

Miscellaneous.

FOR THE FREE PRESS.

To Miss Fanny P... of Northampton, N. C.
When thou passest away to thy last long sleep,
There are hearts that will sadden, and eyes that will weep;
And the smile will be darkened that once was bright,
And the step will linger that once was light.
Perhaps thou wilt go in life's early bloom,
And in sweetness unfaded descend to the tomb;
While eyes of love are around thee smiling,
And dreams of bliss are thy hours beguiling.
Perhaps thou wilt go in thy latter stage,
When life is hovering 'twixt youth and age;
When many a care is beginning to wound thee,
And early hopes are decaying around thee.
Perhaps thou wilt go when time has torn,
The rose of life and left its thorn;
And fade away from life's farthest shore,
As the rainbow dies when the storm is o'er.
But when'er thou goest to thy last long sleep,
There are hearts that will mourn thee and eyes that will weep;
And there's one that will pray that the light of heaven,
May sweetly beam on thy closing even. S.

AUTUMN.

Sweet Sabbath of the year,
While evening lights decay,
Thy parting steps methinks I hear
Steal from the world away.
Amid thy silent bowers,
Tis sad but sweet to dwell,
Where falling leaves and drooping flowers
Around me breathe farewell.
Along thy sunset skies,
Their glories melt in shade;
And, like the things we fondly prize,
Seem lovelier as they fade.
A deep and crimson streak
Thy dying leaves disclose;
As on consumption's waning cheek
'Mid ruin blooms the rose.
Thy scene each vision brings
Of beauty in decay;
Of fair and early faded things,
Too exquisite to stay.
Of joys that come no more,
Of flowers whose bloom is fled;
Of farewells wept upon the shore,
Of friends estranged or dead.
Of all that now may seem,
To memory's tearful eye,
The vanish'd beauty of a dream
O'er which we gaze and sigh.

RESIGNATION.

To be resign'd when ill's betide,
Patient when favors are denied,
And pleas'd with favors giv'n
Most surely this is Wisdom's part,
This is that incense of the heart,
Whose fragrance smells to Heav'n.

PROSPECTUS

OF THE

Southern Agriculturist.

—:—

THE want of a work to which our Planters could refer for information, relative to the Agriculture of the Southern section of the Union, has long been felt and has long been subscribed to as a necessary evil, for which no remedy was at hand. With a sufficiency of talents and of enterprise to conduct experiments, to draw inferences, and to retail them; yet have we presented to the world the spectacle of a high minded and enterprising agricultural community, destitute of original agricultural works, and depending solely on oral communications, or foreign publications for all our knowledge on these subjects. Whilst others have carefully collected and recorded the experience of their practical farmers, we have permitted the hard earned knowledge of our fathers to perish with them. Whilst others have been straining every nerve in the cause, we have been mere lookers on. Whilst they have advanced rapidly we have remained stationary, or at least have progressed but slowly. From what cause has arisen the vast superiority of the North over the South in all which relates to agriculture? Has it been that they have turned their attention to the subject, that they alone have made experiments and profited by them? Not so. The Planters of the South have been so enterprising and as active in their researches, as those of the North. But whilst the discoveries made by the latter are brought immediately into notice, by their periodical publications, those of the former are known but to few, for want of a proper vehicle of communication! Hence it has been that their improvements have been more rapid than ours, and that we are to this day so deficient in this branch of knowledge. Such being the case, does it not become our Planters to come forward and assist in the present undertaking, and contribute from time to time such information as may be of service to the community. This work will be divided into three parts. Part 1st. Original essays on Agriculture, Horticulture, Botany, Rural Affairs, and Domestic Economy. Not only the present staple articles of the South attended to, but also the introduction of new objects of culture, such as the Grape Vine, Olive, Capers, Tea, Sugar Cane, Silk Worm, and others, which have yet been untried, and of course not known how far they may be cultivated. Only that branch of Horticulture will be for the present attended to, which relates to the Kitchen Garden. When the proper time shall arrive, we are prepared to give directions for the cultivation of the higher branches.

Part 2d will contain selections from foreign works on the above subjects, so far as they may be applicable to the soil and climate of the Southern sections of the Union, or may in some way be of use to our Planters. Reviews of such works as may treat of the Agriculture of the States, or such as may directly or indirectly have an influence on us, will be inserted in this part of the work.

