Mr. D. W. Vinson, of Raleigh, was in the city yesterday.

Miss Clyda Woodard and Miss Ruth Poindexter are spending the week end in Wilson.

Dr. and Mrs. Jesse Coletrane and daughter, Grace, of Zebulon, were guests of Mrs. Lucy Hood Coletrane Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee E. Sanders, of Rocky Mount, have been spending a few days here with Mrs. A. M. Sanders.

WEDNESDAY BRIDGE CLUB ENTERTAINED.

Mrs. W. M. Sanders, Jr., was hostess to the Wednesday Bridge club at the regular meeting this week at her home on North Third street. Tables were arranged for twelve guests and bridge was enjoyed during the afternoon. High score prize for the club went to Mrs. W. G. Glass and the visitor's prize was presented to Miss Mildred Southerland of Mount Olive. Delicious refreshments in two courses were served at the conclusion of the game.

MRS. E. F. WARD ENTERTAINS.

The Queen of Clubs bridge club met Tuesday evening with Mrs. E. F. Ward as hostess, when she very delightfully entertained the club members and several additional guests from the hours of eight to eleven o'clock. Lovely potted plants and cut flowers were artistically placed in the rooms where six tables were grouped for the players. Many spirited progressions followed and when the scores were taken, a bottle of perfume was given to Mrs. A. G. Johnson for top score for the

Demand For Sargon Breaks All Records

Famous Medicine Rapidly Becoming Household Word Throughout America—24 Carloads Sold in 25 Days in 27 States—Overwhelming Demand the One Great Outstanding Proof of Its Wonderful Merit.

Most medicines are sold by the dozen or by the gross. A few are sold in larger quantities, but think of a medicine that sells in such enormous quantities that wholesale dealers are forced to buy it in solid carload lots to supply a demand that has been so phenomenal as to almost stagger the imagination.

That's just what has happened with Sargon, the celebrated new medicine that is now sweeping the country like a great tidal wave. Not only is the trade buying it in carload lots, but they are buying carload after carload, each car containing over 20,000 bottles of Sargon and Sargon Soft Mass Pills.

Twenty-four carloads in 25 days sold in 27 states is the amazing record recently made by these wonderful medicines.

In the state of California where Sargon was introduced in April of last year, it has required 21 carloads to supply the ever increasing demand in this one state alone. Texas dealers required 9 carloads in only four months.

A single New York Firm, with wholesale branches in leading cities, is selling at the rate of over a million and a quarter bottles a year.

"Phenomenal and bewildering" is the way one of the big drug jobbers of the country describes the marvelous demand for Sargon.

"It's the greatest seller within the memory of the oldest members of our organization," said another.

"We are selling more Sargon than any other ten medicines put together," said still another.

And so it is everywhere Sargon has been introduced. From Coast to Coast and from the Gulf to the Great Lakes, Sargon is known and honored.

Million upon millions have used it and have told other millions what it has done for them. When suffering men and women find a medicine that helps them, they naturally want to tell their friends about it and in this way Sargon is fast becoming a household word throughout America.

club, and Mrs. D. F. Reid was presented the visitor's prize.

Salad and sweet courses were then served. On the plates, small pink and green baskets were filled with mints as favors.

IN HONOR OF MRS. LUCAS.

Mrs. J. B. Slack entertained at two tables of bridge Wednesday evening honoring Mrs. T. Lucas of Benson. A pleasing arrangement of potted plants added much to the effectiveness of the home. After a number of spirited progressions Miss Lallah Rookh Stephenson was awarded the top score prize. The guest of honor was presented with a lovely string of beads.

The hostess served a salad and sweet course with hot coffee. Candies were on each table during the game.

Those playing besides Mrs. Lucas were: Mrs. B. G. Jones, Mrs. L. H. Sasser, Mrs. E. E. Nelson, Mrs. E. F. Ward, Mrs. Clifton Beasley, Mrs. A. G. Johnson and Miss Lallah Rookh Stephenson.

In Honor of Misses Pittman.

