

County News

Selma

By MRS. W. T. WOODARD

SELMA, April 12.—Miss Dorothy Davis, of Raleigh, was the guest of Mrs. J. D. Massey last week end.

Miss Mary Emily Stallings spent Easter with friends in Raleigh.

Mr. H. Holt, of Spencer, spent Sunday here with his sister, Mrs. P. H. Sellers.

Mr. Estil Kutz, of Orlando, Fla. was in the city several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Blackburn spent last week in Cherryville with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Batten, of Norfolk, Va., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Oliver.

Elder J. T. Collier is on the sick list this week.

Mr. Raleigh Griffin, member of the high school faculty, has returned from a week end visit to Woodland.

Mrs. Jane Aycock, of Micro, and Mrs. Bettie Bailey, of Kenly, were guests of Mrs. J. C. Diehl several days last week.

Oscar Creech and Julius Corbett spent Sunday with friends in Burlington.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Scales spent Saturday in Raleigh.

Mr. C. G. Saunders, of Weldon, spent Monday night with Oscar Creech. He was returning to the University.

Mrs. Geo. Pittman, of Micro, spent Saturday with Mrs. J. T. Creech.

Rev. D. M. Sharpe and family spent Monday in Burlington and Monday night in Greensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Humphrey of Red Springs, spent the Easter holidays with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Nordan. Mrs. Humphrey before her marriage recently was Miss Mabe Nordan of this city.

Misses Annie Laurie Smith and Dorothy Adams spent last week end at their respective homes in Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Steed and little daughter, Frances, and James McMillan, of Chapel Hill, spent the Easter holidays with Mrs. Hattie McMillan.

Mr. W. G. Whitley, of Durham spent several days last week here with his brother, Mr. Thad H. Whitley.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Ray, of Buie's, and Miss Mary Belle McMillan, of Rockingham, spent last week end with Mrs. Hattie McMillan.

Mrs. Will Mitchell, of Durham was the guest of Mrs. A. K. Eason Sunday.

Mr. John Waddell left for his home in Durham after a visit to his father, Capt. C. B. Waddell.

Mr. Dudley Moore, a member of the faculty of the Bonlee high school, spent Friday night with Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Woodard.

Miss Roberta Spiers received a message Friday announcing the death of her grandmother in Richmond. She left immediately by bus for Richmond.

Mrs. Noble Blackman and children spent Friday in Goldsboro and Wilson.

Mrs. Geo. W. Peedin and little daughters, of Wilson, were guests of Mrs. I. W. Mayerberg during the Easter season.

Miss Stella Ethridge, a member of the Fremont school faculty spent last week end at home.

Mr. A. T. Millinder, of Portsmouth, Va., was in Selma Monday. He was enroute to Greensboro.

Mr. R. M. Burton, of Mount Gil-ead, was the guest of friends in the city Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Whitley, of Florence, and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Whitley and children, of Benson, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Woodard.

Robert Straughn visited relatives in Durham last week end.

Miss Mattie Ellington of Richmond, Va., arrived in the city on Saturday to spend Easter with Mrs. W. H. Call.

Miss Alma Lee, of Greenville, spent last week end with Miss Eva Blackman.

Mr. DeWarner Richardson and little son, William, of Durham, spent Easter here with Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Richardson.

Miss Ethel Boykin, of Micro, was the week end visitor of Miss Irene Creech.

Mr. John Short, of Charlotte, is spending a few days in the city this week.

Miss Mildred Creech spent the Easter holidays in Fredericksburg, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McKeithan spent the past week in Wilmington.

Mrs. E. G. Richardson, Jr., and children spent last week end in Raleigh.

Mr. Charlie Richardson and sister, Miss Mamie, Miss Rosa Pope, holidays here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Sam White.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul West left last Wednesday morning for Birmingham, Ala., where they will be for several weeks while Mr. West is looking after business matters.

A large congregation enjoyed the musical program at the Clayton Baptist church Sunday night at which time the choir gave the Easter cantata—"Victory Divine."

Miss Elizabeth Ferrell, student at E. C. T. C. Greenville, is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ferrell.

