Most Shocking.—A friend in Lincoln county, under date of the 2d inst. writes as follows: "I have just been informed that a man by the name of William Cline, was last night committed to the jail of Lincolnton on a charge of having killed one of his own children! Report says that said Cline and his wife went to one of his neighbors to a chopping. Sometime during the day said Cline left the company; no person present knew which way he went. Sometime after, a small negro, who was left with the children, brought news that one of the children was dead. The people, when coming to the house, found Cline sitting on a chair with his back towards the bed where the dead child was lying. A coroner's inquest was held over the child, and the jury brought in a verdict of "wilful murder." What evidence fastened suspicion on the father I know not; but time will disclose it.

Virginia.—A bill has passed both branches of the Legislature of Virginia, submitting to the people whether a Convention shall be called for the purpose of altering the Constitution of that State.

South-Carolina.—Judge Wm. D. James, has been removed from office by the Legislature of South Carolina. The charge against him was habitual intoxication, and consequent neglect of his official duties. He was found guilty on three articles by a very large majority; and his sentence was pronounced by the President of the Senate on the 30th ult. The whole scene is stated to have been affecting beyond description.—Many of the audience were melted into tears. Judge James was a soldier of the Revolution, and had shed his blood for his country—when called upon to show cause why the sentence should not be pronounced, he rose and addressed the Senate as follows:

"Mr. President—I have served my country too long not to be sensible of my duty to submit (as well as I may) to this heavy stroke. I could have wished that my old age had been spared this awful calamity, but Providence has thought proper to bring me through the varied and trying scenes of a long life to this bitter period. To the Almighty Ruler, and to him alone,

I look for support and consolation. I pray him to bless and prosper my country, which, while it casts me off, cannot, and I trust will not be disposed to deprive me of the consolations, which results from a consciousness of good intentions, and honest conduct in office."

A resolution was subsequently adopted by both Houses, declaring that, in the opinion of the Legislature, Judge James's private and moral character stands unimpeached. They have also authorized him to draw on the Treasury for his salary up to the year 1829.

The West India Trade.—Mr. Clark of Ky. asserted the other day in the House of Representatives, in reply to Mr. Randolph, "that this trade is more prosperous than it ever was before." Where are we to seek the evidences of this prosperity! In the correspondence between the Secretary of the Treasury and the Collector at Portsmouth! In the depreciated price of Indian corn in Virginia! Or, in the lumber trade of North-Carolina! The Fayetteville Observer of the 7th, states that the "prices of lumber have actually fallen at Wilmington more than one-half, since the restrictions on the West India trade" and it brings facts to support the assertion. Really, as Mr. C. says, "gentlemen should ascertain the truth," before they venture upon such reckless propositions....Enq.

Norfolk and Charleston Line. A meeting of a number of citizens has been held in Philadelphia for the purpose of considering the question of establishing a line of stages and steamboats from Norfolk to Charleston, connected with the line from Philadelphia to Norfolk. It is proposed to open a subscription for a capital of $250,000, conditioned that a charter shall be had from the State of South-Carolina, unshackled by any unfavorable conditions. It is thought highly probable that nine-tenths of all the passengers from the South, will prefer this line, as the passage from Charleston to Philadelphia will be regularly performed in four days.

Louisiana.—Extract of a letter from a gentleman at St. Francisville, dated 8th January:

"I am moving from place to place, to avoid the contagious fever now raging here. Your friends Mills and Pickering have both fallen victims to it: and now whilst I am writing this letter, the heat is so oppressive the perspiration flows from every pore."

Fatal Ducl.—On Saturday, the 2d inst. Mr. Bond Martin and Mr. Carr, students of medicine, left the city of Baltimore for "the field of honor," near Bladensburg, to settle a dispute of a trifling nature in its origin—they met at eight paces, when Mr. Martin received, on the first fire, the ball of his antagonist in his forehead; he fell and expired on the ground. His body was brought to Baltimore, and has since been conveyed to the Eastern Shore of Maryland, the residence of his father, Chief Justice Martin. Mr. Carr is from Virginia.

Notice.

IN order to relieve our endorsers at Bank from their responsibility, to pay our other debts, and close the partnership between us, we hereby offer for sale the Office and Establishment of the Intelligencer and Petersburg Commercial Advertiser. It is needless to expatiate on the value of this property, to a gentleman of talent and capital, capable of conducting the business to advantage. The office is complete and well supplied in every kind of Type and Press that can be required; and the list of Subscribers, and Advertising custom for many years extended to the establishment, will speak for themselves. The Newspaper has at no period been more liberally patronized than at present....it has about 900 good subscribers, the amount of advertising has been fully $4000 per annum heretofore, with very considerable job-work....so that we may say without exaggeration that the gross income of the establishment has averaged about $8000 per annum for the last eight years; while the annual expences of the Printing-Office amount to little more than $3000. Such being facts (and that we state nothing but the truth, any gentleman by calling upon us can be satisfied,) scarcely any consideration, but the imperious obligations above-mentioned, could induce us to part with property so valuable. It will be offered at private sale until the first day of April next; on which day, should it not be disposed of (and due notice will be given of a transfer,) it will be sold publicly on the premises occupied by us on Bank Street, to the highest bidder. The terms will be made known on application; but there is no doubt, should a responsible purchaser present himself, that on paying down a small amount in cash, a reasonable credit for the greater part of the purchase money might be obtained. Gentlemen disposed to avail themselves of this offer, can receive any further information they desire, by addressing Dr. Richard Feild, of Brunswick, Mr. Miles Jordan of Lunenburg, Mr. James B. Kendall of Petersburg, or the Subscribers.

Farmwell Grove Academy.

THE Exercises of this Institution (embracing a common course of English, with Classical studies so arranged as to render them preparatory to the University) will commence on Monday, 25th of this instant, under the care of Mr. J. H. STRAIN, who comes with satisfactory testimonials of his qualifications and moral character. From the well known healthy situation, and cheapness of board, &c. it is hoped that this Institution will meet with liberal encouragement. The house formerly occupied by the Rev. C. H. Hines, is now in readiness for the reception of boarders on very reasonable terms. Prices of tuition—English, per session, $8; Latin and Greek, $12. The present session will end about the first of June, and after a vacation of two weeks the second session will commence.
