Big Banner Warehouse Opens Tuesday, Sept. 3

August 28th, 1929.

Dear friend:

It is with great pleasure that we announce the opening of the Big Banner Warehouse on Tuesday, Sept. 3d for the 1929 season.

We are glad to tell you that we are to have the same set of buyers this year, in addition to several new ones. Every large company will be represented, and you will find it to your advantage to sell all of your tobacco here. This season will mark the thirty-first year in the history of the Big Banner Warehouse. During this time we have labored earnestly in your behalf, and we're proud to say that we number our customers by the thousands. To those of our old customers, we say: Come on and keep your names upon the roll. To those of you who have not as yet given us a trial, we say: Come on to the Big Banner and let us make a regular customer of you. There are none who can do any more for you, and few who can do as well.

N. L. Perkins will again do our auctioneering. "Perk", as many know him, prefers the title of "Farmers Friend" and truly he has earned it, for there is no auctioneer in the business who works any harder for the farmers interest than he does.

Our office and clerical force are as good as the best and you will find them courteous and ready to serve you at all times. Will Lassiter and Bob Pittman will again assist in managing the sales. Lawrence Moore and Walter Batten will manage the floor. Howard Olive will look after our grading department and Bob Smith will again present your checks with a smile.

Thanking you for past patronage and asking a continuance of same, we beg to remain,

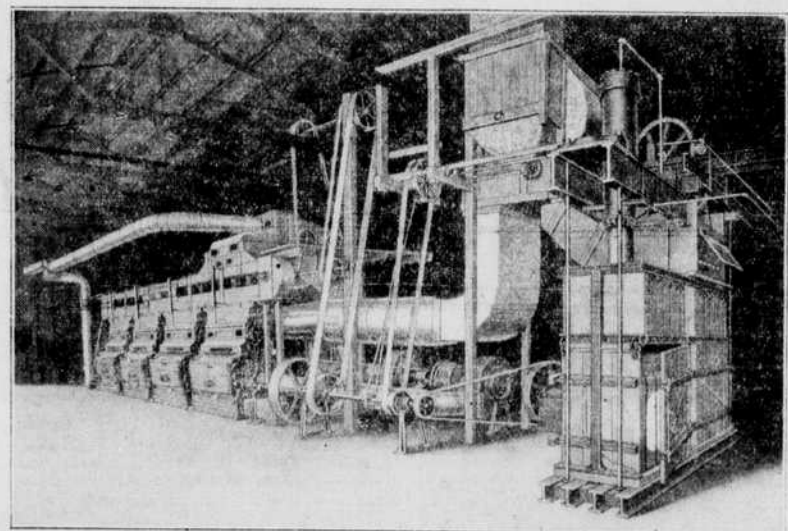

Your friends,

SKINNER & PATTERSON.

P. S. Always visit the Big Banner when in town.