Mr. R. W. Sanders in company with a party of several others motored to Southport last Tuesday to attend a meeting of the stockholders of the Southport Fish Scrap and Oil company.

Mrs. C. W. Carter returned a few days ago from Keyaville, Va., where she has been visiting her mother, Mrs. R. W. Pridley. Mrs. Pridley accompanied Mrs. Carter home and will spend some time here.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh A. Page and Hugh, Jr., and Miss Florence Winstead were recent visitors to relatives and friends at Rocky Mount.

Quite a number of Clayton people visited the Sandhill section last Sunday to see the beautiful scenery of peach blossoms in the orchards along the highways. Among those were the following Mr. and Mrs. John T. Talton and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Beddingfield and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse C. Ellis, Misses Irma Herring, Eloise Sparger and Lela Mae Sitterson and Messrs. Elliot Poole, Foster James and Bill Massey.

The Musicians' Club met Thursday evening with Mrs. Charles G. Jolley, hostess. A profusion of spring flowers made a lovely setting for the regular business meeting. The present officers of the club were unanimously re-elected as follows: Mrs. Charles G. Guley, president; Mrs. Sam White, secretary; Mr. Norville Bryan, treasurer; Miss Florence Winstead, reporter. The decision of the club was to wait until fall to federate with the National Music clubs, and to present the public concert on April 25. About nine-thirty musicians were joined by their husbands and friends. During the delightful social hour following the hostess, assisted by Misses Davis and Noble, served pineapple short cake and nuts. Mr. Vann Stringfield, the soloist for the evening, assisted by Mrs. John T. Talton at the piano played several enjoyable cornet numbers. The next meeting will be April 16 with Mrs. C. H. Beddingfield as hostess.

The Halcyon club was entertained by Mrs. Willard McCullers at her home of Mrs. D. H. McCullers on Wednesday afternoon, March 28. The library, music room and ball were beautifully decorated with spring flowers and baskets filled with Easter bunnies and chicks. The president announced that the regular business meeting would be held with her on Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The program for the afternoon was William McKeiver and Charles B. Aycock. William McKeiver's life was discussed by Mrs. Y. M. Holland who had charge of the program. She then introduced Dr. Albert Anderson of Raleigh, who told in a most interesting manner the life of Charles B. Aycock as he knew him personally. Mr. Norville Bryan played two piano numbers from McDowell and Mrs. C. M. Thomas and Mrs. Sam White played a duet, "Overture" from William Tell. These added much to the enjoyment of the program. The hostess served a delicious marshmallow and pineapple salad with pickles, deviled eggs, cookies and coffee. Her two little daughters dressed in appropriate Easter costumes passed salted nuts in hand made baskets.

Kenly
By MRS. A. J. BROUGHTON

KENLY, April 16.—The Woman's club will hold its regular business meeting in the club room on Wednesday afternoon, April 18, at four o'clock. This is the time for selecting the officers for the new year. Every member is urged to be present.

Faithful Colored Servant Dies.
"Aunt" Maria Earp, who was 104 years of age, died Sunday. The funeral was conducted in the Free-will Baptist church Monday afternoon by Rev. Bynum, of Wilson. "Aunt" Maria spent practically all of her life in Kenly. She was much respected and loved by both white and colored.

Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Whitted went to Goldsboro Friday night to hear Mary Lewis sing.

Mr. Kedar Pyatt, of Franklinton, spent the week end here with Mrs. Pyatt.

Misses Nell Hardison, Eleanor Hatcher, Mrs. H. M. Grizzard, J. H. Barnes, Miss Eloise Darden, Kenneth Kirby, Miss Frances Godwin and Miss McCallum attended the exposition in Goldsboro Friday night.

Miss Patterson spent the week end in Smithfield with Mrs. Gilliam Wilson.

Mrs. P. Godwin, Miss Frances Hunter, Mrs. W. P. Whitted and Miss Frances Godwin attended the exposition in Goldsboro Thursday night.

Miss Emma Matthews and H. F. Edgerton were in Raleigh Friday on business.

Mesdames G. S. Coleman and W. J. Hooks spent Friday afternoon in Selma.

