Birthday Party. Miss Mamie Johnson delightfully entertained a few of her young friends Saturday evening at her home in honor of her fourteenth birthday. Many interesting games were enjoyed and victrola music was furnished throughout the evening. About ten o'clock the guests were invited into the dining room where a lovely birthday cake with fourteen glowing candles adorned the center of the table. Candies of various kinds were also served. The guests departed at a late hour declaring Miss Johnson a most charming hostess and wish-ing her many more happy birth-days. About twenty young people were present to enjoy the delightful occasion.

Attend Senior Play. Among those who attended the senior play at Wilson's Mills Friday night were Mr. and Mrs. Amos Johnson and family; Miss Mollie Southerland, Mr. and Mrs. George Southerland, Mr. and Mrs. William Harper and Mr. Durwood Johnson.

Listen everybody. Sunday school is held every Sunday morning at ten o'clock at Elizabeth church and you are cordially invited to come and share with us these interesting lessons we are having this quarter. You who are not in Sunday school anywhere do not know what you are missing. So come ahead folks and help us out. We need you and will try to make you feel welcome. Next Sunday we will meet at nine-thirty instead of ten o'clock on account of the fifth Sunday meeting to be held at Corinth.

Well, enough has been said about the Sunday school. Now about our annual revival. It begins next Sunday night and in spite of mingles, whooping cough, or what not, we are looking for a large attendance. And by the way, if you don't come you will miss something great because our preacher can surely make you sit up and listen.