Miss Mildred Thorne and Miss Eloise Stallings gave Misses Annie and Mildred Pittman a surprise taecky party Saturday night, January 18.

The crowd began to gather at eight o'clock but it seemed that all decided to leave the "taecky" at home.

Those present were: Misses Betty Mae Creech, Gertrude Fields, Akchene Eason, Mildred Thorne, Eloise Stallings, Annie Mae Tiner, Alma Eason, Annie and Mildred Pittman.

Messrs. Hubert Daughtry, Leon Gilbert, Therman Eason, David Anderson, Archie Sherron, Bill Phillips, Archie Hatcher, Orland Thorne, Herman and Raeford Creech, James Eason, Cecil Pittman, Mr. Bonds and Mr. Flowers.

Indoor games were played including wink, thimble, and turning the pot lid. Popcorn was served throughout the games and all departed declaring they had spent a joyful evening.

MUSIC CLUB ENTERTAINED.

The Aeolian Music club met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. D. M. Coates with Miss Sarah Turlington and Mrs. Chester Stephenson as hostesses. The following well arranged program on Charles Francois Gounod (1818-1893) was rendered by members of the club:

Sketches of the Life of Gounod by Mrs. F. H. Brooks and Mrs. C. V. Johnson.

Piano Solo, Le Bal D'Enfants, by Mrs. Guy C. Lee.

Solo, Sing, Smile, Slumber, a serenade, by Mrs. John White Ives, accompanied by Mrs. D. Carlton Stephenson.

Story of the opera, Faust, by Miss Mattie Pou.

Piano duet, Love Song, from Faust, by Miss Lallah Rookh Stephenson and Mrs. D. Carlton Stephenson.

Chorus, Soldier's Chorus, from Faust, accompanied by Miss Ethel Gaitley.

Solo, Flower Song, from Faust, by Mrs. John White Ives accompanied by Miss Gaitley.

Chorus, Praise Ye Jehovah, accompanied by Mrs. C. V. Johnson.

During the short business session which was held after the musical program, Mrs. C. V. Johnson was elected president of the club for the coming year and Mrs. D. Carlton Stephenson was chosen secretary-treasurer.

At the close of the evening the hostesses served delicious cake and hot tea. About fifteen members were present on this delightful occasion.

Birthday Party.

Selma, Jan. 23.—Miss Margaret Kirby was hostess to 31 of her friends and schoolmates at the home of her parents on Green street Friday evening celebrating her twelfth birthday. The home was attractively decorated, a color scheme of green and white being used. Games and stunts were enjoyed for a while after which a popularity contest engaged the attention of the boys and girls, Louise Blackman being winner for the girls, and John Flowe for the boys. Piano music was furnished throughout the evening by Miss Irene Creech. Near the close of the evening the guests were invited into the dining room where the table was covered with a lace cloth, a border of green ivy making the proper setting for the lovely white birthday cake with its 12 green candles. Black cream and cake were served. The favors were crepe paper baskets containing green and white mints. The hostess was the recipient of many pretty and useful birthday remembrances.

Address Selma PTA.

Selma, Jan. 22.—On Tuesday afternoon in the school auditorium a called meeting of the Selma Parent-Teacher Association was held. The meeting was opened with one verse from "Hot For Carolina," followed by prayer by Mrs. R. L. Shirley. Mrs. R. A. Ashworth, a representative from the Woman's club, announced that Miss Heller would speak in the school auditorium on February 12 in the interest of a public library. The public was invited to attend. Mrs. J. M. Emanuel, president of the P. T. A. in Hayes Barton school in Raleigh, was the speaker for the afternoon and was introduced by Mrs. William Creech, chairman of the program committee.

Mrs. Emanuel's talk was especially to the "grade mothers" and she outlined briefly their duties. First, the grade mothers represent the P. T. A. to the other mothers; Second, to band the mothers together for the welfare of the children; Third, to assist the teacher in her work. Grade mothers should call a meeting of mothers to talk over conditions in their room. She should visit every mother if possible and know conditions in the homes.