Miss Lottie Cromartie spent the week end in Durham.

Miss Dorothy Anderson, of Florence, S. C., spent Wednesday at the teaching with her sister, Miss Nelda Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Etheridge, Misses Ruth Clark and Pattie Hunter went to Goldsboro Friday night to hear Mary Lewis sing.

Miss Annie Morris Dixon, of Elm City, was the guest of Miss Frances Godwin for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. White, Miss Ethel Morris and Mrs. L. Z. Woodard spent Friday in Raleigh.

Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Whitted made a business trip to Wilson Friday afternoon.

Mrs. J. H. Barnes attended the N. C. Presbyterian in Roanoke Rapids last week.

Mr. J. W. Hollowell was in Luccama, Wilson and Smithfield on business last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Pearce attended the exposition Thursday night.

Mr. E. H. Frisbie, of Marion, spent Wednesday with his daughter, Miss Kate Frisbie, at the teaching.

Mr. J. W. Hollowell spent Thursday in Micro with her sister, Mrs. J. W. Fitzgerald.

Misses Nettie Harris, Ruth Clark and Supt. G. T. Whitley attended the entertainment at Glendale school Wednesday night. Miss Clark and Mr. Whitley were judges in the declamation and recitation contest.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Ethridge made a business trip to Fremont Friday morning.

Ed Frisbie, of Duke University, Durham, spent Wednesday at the teaching with his sister, Miss Kate Frisbie.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Ethridge and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ethridge attended the funeral of Mr. Monroe Boykin near Bailey Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. A. F. Bowen visited her mother, Mrs. Perry Holland in Goldsboro Thursday.

Mrs. George J. Hales, of Rocky Mount, spent the week end with Mrs. J. G. High.

Attending the exposition Thursday night were Messrs. John Woodard, Dobbin Bailey, Kenneth Kirby, W. J. Hooks, Jr., C. S. Pulle, Kermit Watson and T. C. Bailey.

Miss Myrtle and Fannie Harper, of Wilson, spent the week end with Mrs. W. T. Bailey.

Mrs. R. M. High, of Atlanta, Ga., is spending some time with Mr. High's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John G. High.

T. C. Bailey spent Saturday night in Raleigh.

Mrs. R. M. High spent the week end in Raleigh with friends.

Wilson's Mills
By MRS. S. L. BARBOUR

WILSON'S MILLS, April 16.—Mr. and Mrs. Carl K. Parrish and little daughter, Carolyn Parker, have returned to their home in Black Mountain after spending Easter here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Corbett and Miss Elizabeth Uzzle were visitors to Southern Pines Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Davis and children, of Micro, spent Saturday afternoon here with relatives.

Mr. Carlton Adams, of Wake Forest College, spent the Easter holidays here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Adams.

Miss Harriett Uzzle, of Raleigh, visited her mother, Mrs. Lulu Uzzle, during the holidays.

Mrs. Maggie Parrish, of Selma, spent Easter here with relatives.

Messrs. Carl K. Parrish, J. A. Todd, Ed Uzzle, Ed Turnage, A. O. Uzzle and S. L. Barbour attended the ball game in Raleigh Easter Monday.

Mr. Si Bailey, of Dunn, was a visitor in town on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Barbour and little son, Shelton, spent Wednesday in Kingston and Goldsboro.

Messrs. L. C. Davis and Moses Spivey, of Micro, were in town on Monday.

Miss Ellen Uzzle, of the Glendale school faculty, spent the holidays here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Crocker and children spent Sunday in town with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Parrish.

Mr. Carl Johnson, of Smithfield, was a visitor in town Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Aubrey Massey spent Saturday in Greensboro on business.

Mrs. Annie Jenkins, of Atlanta, Ga., recently visited her sister, Mrs. P. H. Massey.

Little Miss Loyce Godwin has returned to her home here after spending a week with her sister, Miss Nellie Godwin in Four Oaks.

Miss Odessa Massey had as her guest during the week end Miss Clayton, of the Cleveland school faculty.

