. W. Darden's store. Saturday at 2 o'clock. These cakes are baked by the Methodist church.

Miss Elizabeth Coats of Smithfield was the guest of her sister, Mrs. G. T. Whitley, Sunday.

Mrs. Martha Darden, Mrs. Lester Darden, and Mrs. Durall Darden and children of Rocky Mount, spent Sunday with Mr. S. J. A. Darden.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Coker and children, James and Brownie, of Pleasant Hill spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Coker.

Mrs. Roger Smith of Burlington, is spending this week with her mother, Mrs. A. G. Hooks.

Mr. Debbie Bailey spent Sunday in Wake Forest.

Miss Lon Bailey is spending the week with her brother near Corbett-Hatcher.

Mrs. J. E. Jones and Miss Annie Aycock visited relatives near town Sunday afternoon.

Miss Celeste Edgerton, a student at Peace, Raleigh, spent the week end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Edgerton.

A. J. Broughton made a business trip to Goldsboro Monday morning.

Attending the banquet for the Centennial workers in Smithfield Tuesday evening were, A. J. Broughton, Mrs. J. M. Woodard, F. A. White and Mrs. Etheridge.

Mrs. Tom Moore of Weldon spent Sunday with her grandson, M. R. Coker.

Mr. and Mrs. Spire Woodlief and children, Etta and Ben, and Berry Perry, of Walz Forest, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Woodlief here.

Misses Nell Hardison and Eloise Alford spent Sunday in Fremont with Mrs. Earle Winborn.

Parker Hardy, of La Grange, spent Sunday in town with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Whitley, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Whitley and children, of near Smithfield, spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Whitley.

Mr. and Mrs. U. H. Hardison and children, of Enfield, spent the week end with their mother, Mrs. A. H. Hardison.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Coats, of Raleigh, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Whitley Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Bailey and Mr. and Mrs. Wade Corbett, of the Corbett-Hatcher section, were the guests of Misses Lou, Debbie and Nettie Bailey Sunday.

Miss Charity Pope spent the week end near Aycock's with relatives.

Preceding the sermon Sunday morning at the Methodist church there will be held an installation service of all officers and teachers of the Sunday school. After the service the pastor will preach on the subject: "God's Hero." At the evening hour he will preach on "The Forgotten Dream."

There will be a Hallowe'en party at the school Friday evening, October 28, for the benefit of the Woman's club. Everybody is invited.

Friends of Rev. J. E. Holden were saddened to hear that he is very ill in the New Bern hospital. The members of the Missionary Baptist church will serve oysters and fried chicken in Mr. High's old store Saturday night, October 29.

Sunday morning at 9:45 in the Methodist church brought to a close the Children's Week program. The following program was given. Song number 408. Psalm No. 121, read in concert, led by Mrs. A. J. Broughton. Prayer, by Rev. F. B. Joyner. Brief Talk: "The needs of little children," by Mrs. J. W. Darden. Talk: "What the church can do for its youth," by J. W. Hollowell. Story: by Mrs. H. M. Grizzard. Song: "I Want to Be a Worker For the Lord."

Selma

SELMA, Oct. 26.—Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Low, of Wilson, spent Monday with friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Blackman and family spent Sunday in Greenville the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Lee.

Miss Miriam Brietz spent the week end with friends in Four Oaks.

Miss Ellen Talton who has been very ill, is convalescing. Miss Talton's sister, Mrs. T. S. Turner of Port Norfolk, is spending some time with her.

Stedman Lewis, of Badin, visited his mother, Mrs. Nancy Lewis, Sunday. Mrs. Lewis accompanied her son home.

Little Miss Hilda Earp spent the week end with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Earp of the Thanksgiving section.

Mrs. J. D. Gulley and O. N. Gulley, of Clayton, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Smith Sunday.

Dr. J. T. Henderson, of Knoxville, Tenn., secretary of the Baptist Brotherhood of the Southern Baptist Convention, filled the pulpit of the Baptist church Sunday and remained over through Wednesday evening giving splendid addresses each evening on stewardship, church organization, enlistment, etc.

Dr. Henderson and Dr. R. L. Shirley, local pastor, spent Tuesday in Goldsboro where Dr. Henderson made an address at a stewardship conference at the First Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Atkinson and children spent the week end in Washington, D. C.

Miss Margaret Harrison spent last Saturday in Durham with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Woodard visited friends in Smithfield Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. W. A. Nordan visited relatives in Greenville Sunday.

Leslie White and Robert Jeffrys spent Sunday in Wendell.

R. A. Britton, of Mt. Gilead, visited friends in the city Sunday.

Mrs. B. L. Talton, who has been very ill, is rapidly improving. Her mother, Mrs. Bertha Grasse and sister, Mrs. R. R. Moore of Leaksville, are spending some time with her.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. McNeill and A. R. Hayes, of Newton, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Hayes.

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Woodard and children visited Mrs. Woodard's mother, Mrs. Lillian Holland in Buie's Creek, Sunday.

Mrs. Pete Hardison, of Enfield, spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. Ellen Creech.

Mrs. W. N. Hare, of Wilson, spent several days last week with her sisters, Mrs. M. B. Lynch and Mrs. R. M. O'Neal.

Mrs. T. R. Fulghum and Mrs. Alice Coley spent the week end at White Oak near Wilson, attending the Primitive Baptist Association.

Paul Eason, of Smithfield, was soloist at the Baptist church Sunday night.

Mrs. R. M. O'Neal spent several days in Pine Level last week with her mother, Mrs. J. I. Stallings.

Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Shirley and Dr. J. T. Henderson spent Wednesday in Clayton the guests of Dr. and Mrs. I. E. Andrews.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Call spent Sunday in Wilson the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Call.

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Covington, of Laurinburg, spent Monday night with Miss Blanche Mitchiner.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Perkins had as their dinner guests Sunday, Mrs. D. B. Perkins, Mrs. Sarah Edgerton and Mrs. J. H. Jackson.

Miss Eva Richardson, who is a student at Peace Institute, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Richardson.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Tye, of Greensboro, were the guests of Mrs. Alice Hood Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Branch motored to Durham Sunday.

Miss Blanche Mitchiner and her guests, Mrs. T. T. Covington and T. T. Jr., spent Tuesday in Wilson.

Miss Nellie Wiggs spent Wednesday in Pine Level. Keithly Reynolds has returned home after spending several days in Norfolk and Danville, Va. Glenn Richardson spent Sunday in Raleigh. Miss Lillian Scarborough, of Wendell, is the house guest of Mrs. B. A. Henry this week. Mrs. R. E. Brantley and children, of Zebulon, are spending several days with Mrs. Carl Worley. Mrs. J. A. Corbett has returned from the Smithfield hospital and is improving rapidly. Mrs. B. A. Henry and guest, Miss Lillian Scarborough, and Mrs. Claiborne Massey spent Tuesday in Clayton. Little Bobby Waters who has been ill with diphtheria, is very much improved. Miss Velma Brady and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Farber went to Raleigh Thursday.

Primitive Baptist association near Wilson Sunday.

Mrs. E. G. Richardson is visiting her sister in Raleigh this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kornegay spent Wednesday in Raleigh.

Mrs. J. D. Massey is improving after being ill for several days.

The members of the T. E. L. class of the Baptist church held their regular monthly meeting on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. L. Shirley. The hostesses were Mesdames J. F. Brown, Chas. B. Fulghum and Monroe Henry. After the business session, Dr. J. T. Henderson, of Knoxville, Tenn., made a very splendid address. A social hour was then enjoyed. The hostesses served a salad course and coffee.

Benson

BENSON, Oct. 22.—Mrs. W. D. Boone was hostess to the John Charles McNeil Book Club on Friday afternoon. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. A. S. Oliver, president. The subject for the afternoon was "Italy." Mrs. J. W. Whittenton and Mrs. J. E. Kirk had very interesting papers on the subject. Mrs. Woodlief played "Il Travatore." Miss Poole, the public school music teacher, sang a solo. Roll call was answered to with the names of famous Italians. The hostess served a salad course with sandwiches, hot rolls, olives stuffed dates, chocolate rolls and mints. The favors were in keeping with the Hallowe'en season. Fall flowers were used in the decorations. The special guests were: Mesdames Howard Weinges and Jim Poole of Raleigh and Miss Poole of Benson.

The Wesley Bible class of the Methodist church held a social and business meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Johnson on Friday night. Mrs. W. T. Martin, president of the class, presided. During the social hour Mrs. A. S. Oliver gave Edgar Guest's poem on "October." Miss Maude Johnson and Mrs. Mack Barbour sang.

Mrs. Woodlief played a piano solo. Several Hallowe'en games and stunts were played. Mrs. Alfred Farker and Mrs. A. S. Oliver won the prizes, which were in keeping with the season. The refreshments consisted of punch, assorted sandwiches and cocoa. The home was attractively decorated in accord with the Hallowe'en season. The special guests were: Mrs. F. L. Perkins of Hickory. The house was lovely in cut flowers and Hallowe'en decorations. After the guests arrived each one was given a towel to make. During the afternoon an interesting program was rendered. Mrs. W. D. Boone won the prize for making the prettiest towel. The towels were given as favors. A salad and sweet course was served to the fifty guests present. Mrs. Paul Johnson was hostess to the Entre Nous Club on Friday night. An interesting program was given by Mesdames J. F. Woodall and Parlia Hudson on Jane Adams and Mary Lyon. The club is studying this year "Forty Famous Women of Europe and America." Roll call was responded to by famous questions from women writers. Mrs. Paul Starling won the prize in a fortune telling course. The favors were in keeping with Hallowe'en. A number of special guests were present.

The Woman's Missionary Union of the Baptist churches of Johnston County held a meeting at the Baptist church here Thursday. Mrs. B. A. Holcut, chairman, presided. It was a very fine meeting and well attended. The reports were especially good, showing great improvement in the various churches. Tuesday night was Farmer's night at the Kiwanis club luncheon. A splendid program was given. S. P. Honeycutt was in charge. These meetings are always well attended.

Plans are under way for the Armistice Day celebration to be held in Benson Nov. 11. All of the American Legion of Johnston County are invited. Dr. W. T. Martin has charge of the program.

Mrs. C. C. Canaday entertained with a dinner party Tuesday complimentary to Mrs. F. L. Perkins of Hickory. Covers were laid for six. An elaborate luncheon was served.

Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Martin gave a dinner party at their home on Parrish Drive this week. Guests included: Mesdames A. S. Oliver, L. L. Perkins, C. C. Canaday, M. A. Peacock, L. L. Levinson, M. T., and W. M. Smith.

Mesdames C. C. Canaday, W. T. Martin and Miss Mary Lee went to Fayetteville Friday.

Mesdames L. L. Levinson, F. I. Perkins, J. I. Morgan, Alonzo Parrish, and W. M. Smith went to Raleigh Thursday to see Barnum-Bailey circus.

Miss Lallah Rookh Stephenson of Smithfield was in town Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Johnson and family attended the circus in Raleigh Thursday.