CUCUMBER MARKET FOR SMITHFIELD

Farmers Are Showing Considerable Interest in Planting Cucumbers; Harvey Boney Thinks Smithfield Would Be Ideal Market

About 200 farmers in the vicinity of Smithfield have signed up with Mr. Harvey Boney to plant cucumbers, one-half to two acres each being the limit. Mr. Boney is desirous of signing up about 200 more farmers, one-half to one acre each. The more farmers co-operating in this project, the better the results will be. The bigger the market, the more f.o.b. buyers can be brought in, and it is thought that 400 acres will be easily planted and that a big market will be established at Smithfield. Mr. Boney expects to run a packing shed at the A. C. L. railroad, and all cucumbers will be properly graded and sold f.o.b. for the highest dollar.

According to Mr. Boney, cucumbers should be planted by April 5, and not later than April 10. Rows should be 4 feet apart, and seeds should be planted in hills 4 feet apart, 3 to 5 seeds per hill 1 pound per acre. The same ground should be planted second time (10 days later) in between every hill, for protection against Easter freeze; 8-4-4 commercial fertilizer should be used, 800 pounds per acre. Land should be selected which is reasonably heavy—not too sandy. Land which is moist (but not wet), especially at fruiting time, is to be preferred to dry clay hills or sandy ridges.

Clark's Special cucumbers are prime favorites with practically all North Carolina growers for marketing purposes. First, it is a good shipper, and will hold its color and firmness when handled over long distances. Second, it has a very attractive green color, being the darkest green cucumber on the market today. Third, it is uniform in length, running from 8 to 10 inches, and smooth in appearance, having very few spines. On account of its small seed pockets, it is of excellent quality for slicing.

Mr. Boney thinks Smithfield has the best background in Eastern North Carolina for a cucumber market. The shipping facilities are ample. Smithfield being located on the A. C. L. railroad running between the Florida Keys and the nation's capital. Smithfield is also at the junction of highways 10 and 22 running from north to south and east to west. Mr. Boney also thinks the soil is well adapted to cucumbers, since it is wonderfully productive and easily tilled.

Mr. Boney thinks it will pay 500 Johnston county farmers to plant an acre each in cucumbers. If they should fail to find a market, it would force them to follow the cucumber crop with some kind of forage—corn, peas, or soy beans. Johnston county could produce enough feedstuffs to feed all the stock, as well as produce enough vegetables to supply a considerable portion of the state.

W. J. HINES PASSES AWAY

A sad death occurred in Cleveland township Friday when Mr. W. J. Hines passed away after a lingering illness with pneumonia. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon and interment made in the Bass cemetery in Meadow township. Rev. W. O. Henderson, pastor of the Mill Creek Christian church, conducted the service. The pall bearers were the sons, step-sons, and nephew of the deceased, as follows: M. E. Hines, W. W. Hines, D. H. Hines, John Hines, J. H. Langston, and Bartley Bass.

Mr. Hines is survived by five sons, and three daughters. His wife preceded him to the grave some years ago.

E. N. Davis, of Bladen county, sold 65 hogs on the Richmond market for 11 1/2 cents a pound and got nearly $1,500 out of the shipment. He told County Agent J. R. Powell that corn and hogs pay more profit than cotton, and he would grow no cotton this year.

New Supreme Judge

Hon. John J. Parker of North Carolina, successor to the late Edward T. Sanford, is at 44 the youngest judge on the Supreme Court of the U. S.

5TH LOCAL GRANGE IN JOHNSTON CO.

A. J. Whitley, Jr., Is Chosen As Master of Grange Organization in Smithfield Township

The fifth township local Grange in Johnston county was recently organized in Smithfield township. At a meeting of the local Grange held in the courthouse here last Friday night, committees were appointed and matters of importance were discussed.

All the officers except the master had been selected at a previous meeting of the Grange, and Friday night A. J. Whitley, Jr., was chosen to fill this position. The next meeting of the Smithfield Township Grange will be held on Friday night, April 25, the place of meeting to be announced later. At that time state officers will be present to assist with the initiation of several candidates for membership. Any one interested in the Grange or the farmer's problems, is asked to see the local master, or A. M. Johnson, county master. These officers wish to co-operate with the people in general in the county for the solution of farm problems, and they ask for the co-operation of other interests in the county in working out these problems.