Four Oaks
By MRS. R. C. CANDAY

FOUR OAKS, April 16.—Mrs. Reid Adams spent the Easter holidays in Knightdale with her sister, Mrs. Robert Wilder.

Mrs. William Adams and little son, Billy, spent the holidays in Elizabeth City with relatives.

Miss Christine Dodd, who is teaching in Bailey spent Easter here with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. E. D. Dodd.

Mrs. J. H. Austin and children spent the Easter holidays in Clayton with Mrs. Austin's mother, Mrs. M. E. Gattis.

Mr. Ronald Keen, of Tarboro, spent Easter here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Keen.

Miss Van Mullis, of Dunn, spent the week end with Miss Lucile Stanley.

Messrs. Carl Lewis and Wade Stanley spent the Easter holidays in Newberry, S. C., with friends.

Miss Pattie Williams spent the holidays at her home in Stedman.

Miss Maud Westbrook spent the week end at her home in Bentonville.

Mrs. Wilton Bandy and children are visiting relatives in Morehead City for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Johnson and little son, Ormond, spent Easter in Rose Hill with Mrs. Johnson's mother.

Mr. Tyron George, of Wilmington, spent Easter here with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Champion and Mr. and Mrs. Alton Johnson, of Raleigh, spent Sunday here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Canaday and Miss Luna Lewis spent Wednesday morning in Raleigh.

Mrs. Alice Adams and children, Doris and Leon, Jr., spent the holidays at Airee with Mrs. Adams' parents.

Mr. Rudolph Stanley, of Raieigh, spent several hours here Sunday with relatives.

Among those who went to Wilmington Sunday to see the big fish were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. William Sanders, Miss Annabelle Thornton, Messrs. Jesse Stanley, Nathan Keen and Will Brown.

Mr. W. E. Berkholtz, of Richmond, Va., spent Easter here with his daughter, Mrs. Nathan Keen.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lewis, Miss Luna Lewis, Wilson Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Canaday and children spent Sunday afternoon in Goldsboro with relatives.

Miss Jessie Hines spent the holidays in Ashland, Va., with Miss Mittie Quarles.

Miss Mary Cothran spent the Easter vacation at her home in Hamlet.

Miss Adna Bailey spent the holidays in Charlotte with relatives.

Mr. R. M. Hardee spent the holidays at his home in Stem.

Misses Beatrice Honeycutt and Evelyn Costello, of Linden, spent the week end with Miss Oma Adams.

Misses Margaret Tabor and Katherine Hancock spent Saturday in Smithfield with Miss Sarah Patterson.

Miss Pauline Strickland and Mr. Hunter Massengill, of Elevation, were married last Thursday in South Carolina.

Mr. Theron Hobbs spent Easter in Hamlet with friends.

Miss Louise Lyde spent the holidays in Washington, D. C., with friends.

Messrs. Allan Johnson, G. V. Harris and David Sanders attended the exposition in Goldsboro last Monday night.

Mrs. Booker Lawhorn, of Benson, spent Monday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bandy.

Mr. G. V. Harris spent the holidays at his home in Belhaven.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sanders, Mr. Richard Lewis and Miss Annie

Lee Denning of Benson attended the Wake Forest-State baseball game in Raleigh Monday.

Hubert Massengill, of Raleigh, spent the week end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Massengill.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Creech, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Creech and Mrs. B. B. Creech and son, James Bryan, spent Sunday in Rocky Mount with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gibson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hatcher and Mr. Robert Geddy spent the holidays with relatives in Raeford.

Miss Ava Myatt spent Easter in Goldsboro with Mr. and Mrs. John Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lassiter visited relatives at Oxford during the week end.

Miss Sarah McClellan spent the holidays at her home in Rowland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lewis, Miss Luna Lewis and Mrs. W. J. Lewis spent Thursday afternoon in Fayetteville.

Misses Catherine Barbour and Willie Massengill gave a delightful Easter egg hunt for their Sunday school classes Saturday afternoon. Little Miss Ruth Lassiter won the prize for finding the most eggs. She has won the prize two years in succession and is considered very lucky.

