Class Reunion.

Benson, Jan. 16.—On Friday night Mrs. Joel Street and Miss Lily Canaday delightfully entertained the class of '24 at the latter's home. The meeting was turned over to the class president, Mr. Hiram Rose who welcomed the following class members: Misses Kate Johnson and Lily Canaday, Messdames Jack Street, Hiram Rose, Mack Barbour, Messrs. Marshall Whittenton, Herman Strickland, Wade Johnson, Bailey Hudson, Edward Johnson and Hunter Johnson. Letters were read from absent class members who expressed regret at not being able to be present.

At the close of the business session, Mr. Hunter Johnson, the class musician, gave delightful piano numbers of his own composition as well as other numbers by famous composers. The class song, "The Anvil Chorus" was then sung with much enthusiasm. A class name contest proved quite interesting. Mr. Bailey Hudson winning an attractive motto. After this "Walk on the 24" caused much fun, Mr. Hiram Rose being the winner paid a forfeit by telling his first day's experience at college in a very humorous manner. A picture contest was then engaged in, Mr. Wade Johnson winning a dainty bon bon dish.

The hostesses assisted by Miss Flora Canaday then served delicious refreshments which consisted of ambrosia with whipped cream topped with cherry, fruit cake and hot coffee. The favors were green and white mints in green baskets. The class colors being green and white were carried out in decorations and refreshments, and favors-combined with yuletide colors.

Toward the close of the evening's entertainment Mr. Edward Johnson gave in rhyme a toast to the class; Mr. Herman Strickland gave a most appropriate response.

The special guests were: Miss Flora Canaday, of Campbell College; Messdames Marshall Whittenton, Schenectady, N. Y.; Wade Johnson, Benson; Edward Johnson, Frankinton; Ralph Austin, Clayton; Garland Johnson, William and Mary College; and Mack Barbour, Benson.

Mrs. Mack Barbour will be hostess at the next meeting.

A. B. W. Class Meets

Kenly, Jan. 16.—The regular monthly meeting of the Annie Benson Wesley class of the Methodist Sunday school was held at the home of the retiring president, Mrs. C. S. Pulley, on Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock. The following new year's program was presided over by Mrs. J. W. Darden, who read the scripture lesson: A New Year's motto, by Mrs. F. A. Pike; Poem, "Let All Be New," by Miss Nettie Harris; a prayer, by Mrs. A. J. Broughton.

The business session was conducted by the new president, Mrs. G. C. Phillips, who appointed committees for this year. Between fifty and seventy-five dollars worth of groceries, fruit and toys were reported given to the needy at Christmas. It was decided to send out little aprons to raise money for the class treasury. Mrs. Pulley thanked the members for their cooperation while she was president. The hostess assisted by her daughter, Miss Grace Pulley, Mrs. F. A. Pike and Mrs. G. C. Phillips served a chicken salad course with hot coffee.

Those present were: Messdames
