Mrs. R. S. Fleming, Mrs. W. N. Holt and Mrs. S. L. Morgan left Wednesday for Elizabeth City to attend the State Convention of the Baptist Women's Missionary Union. Mrs. Paul V. Brown of Benson also went with the Smithfield delegates.

Among those from Smithfield who attended the program of the Duke Musical Clubs in Goldsboro Wednesday evening were Misses Mary Gattis Holland, Gladys Johnson, Corinne Ellington, Mrs. T. J. Lassiter, J. E. Lassiter and son, Nathan.

Mrs. J. A. Morgan and Miss Ruth Wilson spent Monday in New Bern.

Mrs. M. B. Timberlake and Mr. J. A. Timberlake, of Durham, mother and brother of Mrs. E. F. Ward, were visitors of Mrs. Ward last Sunday.

MRS. SMITHWICK HOSTESS.

Mrs. N. T. Smithwick entertained Tuesday afternoon from four until six o'clock, honoring her mother, Mrs. John O. Ellington at a birthday party. Three tables were made up for bridge in the attractive living room where yellow narcissus placed here and there added a note of color and cheer for the players. The honor was the recipient of a number of attractive gifts.

Top score prize went to Mrs. H. P. Stevens. A salad course with iced tea was served the guests.

Those present included Mrs. Ellington, Mrs. L. G. Patterson, Mrs. E. J. Wellons, Mrs. H. B. Marrow, Mrs. H. P. Stevens, Mrs. H. C. Hood, Mrs. Thel Hooks, Mrs. W. M. Sanders, Sr., Mrs. A. H. Rose, Mrs. F. H. Brooks, Mrs. S. T. Honeycutt and Miss Mildred Young.

BAPTIST PHILATHEAS MEET.

The Philathea class of the Baptist Sunday school held its regular business and social meeting last week at the home of Mrs. George Cherry, with Mrs. Cherry and Mrs. W. T. Dance as hostesses.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Thos. Jordan and the hymn, "Jesus Calls Us" was sung. This was followed by the scripture reading by Mrs. Jordan. After the secretary had read the minutes of the February meeting, a short business session was held. Clothes for the orphan class supports were planned, and gifts were collected for pouncing a poor family. The session closed with a prayer by Mrs. R. S. Fleming.

During the social half hour the hostesses served a salad course with coffee, giving green and white baskets of mints as favors. The refreshments and decorations were in keeping with the Saint Patrick idea.

Members present besides the hostesses were: Mesdames B. S. Fleming, Thomas Jordan, B. G. Jones, A. M. Calais, J. D. Herrings, family burying ground in the presence of a large crowd of sorrowing relatives and friends. A profusion of beautiful flowers bore testimony of the esteem in which the deceased was held.

The pallbearers were Messrs. A. K. Worley, George Wiggs, Jim Corbett and Milton Oliver. The flower bearers were Minnie Wiggs, Flossie Price, Ruth Barden, Pauline Braswell, Rebecca Creech and Viola Braswell.

A precious one from us is gone. A voice we loved is still. A place is vacant in our home. That never can be filled. A granddaughter.

Finishes Commercial Course.

C. M. Kirby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Kirby of Kenly, has finished the work of the commercial course at the Chillocothe Business College in Chillocothe, Mo., and has received his diploma.

A CARD OF THANKS

We the undersigned wish to express our appreciation and gratitude to our many relatives, friends, doctors, and the Baptist hospital at Winston-Salem for the many acts of kindness that were shown us during the lingering illness and death of our husband and father. Everybody far and near was so good to us. We cannot express in words as we feel we wish to.

MRS. JOEL GARNER AND CHILDREN.

Funeral of Mrs. R. B. Byrd.

The funeral of Mrs. R. B. Byrd, whose home was a short distance from Selma, occurred at the old family cemetery a few miles from Smithfield yesterday afternoon in the presence of a large number of the relatives and friends. She had been for many years an esteemed Christian woman, her husband having preceded her in 1902. The funeral was conducted by Rev. S. L. Morgan, pastor of the Smithfield Baptist church. The deceased was almost 79 years of age, and is survived by six children, thirty-three grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. The children are I. T. Byrd, of Selma; J. T. and P. C. Byrd, of McCollers; Mrs. G. T. Woodard, McCollers; Mrs. J. T. Penny, Garner; and Mrs. O. A. Williams, Raleigh.

APPRECIATES FILES OF THE HERALD

Students at the local school gratefully acknowledge the gift of bound copies of the Smithfield Herald, which were presented to the school library this week by Judge P. H. Brooks. The files include copies of the Herald from 1915 through 1929. The pupils have been very much interested in looking over these old papers, and have especially enjoyed reading of the games and activities of the local school. One student found the announcement of his birth in one of the issues.

MRS. MITCHELL DIES HOME NEAR PRINCETON

GOLDSBORO, March 11.—Mrs. Smith Mitchell, 81, died at her home near Princeton, 15 miles from Goldsboro, at noon Monday, following an illness of many months. She was a highly respected and beloved woman.

She is survived by the following children: J. H. B. M. C. P. L. E., Lonnie and G. Mitchell, Mrs. Pennie Barnes, Kinston; Mrs. W. E. West, Princeton route 3; a half brother, Marshall Robbins, of Micro, and a half sister, Mrs. Sarah Mitchell of Clayton.

Funeral services were conducted from the home Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Bryan of Pine Level, officiating. Burial was in the family cemetery near the home.

his remarks. He placed a high value upon being an optimist, even in the midst of financial depressions. He admonished the Kiwanians to go about with a smile, a cheerful countenance and a charitable attitude.

Guests of the club yesterday were W. H. Gibson Jr., of Biscoe, former president of the Southern Textile Association, and B. L. Jessup, State Sanitary Inspector, who is checking over the schools, hotels, and cafes in the county. Both of these men made brief talks.

A pleasing feature of the luncheon were the vocal solos rendered by James Davis, Mrs. Lucy Hood Coletrane accompanied him on the piano.

CLAYTON ROTARIANS SPONSOR MINSTREL

The Rotary club of Clayton is sponsoring a home talent minstrel to be given at the school auditorium in Clayton on Tuesday evening, March 13. The proceeds will be used for the student loan fund. The Rotarians have been working to make this a most enjoyable evening and a liberal patronage will be appreciated.

NEAR TRAGEDY

SELMA, March 12.—A peculiar happening which came near being a fatal occurrence took place on highway 22 about a mile north of Selma last Wednesday night. About ten o'clock when Prof. G. T. Whitley, Rev. J. H. Frizzle and three ladies, who had been attending classes at the Johnston County Training school at the Selma Methodist church, were returning to their homes in Kenly, the report of a revolver was heard and a ball crashed through the windshield of their car. No one was seen and no motive could be assigned for the deed. It seems almost a miracle that no one was hurt.

DUKE GLEE CLUB STOPS IN CITY FOR SHORT TIME

Two buses loaded with members of the Duke University musical organizations stopped in this city for a short while Wednesday afternoon and invaded a local drug store 55 strong. The glee club and orchestra were en route to Goldsboro where they gave an entertainment Wednesday night, the first of the regular spring tour which also includes Mount Olive, Greenville and Nashville. Three local boys, William, Tom and Walter Las-eter, are members of the orchestra making this trip. William Lassiter is business manager of the musical clubs.

Mrs. Carl Mitchell and little daughter, of Wilmington, are spending this week here with Mrs. R. E. Fowler.
