LAND.

THE Subscriber has a Plantation in Franklin county, lying on the south side of Tar River, about a quarter of a mile from the town of Louisburg, in said county—

The Tract contains 251 Acres OF EXCELLENT LAND,

A large proportion of which is first-rate low grounds. It would be a desirable situation for a family from the lowlands, the neighborhood being remarkably healthy. I would exchange the above Plantation, part for lands in the Western section of Tennessee, and part in Cash—the payments would be made accommodating.

The American Farmer.

WE wish that every friend of this Journal should understand, and that they would have the kindness to make it known, that to any one who will procure four subscribers and remit on their account $20, we will send a fifth copy of the American Farmer without charge—or, any one who will procure five subscribers, will be allowed to retain $5, on his remitting the remaining $20. We beg also to repeat, that all which is necessary to be done by any one, wishing to subscribe, is to inclose a five dollar note by mail, at the risk of, and addressed to "the Editor of the American Farmer, Baltimore"—and, whether the money be received or not, the paper will be forwarded immediately, and the actual receipt of each number of the volume will be guaranteed by the Editor.

The American Farmer is published weekly by J. S. Skinner, Postmaster of Baltimore, printed on fine paper the size of ordinary newspapers, folded so as to make eight pages; about one half, or four pages, devoted to practical Agriculture; the remainder to Internal Improvements, Rural and Domestic Economy, and Natural History and Rural Sports. A minute index and title page to the whole volume is published, and forwarded with the last number of each volume. A single number will be sent to any one who may desire to see a specimen of the publication.

The American Farmer is circulated through every State and Territory, and is written for by many of the most distinguished practical farmers in the Union.

To all editors who will give the above one or two insertions, we shall feel much indebted, and will gladly reciprocate their kindness.

J. S. SKINNER.

Baltimore, Feb. 23, 1827.
