Notice.

ON Monday, the 14th of May next, at the Court-House door in Nashville, I shall sell to the highest bidder,

An Elegant Bay Mare,

The property of the late Dr. Benj. B. Hunter. The object of the sale is to defray the expence of feeding and keeping the mare, before and since the death of said Hunter, and so far as that amount Cash will be required; for the balance of the purchase money a credit of six months will be given, upon receiving satisfactory security, subject to the order of the legal representatives of said deceased.

W. G. WHITFIELD.

Nashville, N. C. April 24, 1827. 36

If there is any person who claims said mare, they would do well to come forward, on or before the sale, and pay charges and take her away.

Notice.

THE Subscriber respectfully informs his Friends and the Public, that in his absence the Cabinet-Making, Turning, &c.

Will be carried on at his shop as usual by competent hands. Any person desirous of having work done in his line, will please apply to P. S. Marshall, who will have the sole management of my affairs during my absence. Mr. Marshall is also my agent in this State for the disposal of Patent Rights for my Cotton Press, which is recommended to the public with increased confidence.

American Farmer.

WE wish that every friend of this Journal should understand, and that they would have the kindness to make it known, that to any one who will procure four subscribers and remit on their account $20, we will send a fifth copy of the American Farmer without charge—or, any one who will procure five subscribers, will be allowed to retain $5, on his remitting the remaining $20. We beg also to repeat, that all which is necessary to be done by any one, wishing to subscribe, is to inclose a five dollar note by mail, at the risk of, and addressed to "the Editor of the American Farmer, Baltimore"—and, whether the money be received or not, the paper will be forwarded immediately, and the actual receipt of each number of the volume will be guaranteed by the Editor.

The American Farmer is published weekly by J. S. Skinner, Postmaster of Baltimore, printed on fine paper the size of ordinary newspapers, folded so as to make eight pages; about one half, or four pages, devoted to practical Agriculture; the remainder to Internal Improvements, Rural and Domestic Economy, and Natural History and Rural Sports. A minute index and title page to the whole volume is published, and forwarded with the last number of each volume. A single number will be sent to any one who may desire to see a specimen of the publication.

To all editors who will give the above one or two insertions, we shall feel much indebted, and will gladly reciprocate their kindness.

Baltimore, Feb. 23, 1827.

Notice.

THE Subscriber has about 500 barrels of CORN, for sale low for Cash. He also continues to keep a general supply of Prizes, in the different Lotteries.
