Burglars Enter Four Oaks Store

Break Plate Glass Window of W. J. Lewis and Get Dry Goods; Mrs. Canaday Entertains

FOUR OAKS, Dec. 9.—Burglars entered the store of W. J. Lewis Sunday morning between four and five o'clock by breaking the front plate glass display window.

They took everything in the window, including ladies and cnildrens ready to wear, and had broken through the inside window into the store to complete their when Mr. Will Barbour happened to pass and heard noise and saw someone in the store with flashlights. As Mr. Barbour ran for the policeman. the burglars made their escape. Entertains at Dinner.

tragic occurrence took place in Cleveland township Friday morning about nine o'clock, when two little children of Orlando McDaniels colored, aged two and five, were burned to death.

According to information received here, McDaniels was off at work and the mother of the children had gone somewhere in the neighborhood, after locking the children up in the house for safety until her return. White she was away the house caught on fire, and the house and its contents together with the two children were destroyed. The charred bodies of the two children were found across each other where the bed was in the room.
