WARRENTON

Female Academy.

MRS. PLUNKETT proposes taking charge of this Institution the ensuing year. Dr. DONNELLAN, whose character as a gentleman, and whose qualifications as a Teacher are well known wherever he is, has consented to become one of the instructors.

The branches taught, will be Spelling, Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, Grammar, Parsing, Geography with the use of the Globes, History, Mythology, Rhetoric, Natural Philosophy, Astronomy, Chemistry and French. Plain and Ornamental Needle-work, Music, and should parents wish and the number of pupils justify it, a teacher of Drawing and Dancing will be procured.

The Scholastic year of ten months will commence on the 1st Monday in January, and terminate the last of October—no vacation being given in the Summer.

Terms per Session, payable in advance. For board, including washing, &c. $60. Tuition in all or any of the English branches, $15. French, $20. Music, (which will be Miss Plunkett's department) $25. Needle-work, $12 50. No extra charges will be made, except $1 each to day-scholars, for firewood: 50 cents to each pupil for pens and ink, and the necessary charges for indispensable books, which will be furnished at the Petersburg retail prices.

No Young Ladies will be allowed to board out, except such as have grand-parents in town.

On account of forming the classes, it is desirable that parents who intend sending, should do so as early in January as possible.

N. B. Each Young Lady to be furnished with a pair of sheets, blanket, coverlet and towels.

King & Catlin,

TAILORS,

RESPECTFULLY inform their customers and the public generally, that they have just returned from New-York with a complete assortment of the best and most

Fashionable Trimmings,

That could possibly be procured in that city, which will enable them to execute their work in the most faithful, fashionable and neatest manner. They likewise have a variety of

Fancy Vestings, &c. such as—

White Valenciens, (silk striped) Figured and plain Silk Velvets, Buffs, black Florentines of a superior quality, and various other dark colored patterns too tedious to describe. Patent Suspenders, thread Gloves, White cravat stiffeners, &c. &c.

Which they will sell uncommonly low for cash or on a short credit to punctual customers. They will at all times be found at their very recent stand,

Opposite the Brick Store,

And one door above the store of Messrs. Crane & Kingsbury; where they will thankfully receive all orders in their line of business, and pledge themselves that nothing shall be lacking on their part to render satisfaction to all those who may favor them with their patronage.

Stop the Runaways!

RAN OFF from Beaufort, North-Carolina, where they were employed on the Fortifications at that place,

Seven Negro Fellows,

To wit: HILLIARD, HENRY, LEWIS, ANTHONY, ROY, ISAAC, and FRANK. The three first-named Negroes were apprehended at Hicks' Ford, Greensville county, Va. Anthony and Roy were at the time in company with those apprehended, but effected their escape. Frank was left by the party some 20 or 30 miles beyond Halifax, N. C. and Isaac some 5 or 10 miles on this side of Halifax, both complaining of sickness and unable to travel. Frank is a small black fellow, and about 22 years of age—Isaac is a stout young fellow, about 21 years of age, complexion rather yellow—Roy is a slender black fellow, about 20 years of age—and Anthony is a stout built black fellow, about 23 years of age—no particular marks recollected.

The above Negroes were making their way to Norfolk for the purpose of joining me.

A liberal REWARD will be given for the apprehension of Frank, Isaac, Roy and Anthony, and should they be delivered to Mr. Niblo of Petersburg, he will pay for their apprehension and all necessary expenses.
