PRESS.

Whole No. 134.

Tarborough, Edgecombe County, N. C. Saturday, March 17, 1827.

Vol. III.—No. 30.

THE "FREE PRESS,"

By Geo. Howard,

Is published weekly, (every Saturday,) at TWO DOLLARS per year, (or 52 numbers,) if paid within one month after Subscribers commence receiving their papers—Two Dollars & Fifty Cents, if paid within six months—and Three Dollars at the expiration of the year. Subscribers at liberty to discontinue at any time on paying arrears.

Advertisements not exceeding 16 lines will be inserted at 50 cents the first insertion, and 25 cents each continuance. Longer ones at that rate for every 16 lines.

Letters addressed to the Editor must be post paid.

James Simmons, Esq. postmaster at Halifax, is our general agent for that vicinity.

Notice.

THE Subscriber very respectfully takes the liberty to inform the inhabitants of Edgecombe, and the adjacent counties, that he has commenced the

GIG-MAKING BUSINESS,

IN TARBOROUGH,

On the Street leading from Main-Street to the Academy. He pledges himself to pay every attention to his business, and to have his work executed in a manner in point of elegance and utility inferior to none in the State. He has it in contemplation shortly to obtain his materials direct from the Northern cities, which will enable him to sell his work lower than it has been latterly sold for in this place.

Repairing of every description, in wood or iron work,

Will be attended to with the utmost punctuality and despatch.

ALLEN I. KNIGHT.

(P)He would likewise inform the Public, that the Blacksmith he has got has been regularly bred to the

Horse-Shoeing Business,

And is supposed to be a first-rate hand at that work—likewise at plantation work.

Dr. M. A. Willcox,

HAS located himself at the residence of his father, (L. Willcox,) in Halifax County, and will attend to the duties of his profession, viz:

The Practice of Medicine, &c.

The utmost attention will be paid to professional calls, which with moderate charges, he trusts will insure a portion of public patronage.

Halifax County, Feb. 6, 1827.

"Who steals my purse steals trash—tis something—nothing; 'twas mine, 'tis his, and has been slave to thousands; But he that filches from me my good name, Robs me of that which not enriches him, And makes me poor indeed."—Shakspeare.

When a person's character is assailed, an apology for intruding upon the Public would be deemed superfluous. On my return from Petersburg, a few days ago, I was surprised and mortified to learn, that a report was in circulation that I had run away, in consequence of debt, which report I view as a vile aspersion; I have however returned, and can give my creditors every assurance of speedy liquidation if not entire discharge. It is easy to propagate falsehood, but requires some ingenuity and foresight to become an adept—for were I despicable enough to indulge a wish to defraud my creditors, there would be no necessity (if I understand the Act of Assembly) for absconding. As a descendant of respectable ancestry, I trust I have inherited their principles of honesty, and hope to die as I have lived, an honest man, in despite of the rancour and malignity of those vile traducers of my character.

M. A. WILLCOX.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the Subscriber, ten miles east of Tarborough, sometime in October last, Negro TIM—he is well set, his complexion a dark yellow. I will give the above reward if said fellow is delivered to me, or secured in any jail in this State—or Twenty-Five Dollars if secured in any jail out of the State, so that I get him again. All persons are hereby forbid harboring, employing, or carrying off said negro, under the penalty of the law.

BYTHAL STATION, Jr.