SPENDS WEEK-END IN JAIL

J. L. Anderson, of Elizabeth City, who came to the Johnston county jail Sunday afternoon to visit a Federal prisoner, was found by the jailer to have a pint of whiskey on his person and spent the week-end in jail in default of a $200 bond. The Federal prisoner was O. A. McPherson, whose wife and children Anderson had brought for a visit.

OFFICERS POUR OUT BEER IN WILDERS

Deputy Sheriffs J. O. Hinton, L. D. Parker, and E. A. Johnson went to Wilders township early yesterday morning and poured out 350 gallons of beer. They found the beer in three different places. No still was in operation but parts of the still were found hid in the woods.

REVIVAL SERVICES TO BEGIN AT M. E. CHURCH

A series of revival services are scheduled to begin at the Methodist church here next Sunday morning. The pastor, Rev. J. D. Bundy, will be assisted by Rev. A. D. Wilcox, of Louisiana, who will not arrive until Monday. Mr. Wilcox is not known in Smithfield. His first visit here was during the prohibition campaign in North Carolina, when he made a series of lectures in the old Methodist church in the interest of prohibition illustrating his addresses with lantern slides. He is an interesting speaker and he comes to Smithfield again with a rich experience out of which he will deliver heart-searching messages. The public is cordially invited to attend the services which will continue for ten days.

Query for High School Debates

The query to be discussed in the triangular debates among the high school students of the state Friday night is: "Resolved, that North Carolina should adopt the proposed constitutional amendment, authorizing the classification of property for taxation."

Crossing Death List Drops

Washington, Mar. 31—A total of 2,485 people were killed in grade crossing accidents last year, the American Railway association reported today. This was a decrease of 3.2 per cent over 1928. Injuries from such accidents totaled 8,804, an increase of 1.98 over the preceding year. A total of 5,975 accidents took place at grade crossings last year, an increase of 175, the report showed.

AUTO WRECK NEAR CLAYTON SATURD'Y

Mrs. Frank Marlow of Durham Is in Johnston County Hospital as Two Negroes in Jail Await Hearing

Saturday afternoon about four o'clock two automobiles collided on highway No. 10 near Clayton and Mrs. Frank Marlow, of Durham, is in the Johnston County hospital as a result. Mrs. Marlow with her father, Mr. L. B. Thompson, and other members of the family was coming toward Smithfield when two negroes who had been driving behind a truck attempted to pass the truck and collided with the Durham car. It is feared that Mrs. Marlow sustained internal injuries. She is, however, doing as well as could be expected. A child who was also in the automobile, was cut on the face, but not seriously hurt. One of the negroes was also cut.

THE TWO NEGROES WERE PLACED IN THE JOHNSTON COUNTY JAIL TO AWAIT TRIAL.

RASKOB IS ATTACKED FOR PROHIBITION ACT

Raleigh, Mar. 31—Charging that John J. Raskob was "more interested in destroying prohibition than in the Democratic party," Josephus Daniels, former secretary of the navy, in an editorial for the Saturday News and Observer, declares that "Mr. Raskob owes it to the party to pay the debt he created against it" and resign his connection with the national Democratic executive committee.

"The Democratic party," he continued, "demands, or best portion of it, that the chairman of the committee shall have no alliances that are harmful to the common good, or that will work injury to party success as long as he (Raskob) remains, millions of voters will believe the Democratic party is wet."

Mr. Raskob, the editor says, gave money to the association against the 18th amendment and made "advances to the Democratic party."

No campaign, Mr. Daniels writes, "had such costly and unnecessary frills as that of 1928. Mr. Raskob wished them. He adopted them. He should pay for them."—Associated Press.

PRaises New Road TO NEWTON GROVE

What is so fine as an early drive over our North Carolina roads on a fair day with the promise of spring in the air and over the fields! Such was last Sunday morning with M. T. Jr., at the wheel, as we moved on Clinton, the capital of Sampson, to fill the pulpit of Rev. W. G. Farrar, who was away with Rev. J. J. Boone in a meeting at Erwin. We boast much of our concrete highways, but they are not one whit ahead of No. 23, the new road of clay and gravel from Smithfield to Newton Grove. It is smooth, straight and inviting. All that section of the state before the day of good roads was much isolated, but that day has passed. Sherman met Johnston's forces in the last battle of the Civil War at Bentonville in the edge of Johnston. The spot little visited by the outside world has these last days been made easily accessible. I could but think of the rapid transit of the present compared with the days when Sherman passed through that section on his way from Fayetteville to Goldsboro. Markers have been placed on the field and that will more and more be linked with the Bennet Memorial—just west of Durham—which marks the place of surrender.—M. T. P., in Christian Advocate.