Everyone present including teachers and parents enjoyed Mrs. Emanuel's talk. Miss Dorothy Diell rendered a piano solo, "Tranquillo" after which the president, Mrs. E. V. Woodard invited the association to the school lunch room where Mrs. H. Bueck served a salad course.

were followed by Misses Margaret Wellons, sister of the bridegroom, gowned in pink satin, and Miss Mabel Lynn Mann, of Spring Hope, wearing green satin. Mr. Andrew Finch, of Henderson, and Mr. Frank Skinner entered the church next, followed in turn by Misses Virginia Bender, cousin of the bride, of New Bern, wearing blue satin, and Arah Hooks, in a costume of yellow satin. The rainbow effect of the bridesmaids' costumes was completed by the sheaths of Tallismon and Briarcliff roses, snapdragon and stercia. The groomsmen who entered last were Messrs: William Bickett, of Raleigh, and Lyndon K. Jordan.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Annie Spivey, of Washington, D. C., as maid of honor, who wore lavender satin and carried Briarcliff roses, snapdragon and English heather, showered with sweet peas.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her step-father, Mr. Robert Charles Banks, who gave her in marriage. The bridegroom was attended as best man by his brother, Mr. Robert A. Wellons, of Charlotte. The bride was particularly lovely in her wedding gown of white satin with long bridal veil and illusion veil over the face, the veil being caught by a pearl coronet. Her bouquet was a sheath of Calla lilies showered with valley lilies. The impressive ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Francis H. Craighill, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd of Rocky Mount.

The wedding party left the church as Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Robert Charles Banks of Spring Hope. For the past year she has lived in Smithfield having held a position with the First-Citizens Bank and Trust company. Possessed with beauty and charm, she has won a number of friends who welcome her back in their midst.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Wellons of this city. He is an alumnus of the State University and is a member of the Kappa Sigma fraternity. He is the junior member of the law firm of Wellons and Wellons.

Following the wedding ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Banks tendered a reception at their home honoring the bridal party. Mrs. A. Q. Roebuck of Spring Hope and Miss Mildred Yarbrough of Spring Hope and Smithfield received at the door and presented the guests to the receiving line. The receiving line was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Charles Banks, parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Wellons, parents of the bridegroom, Mrs. Laester, grandmother of the bridegroom, and the entire bridal party with the bride and groom standing at the end under a huge wedding bell.

Presiding over the punch bowls in the back hall were Mrs. Julian Brantley, Mrs. Arthur Farmer, Mrs. Percy Pitts and Mrs. Charles

These carried out a color scheme of pink, green and white. On each plate was a handmade favor, also carrying out the color scheme. Among those serving were Miss Miriam Bundy and Miss Mary Elizabeth Wellons, sister of the bridegroom, of Smithfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Wellons left after the reception for a wedding trip in Florida.

Kiwanis Club Meets.

The anniversary of Kiwanis International was observed at yesterday's luncheon. Leon Stevens, chairman of the Education Committee of the local club, pointed out the objects of Kiwanis International as follows:

To give primacy to the human and spiritual, rather than to the material values of life.

To encourage the daily living of the golden rule in all human relationships.

To promote the adoption and the application of higher social business and professional standards.

To develop, by present and example, a more intelligent, aggressive and serviceable citizenship.

ONE SWALLOW OF THOXINE IS GUARANTEED TO RELIEVE SORE THROAT. Quicker, better and more certain than anything you have ever used or your money back 35c. 6c. in all drugists.

To provide, through Kiwanis clubs, a practical means to form enduring friendships, to render altruistic service and to build better communities.

To cooperate in creating and maintaining that sound public opinion and high idealism which make possible the increase of righteousness, justice, patriotism, and good-will.

The immediate objective of the local club, as pointed out by Glenn Grier, is to put some industry in the Austin building. A special committee was appointed to achieve this goal during the current year. Bill Holt introduced the following gentlemen as guests of the club: Mr. J. R. Walker, assistant manager of the Texaco company, Norfolk, Va.; Mr. A. C. Hawkins, zone representative of the Texaco company, Goldsboro.
