

Tarborough,

FRIDAY, JUNE 20, 1828.

"A Farmer" will appear in our next paper.

In reply to the inquiry of "A," we answer, that the Representative of this District is not the author of an Extract of a letter from a Member of Congress to the Editor—published a few weeks since in this paper.

We are requested to announce RICE B. PIERCE, Esq. as a candidate to represent the county of Halifax in the H. of Commons of the next General Assembly of this State.

Crops, &c.—The farmers in this vicinity are harvesting their wheat, which we understand does not realise their expectations, having suffered severely from the rust; the disappointment, however, is not great as they cultivate but little wheat. The fruit generally has also been blasted—but our great staples cotton and corn look very promising. Should the season hereafter prove propitious, and the productions of the soil find a tolerable market, we may anticipate a total removal in a few months of those pecuniary embarrassments, which since the commencement of the present year have borne so heavily on the people of this and the adjoining counties, and perhaps we may venture to add throughout the State. From what we can learn, the prospect in different sections of this State is equally animating—the Salisbury Carolinian says, "Every thing is plenty but fruit; there are a few, very few, apples; but no peaches, and but very little other fruit of any description. But we shall have the substantial of life without stint." The Cape Fear Recorder says: "The rice fields give hopes of a plentiful harvest; and letters from the back country state that the wheat crops are very promising." The following paragraph from the Richmond Enquirer, also gives a cheering account of the agricultural prospects in Virginia:

"The Winchester Virginian of the 6th, states that "the approaching harvest promises to be one of the most abundant that has crowned the labors of the husbandman for many years." The last Petersburg Old Dominion says: "the wheat, except that portion of it in this section of country, lately inundated by the great fall of rain which we noticed a few days ago, never looked better, and promises the planters a harvest indeed. We understand, that it is probable wheat will start at from 35 to 95 cents."

The Tariff.—The Milledgeville (Geo.) Southern remarking on the probable effects of the Tariff on the Southern States, observes: "We must now turn ourselves to other means and other defences, constitutional indeed, but at the same time with spirit pushing resistance to the very bounds of the Constitution"—and concludes as follows:

"And for this purpose we would recommend that a Congress assemble, from all the States opposed to a protecting tariff, in order to devise and recommend to the different Legislatures and people, such measures, consistent with the Constitution, as may seem best calculated to protect them from the operations of the Tariff Bill, and prevent the introduction and use of the tarified articles in their respective States."

From the Baltimore Patriot.

It is stated in the Richmond Compiler, that a large and respectable meeting has been held in Culpepper county, Va. the object of which was to "form an Association to encourage the wearing of clothing manufactured in our own families, and for the promotion of domestic economy." The meeting, it will readily suggest itself to our readers, originated in feelings hostile to the Tariff. Indeed, the editor of the Culpepper Gazette intimates as much, when, remarking upon the subject, he says, the system recommended by the meeting is "calculated to resist the operation and remove the complaints of the Tariff."

Counterfeits.—A recent discovery has been made in the interior of South-Carolina, that the one and two dollar bills of the Bank of the State of Georgia have been altered to represent $20, $50, and $100.

Specie Payments.—We learn from an unquestionable source (one of the Directors) that the State Bank of North-Carolina has paid, during the last four weeks, Specie, Drafts on the North, Notes of the Bank of the United States, and Notes of other Banks equally as good, to the amount of upwards of 100,000 dollars. We mention this as an act of justice to the Bank, in consequence of the late publications in the Star on the subject of the depreciation of the local Bank Notes.—Raleigh Star.

From the Raleigh Star.

Truth and fair argument against falsehood and sophistry.—We announce to the public, that we have now in the press, and shall shortly publish "The case of the Six Militia-men fairly stated, with an appendix of public documents and other papers," a pamphlet prepared by order of the Central Jackson Committee. This publication is calculated, we think, to expose the falsehood and misrepresentation of the "Official Record," as a certain pamphlet lately issued at the office of the Raleigh Register is strangely misnamed. We invite the attention of all fair and impartial men to this subject, and fear not that they will be entirely satisfied, by the perusal of the pamphlet we are about to publish, that Gen. Jackson has been, in relation to the transaction in question, most foully calumniated, and a most wicked attempt made to impose upon the understandings of the good people of this State.

Our friends from a distance can be supplied with any number of this publication, if orders are promptly forwarded, at the rate of eight dollars per hundred copies.

Generals Macomb and Scott.—We learn from a credible source, that Gen. Scott has refused to obey the orders of Gen. Macomb, and has demanded to be tried by a Court Martial. We are aware that many persons familiar with questions of military rank and precedence, are of the opinion that Gen. Scott is the superior officer, and entitled to command

Gen. Macomb, instead of obeying his orders. Without entering at all into the merits of this question, which is now in a fair way to be decided, we take this opportunity to remark, that our Administration seem to be as unfortunate in the management of our military establishment as in other departments of public business. A sort of fatality appears to attend them, every thing they meddle with gets into disorder—our negotiations with foreign courts, our commercial relations, our plans of legislation for the protection of supposed domestic interests, our national revenue, our projects of combination with the new Republics of the South, in short, every thing of importance upon which they have laid their hands. Our army establishment has now got into a confusion from which we fear it will be somewhat difficult to extricate it. A little reasonable firmness and direct management, we should imagine might have prevented it. Instead of suffering Gen. Scott and Gen. Gaines to get into a war of words about the question which was the superior officer, to abuse each other in print and to disgrace themselves and the body to which they belong, a Court Martial should have been called and the question promptly settled. In that case the President would have afterwards found no difficulty in deciding between the pretensions of Scott and Gaines when they became candidates for the vacant place of Commanding General. To avoid making this decision on the death of Gen. Brown, the President went out of the regular course of promotion, and appointed Gen. Macomb, a step which does not seem likely to lessen the difficulty.—New-York Ev. Post.

Lightning.—The Milton Gazette states that on the 8th inst. a negro house, a few miles over in Virginia, was struck by lightning: there were six negroes in it, one of whom was instantly killed, and the others completely stunned.