HAY IN LENOIR

Kinston, Mar. 31—Farmers near this city will lose thousands of dollars from their hay bill next winter. Hay is being grown on a number of farms for the first time. The corn crop south of here to the Jones county line will be twice as heavy as last year, it is estimated, and much of it will be converted into ensilage. Three corn and hay contests for Lenoir county farmers are being conducted by the chamber of commerce here. Oat and rye yields this year will be much the heaviest in the section's history.

EDUCATION BOARD IN SESSION HERE

Adopt Resolutions of Appreciation For W. G. Wilson Who Recently Resigned From Board; Order Examination Schedules To Be Published

The county board of education met here yesterday with the new chairman, W. H. Call, of Selma, presiding. Among the transactions yesterday was the adoption of resolutions presented by Dr. J. J. Young, C. G. Holt and P. B. Chamblee, committee, expressing appreciation of the twenty years of service on the board of W. G. Wilson, who resigned a few weeks ago.

The text of the resolutions is as follows: Whereas, at the last meeting of the board of education of Johnston county, Mr. W. G. Wilson, who has been for twenty years or more a member, and much of this time chairman of this board, resigned from the board on account of his health; and

Whereas, the board of education of Johnston county, with much regret, accepted his resignation and wishes to express to Mr. Wilson the appreciation of the board and of the whole county for his splendid services to the schools of the county; now, therefore, Be it unanimously resolved by the board of education of Johnston county:

1. That the sincere appreciation of this board and of the whole county be expressed to Mr. Wilson for the great work he has wrought through all the conflicts and criticisms incident to his constructive work in changing from the old system of education in Johnston county to the new conception of the kind of schools the rural children should have; for the broad vision which conceived ahead of their time the splendid large rural schools which now serve the county; for the great patience he has demonstrated with the people in their struggle to give up the old outworn system of education and achieve the new; for the courage he has exhibited in carrying out his work often in the face of criticism; and for the example so worthy of emulation he has set for us all.
2. That this board sincerely wishes Mr. Wilson many more years in which to further witness the development of education in Johnston county as he has visioned and conceived it.
3. That a copy of this resolution be sent to Mr. Wilson and to the press of the county.

At the meeting yesterday it was also ordered that all schools operating a term of longer than six months publish in the papers of the county the schedule of their final examinations at least one week prior to said examinations, giving the days and hours of said examinations by grades, to the end that all children who have been unable to attend school for the full term and who are otherwise prepared to pass examinations on their work, may know the exact day and hour at which time their examinations will be given and may take their examinations in the schools to which they have attended for the six months term, regardless of how long they may have attended school.

LOCAL MERCHANTS PLAN TO ORGANIZE

A number of Smithfield merchants and other business men met in the commissioners room of the courthouse Thursday evening and discussed plans for forming some sort of merchants association for this city. There was not a large number present but the interest of those there indicated that the business men of this city are afloat to the advantages to be gained from working together for a common good.

D. W. Peterson presided over the meeting, and called upon J. A. Narron to report for the committee previously appointed to make suggestions concerning organization. No officers were elected at this time, but a future meeting was proposed when a full attendance of merchants would choose officers and perfect plans for a co-operative advertising program. The committee to arrange for this meeting includes W. J. Huntley, Lawrence Stancil, and G. A. Allen.

GIVES REMEDY FOR TOBACCO FLEA BUG

County Agent J. B. Slack Suggests Mixture To Poison Insects Found On Plant Beds.

By J. B. SLACK
Many farmers are reporting severe insect damage to tobacco plant beds. These insects, if not controlled, will cause quite a shortage of tobacco plants when transplanting time comes. The writer has visited several beds where it is reported that a certain type of fly was causing damage to the plants. On investigation it was found that this fly, which somewhat resembles a large gnat or mosquito, is doing no damage whatever. The actual damage is being done by the tobacco flea beetle or flea bug. Most growers, on seeing a number of these flies around the tobacco bed immediately come to the conclusion that the fly is doing the damage, but after close inspection it will be found that the damage is actually being done by the flea bugs.

These flea bugs can be controlled by dusting the plant bed with a mixture as follows: Paris green, 1 pound; arsenic of lead, 5 pounds. These two poisons should be thoroughly mixed before applying to the plant bed. Remove the canvas and apply this mixture at the rate of one-half pound per one hundred square yards. If a liquid spray is preferred, dissolve one and one-half pounds of the above mixture in fifty gallons of water. In mixing small quantities dissolve one and one-half to two tablespoonsful to three gallons of water.

