

account had been falling short for the last 12 or 13 months. We kept a watch and caught the little villain. As he may attempt to pass himself off upon some other innocent neighborhood as a gentleman, and a 'Doctor,' you may insert as much of this letter as you may think the public good requires, upon my responsibility—as the proof is abundant.

The President's Visit.—The Nashville Banner of the 22d ult. says:—The reception of the President of the United States on his visit to Nashville yesterday, was all that his most ardent friends could have desired. It was unostentatious, but cordial and spirited. An immense concourse of gentlemen met him at the seat of Col. Love, about two miles from town, whence, after partaking of the liberal courtesy and hospitality of the proprietor, he proceeded, under the escort arranged according to the judicious and appropriate directions of the marshals, in regular cavalcade, towards town. As the procession approached, they were saluted with the discharge of cannon, and on entering the town, advanced up Cherry street, through Spring and Spruce streets, and across the South Field, to Vauxhall Garden, where a great number of ladies and gentlemen had previously assembled. Here the President and his suitors, consisting of his adopted son, his Private Secretary George Breathitt, Esq. Major Eaton, late Secretary of War, Governor Carroll, President Lindsley and others, alighted, and, in the spacious apartments of Mr. Decker, a free, hearty and familiar interchange of civilities and mutual congratulations took place. As the President had expressly declined the tendered civility of a public dinner, a collation only was provided, and the most unceremonious, republican and social enjoyment of the refreshment ensued.

At about 3 o'clock the President left the Garden, and was escorted to the Nashville Inn, and the festivities of the day were closed, at sundown, by a salute of cannon. This morning, at an early hour, the President returned, without parade, to the Hermitage.

FOREIGN.

Latest from Europe.—By the packet ships Pacific from Liverpool, and Charlemagne from Havre, Liverpool papers to the 1st August, and Paris papers to the 31st July have been received at New York.

The Duke of Reichstadt, son of Napoleon the Great, died at Vienna on the 26th July.

General Wool, Inspector General of the United States army, who we believe was sent to France on a public mission, has been most kindly received by the French Government. The King shewed him marked attention. At the late grand review of the National Guards and Troops of the Line, where upwards of 70,000 men with 100 pieces of artillery, were manœuvred, being a more brilliant parade than the preceding anniversary review in commemoration of the Revolution in July, the General had the honor of being one of his Majesty's suite, and frequently dined with him.

PORTUGAL.

Accounts from Portugal, are to the 25th July, at which time Admiral Sartorius was blockading Lisbon. An engagement took place on the 23d, at Feverias, a short distance from Oporto, in which the troops of Don Pedro was successful. The engagement lasted 12 hours. It appears that Don Miguel had pushed on all the troops he could command from Lisbon and Coimbra, to the amount of 12,500 men, and attempted to take Don Pedro by surprise; but the latter advanced from Oporto in good order, and a regular battle took place, with the result above stated. The ex-Emperor returned to Oporto at night with 2000 prisoners, and the trophies of his conquest, and on Tuesday was again at the head of his army, engaged in pursuing the remnant of Don Miguel's force. The deserters were numerous, and two regiments of cavalry are said to have come over in a body to the ex-Emperor.

INDIA.

The Plague of Fiery Serpents.—The following is an extract of a letter dated Bassorah, the 24th of August, 1831, and received in Calcutta by an American gentleman:—"Almost every country in these regions of the globe has been visited by a dreadful visitation of Providence. You must have been, long before this, informed of the many calamities that have befallen the devoted city of Bagdad and the places adjacent to it. News has also been received from Hanadan, or the ancient Ecbatana, of the occurrence of another natural calamity in that place. The city is described to be literally infested with a species of fiery serpents, the bite of which is followed by immediate madness, which in the course of a very short time terminates in the death of the sufferer. The streets of the town are said to be choked with dead bodies, which are fed upon by dogs and jackals! The inhabitants are seized with consternation and trepidation, not knowing where to fly from the anger of the Almighty."

WEST INDIES.

A Jamaica paper of July 23, says:—We observe that the Agent for Dominica has, at the instance of the Planters and Merchants of that colony, tendered the whole of the property and negroes possessed by the white inhabitants, for sale to the British Government at less than the original cost; considering it quite impossible to reside in safety or comfort, on property subjected to the vexatious interference and machinations of government spies, who tamper with their rights and annihilate their positive privileges. We think it would be advisable for all the colonists of the British West Indies to follow this judicious example.

Information Wanted.

SHOULD this notice reach the eye of any old Revolutionary Soldier who has any knowledge of me, or was with me in the time of the war of the Revolution, will confer an everlasting favor on me, in making it known immediately by letter, directed to the Tumbling Shoals, P. O. South Carolina, as I am extremely poor, and unable to labor, and wish to avail myself of the opportunity of drawing a Pension from the Government, should I be fortunate in getting the proof that is necessary and required of applicants.

I enlisted at Henrico Court House, in the State of Virginia, under Captain Samuel Booker, was transferred and served next under Capt. Wallis; was with Woodford's regiment, then served under Beaufort, and was in his defeat in this State. I was in one engagement on North River under Gen. Wayne. I got badly wounded in Beaufort's defeat; was carried to Camden, and lay two months under the care of Dr. Alexander, and was there discharged. I enlisted for three years, or during the war, and served three years.

Land for Sale.

I OFFER FOR SALE,

500 or 1000 Acres of Land,

IT being the Land on which I now live, situated in the county of Warren, and immediately between the towns of Halifax and Warrenton, 21 miles from the former, and 14 from the latter mentioned places, which is quite a healthy section of country, being well watered for man or beast, and has upon it a small newly built Dwelling House, with other necessary houses.

As it is presumed no person would purchase before viewing, it is deemed useless to say more than the Land in point of soil and production is not inferior to any in the adjacent section of country off from the river, and besides other conveniences, its proximity to the Roanoke navigation and entrance to the Virginia Rail Road, should make it desirable with purchasers. As I am prepared to meet the sacrifices necessary to be made to effect a sale of Land, I have no doubt purchasers would be pleased with my terms; I invite all persons wishing to purchase to give me an early call, as from delay a bargain may be lost. I have other small parcels of Land in the county of Warren—I wish to sell also, a tract of 175 acres in the county of Granville, all of which I will sell upon the most accommodating terms. For further information apply to

JOHN A. NEWELL.

Warren, July 19, 1832. 50-4