Mrs. R. C. Canaday, assisted by Mrs. Jefferson Lassiter, entertained the Sunbeam Band at an Easter egg hunt last Thursday afternoon from three until four o'clock. The little tots found about seventy-five boiled eggs and candy eggs of various colors.

Messrs. Jesse Stanly, William Sanders and John Bandy went to Greensboro Thursday on business.

Misses Luna Lewis and Meta Shaffer returned to Greensboro Monday to resume their studies at N. C. C. W., after spending the spring holidays here at their home.

Misses Willie Massengill, Marvel Sanders and Meta Shaffer were guests at a birthday dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Whittenton in Benson last Thursday evening in honor of their son, Marshal's twenty-first birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Creech of Norfolk, Va., announce the birth of a son. Mr. and Mrs. Creech were former residents of this city.

Little Miss Lois Godwin, of Wilson's Mills, spent last week with her sister, Miss Nellie Godwin.

Friends of Mr. Hunter Allen will be glad to learn that he is rapidly improving after being ill for several weeks.

Mrs. Parham Rodgers and little son, of Farmville, are visiting Mrs. E. F. Strickland for several days.

The senior play, "Barbara Makes a Splash," and presented by the senior class of the Four Oaks high school at the school auditorium on Wednesday evening was a big success. There has never been a play given in Four Oaks that was enjoyed quite as much, each of the cast of characters doing his part well. A group of chorus girls wearing lovely costumes appeared between scenes and delighted every one present with their songs and dances. A feature of the evening's entertainment was music by Miss Luna Lewis and Mr. Shelton Lewis. The play was directed by Miss Margaret Tabor and Miss Pattie Williams.

The junior baseball team of Four Oaks high school went to Benson Friday and defeated them by a score of 13 to 3. The junior's first game of the season but they are now ready to challenge any junior team in the county.

Johnson Union

By IRENE GOWER

CLAYTON, Route 3, Apr.—Mrs. W. N. Haggard and little daughters, Emily and Josephine, were the guests of Mrs. Martha Haggard of Clayton the past week end.

Misses Irene and Beatrice Gower, Miss Lillie Johnson, Mr. J. N. Johnson and Mr. Horace Lancaster of near Smithfield, attended the party last Friday evening given by Miss Eloise Dale of Goldsboro in honor of her brother, Mr. Prenciss Dale, of High Point.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Price and family spent last Sunday with friends near Clayton.

Messrs. Worth Matthews and Aeson Green, of near Cleveland, passed through this section Sunday.

Mr. James E. Sanders, of Raleigh, was the guest of friends in this section Wednesday.

Mrs. Rutha Parrish is visiting her brother, Mr. Bith Wallace, near Clayton this week.

We are very sorry to note the illness of little Miss Emma Hazel Price.

Master Howard Gower delightfully entertained a few of his little friends at an Easter egg hunt Wednesday afternoon.

We are very glad to note that Mrs. C. V. Knox is able to be out again after a few days' illness.

PLAY TO BE GIVEN AT NEW HOPE SCHOOL

The play, "A Fortunate Calamity" will be given by the teachers of New Hope school and the community boys and girls at New Hope school on Friday night, April 20. This play is part of the commencement exercises, and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Plant Velvet Beans for Profit

Velvet beans, planted in corn rows, will add $14.00 worth of plant food per acre at a cost of only fifty cents.

PHOENIX HOSIERY

Knees are out in the best society and millions of them are garbed in Phoenix hosiery, because of its range of color, smartness of style and softness of fiber.

Hudson-Belk Company
"The Home of Better Bargains"

Ladies', Children's and Misses' Ready-To-Wear

A BEAUTIFUL GROUP OF New Dresses
In Sizes For Women and Misses
$14.95 and $16.95

Here are Dresses that will attract attention anywhere, any time. Lovely georgettes, flat crepes and printed crepes. Only to see them is to appreciate their beauty—quality and styling.

Children's Silk DRESSES Sizes 7 to 14 $4.98	Ladies' and Misses' DRESSES In All Sizes $9.95
--	---

Lovely silk frocks for this season—of most charming new fabrics and colors.

Hudson-Belk Co.
"The Home of Better Bargains" Smithfield, N. C.