Part 3d will contain brief Agricultural notices, so that our Planters may not remain ignorant of what is going on, but may have an opportunity of knowing what is going on in the different parts of the world in aid of Agriculture. It is hoped that this knowledge, will be as a spur to our enterprise, and cause us also to make fresh exertions. Here also will be inserted a list of Agricultural, Horticultural works, and occasionally some notice will be taken of their contents. Advertisements relating to Agricultural Works and implements, or any other which may interest the Planters generally; will be published on a separate sheet, and attached to each number.

We hope such as are favorably disposed to the work will assist us in contributing to its pages, and also in procuring Subscribers for it. Those who have made experiments with Grape Vines, Olives, Silk Worms, or any other articles new to our States, or can give any information relative to them, we particularly solicit to communicate what they may know on the subject.

TERMS.

This work will be printed on good paper, and in the octavo size; at Five Dollars per annum, payable on the delivery of the first number. Six Dollars if paid two months after.

The first number will be issued on the 1st of January next, and on the first of every month succeeding, in numbers of from 32 to 50 pages, accompanied with engravings when necessary.

Charleston, S. C. Aug. 1827

Cotton Yarn.

THE Proprietor of the Factory now in operation at the Falls of Tar River, respectfully informs his friends and the public, that he has now on hand a large quantity of

COTTON YARN,

Of all the numbers from 4 to 20, but principally of the coarser numbers; which he is disposed to sell low for Cash, or in exchange for good Cotton. His machinery is in part new, and all in thorough repair, and superintended by an experienced and skillful manager; and he thinks his Yarn may be recommended as equal to any in the United States.

Printing neatly executed.
At this Office.

The Album,

And Ladies' Weekly Gazette.

THIS is a new publication issued on Wednesdays. It has been commenced under the most favorable auspices, and as its title designates, is appropriated particularly to the ladies. It is devoted to the cause of virtue, to knowledge and amusement. It will furnish information on the culture of plants, flowers, &c. useful receipts, a general weekly summary of foreign and domestic news, with a rich fund of choice and select miscellaneous literature. It will be neatly printed on fine paper (expressly for the purpose of binding) quarterly—eight pages, without advertisements, which are to be inserted on a cover. The price is only Two Dollars, payable by those in the city half yearly, and by all others yearly in advance.

Among a numerous list of contributors are the names of Selleck Osborn, Ross, Ellen, the Boston Bard, &c. and in order to render the work truly valuable, the Editor will distribute premiums for original articles amounting to $100.

All communications must be addressed to Thomas C. Clarke, Editor and Proprietor, No. 40 Race-street, Philadelphia. Editors copying this will be furnished with the Album and Ladies' Weekly Gazette, as an equivalent. Postmasters and others will be entitled to every sixth copy they may order.

Dr. CHAMBERS'

Remedy for Intemperance.

THE Subscriber, on the decease of the late Doctor William Chambers, took into his possession the personal estate of the deceased, and found prepared a large quantity of Doct. Chambers' Remedy for INTemperance.

He hereby informs the public that he has disposed of the Medicine so found to Doctor Jas. S. Hart, and Mr. Andrew M. Fanning, of this city.

In making this disposition, the Subscriber has been actuated by a due regard to the interest of the heirs of the intestate, as well as from a wish to give the most extensive use to the virtues of the discovery, whatever they may be—and he can further add, that the gentlemen who will hereafter be the vendors of the Remedy for Intemperance, as prepared by the Inventor, have been intimately acquainted with Dr. Chambers in his life time—have been his Agents in compounding the medicine, and are acquainted with its composition.

SYLVANUS MILLER,

Public Administrator, &c.

The medicine will hereafter be prepared and sold by the subscribers, who alone are in possession of the original Recipe of the Inventor at the office of the late Dr. C. in the basement story of Rutgers' Medical College, in Duane-street east side of Broadway, and at the medical store of Dr. Hart, corner of Broadway and Chamber street, 2 doors from Washington-Hall.

Agents supplied on the usual terms. The medicine is put up in a portable form, and can be sent by mail, on enclosing the usual price of Five Dollars.

None are genuine unless signed by the subscribers.

JAMES H. HART, M. D.

J. M. FANNING,

Successors to W. Chambers.

TO EDITORS.

In order that the efficacy of Dr. Chambers' Remedy for Intemperance may be thoroughly tested, Editors of newspapers throughout the country, will insert our advertisement and attach this article to it, and send us a copy of the paper containing it, shall receive from us by return of mail, a quantity sufficient to cure one drunkard, which they will be requested to administer to some patient in their neighborhood, and publish the result.

Public Institutions and Philanthropic Societies by making application (duly authenticated) to the subscribers, shall receive the medicine at a very reduced price.