It is important that only the two poisons mentioned above be used in controlling the flea beetle. It has been found that this mixture of these poisons will give control better than anything else. Do not substitute calcium of arsenate or any other material for Paris green and arsenate of lead.

NOTE OF APPRECIATION

The charter members of the Sanders-Smith Missionary society have not words to express their appreciation for the splendid co-operation from the many ladies that made quilt squares for the Methodist orphanage quilting at the home of Mrs. John K. Sanders on Thursday, March 20. Squares for only one quilt were about all the members thought they would be able to give, but the response was so great we could hardly take it in. Forty-three ladies and one child graciously responded by making squares. Twenty-four were presenting all day to help with the quilting and five others came in the afternoon. Four ladies whom we had not called upon, made squares and sent them in, which was much appreciated. Everyone brought lunch except our honor guests, Rev. N. C. Yearby, of Four Oaks; Mrs. J. D. Spiers, of Smithfield, who organized the society, and Mrs. J. A. Woodall, who is 86 years old and a resident of this community. At 12:30 a bounteous dinner was spread picnic style in the dining room and served with hot coffee. Everyone seemed to enjoy the day and the co-operative efforts of those ladies will be the means of giving cheer and comfort to the motherless and fatherless children who are given the use of those quilts for years to come. Each lady's name adorns the square she made.

Those making squares were: Misses Mary, Anna and Elizabeth Kemple, Mesdames J. Ransome Creech, Edwin Creech, Marvin Creech, Herman Whitley, Grover Whitley, Clifton Whitley, Walter Bizzell, Willie Lee, J. Rufus Creech, Ashley Powell, Guy Powell, Harvey Hill, J. J. Eason, J. W. Hamilton, James Hamilton, Ruffin Hill, R. L. Hill, Sr., Clyde Lynn, P. B. Stevens, Z. L. Talton, J. B. Talton, Fate Barnes, Connie Lassiter, Robert L. Hill, Jr., Lee Smith, B. A. Watson, Willie Stallings, Calvin Creech, Claude Hill, W. S. Stevens, Z. R. Martin, J. C. Bingham, T. C. Jordan, W. J. Massey, W. S. Smith, John K. Sanders, L. H. Sasser, little Miss Gean Sasser, Misses Ila Daughtry and Mollie Barnes.

Many, many thanks to all. Mrs. Lee Smith. Mrs. R. L. Hill, Jr. Mrs. J. B. Talton. Mrs. John K. Sanders. Charter Members.

Letture stands are very poor in New Hanover county and many farmers have replanted both lettuce and beets.

MEDICAL SOCIETY MEETS AT BENSON

Johnston County Physicians Hear Dr. Chas. O'H. Laughinghouse; Elect Delegates To Annual Meeting At Pinehurst

The Johnston County Medical society was entertained by the physicians of Benson, Friday evening of last week at the Hotel La Belle, Benson. After enjoying a splendid spread, professional matters were discussed at some length, and in advance of the annual meeting of the State Medical society to be held at Pinehurst this spring, the following were appointed to represent the local society:

Delegates: Dr. B. A. Hocutt, Clayton; Dr. H. H. Utley, Benson; alternates: Dr. J. B. Person, Selma; Dr. W. G. Wilson, Jr., Smithfield.

This meeting was featured by an excellent address by Dr. Chas. O'H. Laughinghouse, State health officer. Dr. Laughinghouse's address on the subject of "The Economic Value of Life and Preventative Medicine," was so timely and favorably received that it was ordered published in the local papers of the county.

Dr. S. A. Duncan, of Benson, is president of the Johnston county society.

NAME MEMBERS CO. ELECTION BOARD

The state board of elections has appointed the members of the county boards of elections. A telegram directed to the state board from Charles A. Hines, manager for Senator Simmons, urged that in the appointment, one Democrat favorable to Senator Simmons, and one favorable to J. W. Bailey be placed on each county board. This was not done, however, since the request was received after State Chairman Mull had transmitted to the board his recommendations, and since the request was received just on the eve of the hour fixed by law for the appointments.

Judge J. Crawford Biggs, chairman of the state board of elections, states that he does not know how the Democrats recommended by Mr. Mull stand in reference to the senatorial contest, but he is satisfied that the recommendations were made with an eye single to the good of the Democratic party and with no purpose to aid any candidate in the primary.

