Stop the Swindler.

$25 Reward.

ABSCONDED clandestinely from Selma, on the 11th inst. a villain named EDWARD DIXON, leaving a number of debts unpaid and contracts not performed. Said Dixon is a carpenter by trade, and had contracted to build a house for the Subscriber; and after having received nearly the full amount he was to receive for the work, eloped without even commencing it. He was under engagements to be married to an unsuspecting and innocent girl, and left her without any explanation whatever. He is about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, about 23 years old, and somewhat stoop-shouldered.

The above reward will be paid for said Dixon's apprehension and confinement in any jail, so that he may be brought to justice.

Dixon formerly lived in Greenville, N. Carolina, and it is probable he has gone there again. The public would do well to beware of him, and Editors of newspapers would be serving the public interest by giving this notice one or two insertions. The Editor of the Tarboro' Free Press, by giving it 3 insertions and forwarding his bill to the office of the Selma Courier, shall be paid.