The Democrats named on the board of elections from Johnston county are: Leon G. Stevens, Smithfield, and Jesse J. Williams, Clayton. The Republican member of the county board is Tom Scott, of Selma.

New Telephone Directory

Telephone subscribers in Selma, Clayton and Smithfield are now using a new directory. Mr. D. F. Holliday, manager of the telephone system here, was busy yesterday handing out the new directories, and destroying the old ones. The new book with every matter listed will no doubt facilitate the work of the operators.

LONG DISTANCE CALLS

FOR LONG distance telephone calls alone, the state of North Carolina's telephone bill for the month ending March 15, last, was $838.35, which was about an average with other months. It was learned Friday at the State Budget bureau.

The State Highway commission spent approximately $300 for long distance calls during the period, the Supreme Court $75; the State Board of Health, $77; the Governor's office, $44.25; the State Board of Conservation and Department of Instruction, $26.70; the Insurance Department, $27; the Agriculture Department, $37; the Corporation Commission, $53, and the World War Veterans' Bureau, ten cents, which was the report charge on an incompleting long distance call.—Raleigh Times.

VOCAL UNION IS LARGELY ATTENDED

The vocal union held at the courthouse here Sunday was largely attended. At times every seat in the spacious court room was filled. There were eight or nine choirs on hand and the singing began about eleven o'clock and continued until well into the afternoon. S. P. Honeycutt, president of the union, presided. C. B. Thomas is secretary.

Heads Largest Bank

Winthrop W. Aldrich, chosen president of the Chase National, now the world's largest bank, is a son of the late Senator Aldrich of R. I. and brother-in-law of John D. Rockefeller, Jr.

CENSUS TAKERS IN MEETING HERE

Get Instructions From Supervisor or Thos. E. Council For Compiling Population and Other Statistics

Thirty-nine census takers who will count noses in Johnston county for Uncle Sam met here yesterday in an all-day session and received instructions as to the method of conducting the census from Supervisor Thomas E. Council, of Raleigh.

Every ten years the Federal government takes a population census, and this year, in addition to population figures, statistics concerning unemployment and concerning the farms will be compiled. All information concerning farms and unemployment given to these enumerators will be kept in the strictest confidence, and the heads of families, and others who will be called upon to answer the questions put by the enumerators, are urged to co-operate fully in making the statistics to be gathered as accurate and complete as possible.

The census enumerators will begin their work tomorrow, April 2. Fifteen days are allowed for taking the census in the towns, and thirty days in the rural districts.

The census takers for Johnston county are as follows: Bradley McLamb, Benson; Harvey C. Stancil, Benson; Miss Grace Barbour, Benson, Route 1; Sim F. Ivey, Benson, Route 2; Charles C. Lee, Jr., Four Oaks; Fred C. Lee, Four Oaks, Route 1; Homer S. Lee, Four Oaks, Route 2; Albert Graham, Four Oaks, Route 3; Calvert Johnson, Four Oaks, Route 4.

Willis A. Powell, Bentonville; Calvin B. Lee, Bentonville, Route 1; Junius Barefoot, Bentonville, Route 2.

John W. Alford, Larry B. Boyette, Alonza E. Fitzgerald, Kenly; Mrs. Anderson W. Holland, Kenly, Route 2.

Cullen H. Langston, Princeton; W. M. Holt, Princeton, Route 2; Herman A. Oliver, Princeton, Route 3.

Chester L. Stephenson, Joseph C. Stancil, Eugene G. Caudill, James J. Batten, Smithfield; Robert H. Higgins, Smithfield, Route 1; Albert E. Phillips, Smithfield, Route 2; Mrs. W. J. Stallings, Smithfield, Route 2.

E. D. Dodd, E. W. McCullers, $838.35, which was about an average with other months. It was learned Friday at the State Budget bureau.

THREE LOSE LIVES IN ALABAMA BLAZE

Gadsden, Ala., Mar. 31—Three persons were burned to death here early yesterday when fire destroyed their home in a suburban section. Six others were rescued.

One of the victims, a 69-year-old woman, was trapped in the house after she previously had been brought to safety when she re-entered the burning building in an attempt to save the life of her five-year-old grandchild and to warn her nephew.

The dead are Mrs. Polly Sanford, 69; Martha Lee Sanford, 5, and Lum Jones, Mrs. Robert Sanford and Mrs. John Sanford, with four children, were rescued. The body of the baby was found in a bed with the bodies of Jones and Mrs. Sanford nearby.
