

or, but on yours may fall the punishment—on your unhappy State will inevitably fall all the evils of the conflict you force upon the government of your country.”

Military.—Five companies of U. S. artillery, under the command of Major R. M. Kirby, of the first regiment, received orders on Saturday last, to proceed forthwith from Fort Monroe to Charleston, S. C. The battalion is full and takes with it a completely equipped field train of sixteen pieces of different calibres, and a suitable supply of fixed ammunition.

In addition to the above we learn from a New York paper, that five companies of artillery, and two companies of the fourth regiment of infantry, have been ordered to the same station. Gen. Scott, was some short time since ordered to Charleston to inspect that post.—Norfolk Her.

South Carolina.—The Legislature is diligently maturing such measures of 'defence' as were recommended by Gov. Hamilton. Bills have been reported—to procure the removal of the U. S. troops from the State Citadel in Charleston—to carry into effect, in part, the Ordinance of the Convention—and, to provide for the security and provide for the security and protection of the people of South Carolina. The second bill provides a remedy for all cases in which duties on importations may be demanded; securing the importer against every mode of collection. The third bill provides, "that in case the government of the U. S. shall, by the employment of naval or military force, attempt to coerce the State of South Carolina into submission to the acts of Congress," "the Governor is hereby authorized and empowered to resist the same; and in order to render such resistance effectual, to order into service the whole military force of the State, or so much as he may deem necessary." The Governor to issue his proclamation for volunteers, whenever necessary; to divide the militia who do not volunteer, into four classes, to be called into actual service when necessary, and to include every man and boy in the State, from 60 years old down to 16. The Governor to purchase 10,000 stand of small arms, cannon, cannon ball, powder, lead, &c. "In short," as the Camden Journal observes, "matters seem to be going on in a mighty 'peaceable' sort of way!"—Fay. Obs.

From Raleigh.—We understand that the Appropriation bill, for re-building the State House at Raleigh, passed the House of Commons on Friday last, by a vote of 75 to 60—and that it will probably pass the Senate by a majority of from 3 to 5 votes. The Bank bill passed its second reading in the Senate on Thursday by a large majority, but on Friday it was arrested by some material amendments, which render its final passage extremely doubtful.

Raleigh, Dec. 14.—On Wednesday last, William S. Mhoon, Esq. was re-elected Public Treasurer, and James Grant, Esq. Comptroller, for the ensuing year—both without opposition.—Star.

Legislature.—A very important bill has been introduced in the Senate by Mr. Spaight, of Craven, which has for its object to amend or re-model the whole Judiciary system of the State. Its general provisions are, that the Supreme Court is to be abolished, and the State is to be divided into seven Judicial Circuits, the Courts of which are to be held by the present Supreme and Superior Court Judges, in rotation, as they may agree among themselves, provided no Judge shall be allotted to the same Circuit twice in succession. A Supreme Court is to be held (on the old Conference plan) twice a year in this city, and at such other town west of this place, as the Legislature may hereafter designate. Judges to receive an additional compensation for holding the Supreme Court. Provides that in certain western counties, there shall be an extra term of the Superior Court held, the Judges holding the same to be designated by the Governor. A new Solicitor is to be elected by the Legislature to attend the additional Circuit created by this act. As all the Judges cannot be employed under this system, it provides that the Judge who shall not be allotted to hold any Court shall only receive one half of the usual pay of a Judge. These are the general outlines.

It will be seen that no nominations have yet been made for a Judge, to supply the vacancy occasioned by the election of Gov. Swain. There is, we believe, among the members, a disposition to ascertain the fate of the foregoing bill before going into an election which may be eventually unnecessary.

An unexpected debate occurred a few days since, in the House of Commons, in which the doctrine of Nullification was incidentally discussed. Gov. Swain, by request of the Executive of South Carolina transmitted to our Legislature, the Nullification Ordinance, Addresses, &c. and the debate arose on the various propositions which were made for reference and printing. Considerable feeling was manifested, & much unnecessary warmth created. The House refused to print, but out of courtesy to the gentleman who proposed it, had the whole of the documents read. Finally, the papers were referred to a joint select committee, composed of some of the most able men of both Houses, who will no doubt, in good time, give a response but not an echo.—Raleigh Reg.

William C. Rives, Esq. was elected without opposition by the Legislature of Virginia, on the 10th inst. to the Senate of the United States, to supply the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of L. W. Tazewell, Esq.

Presidential Election.—At a meeting of the members of the Legislature of South Carolina, on the 5th inst. it was resolved, "That in testimony of our high esteem and consideration for the patriotic devotion of John Floyd, of Virginia, and Henry Lee, of Massachusetts, to the principles of State Rights, and the great cause of Free Trade, we will give to them the vote of this State, the first for the Presidency, and the latter for the Vice Presidency of the U. States." The next day the Legislature chose Electors, who gave their vote accordingly.

Two of the Electors in Maryland failed to attend the Electoral College, which gave 3 votes for Gen. Jackson and 5 for Mr. Clay. The whole vote is now believed to be correctly ascertained and stands thus:—

For President.		For Vice President.
Gen. Jackson,	219	Mr. Van Buren,	189
Mr. Clay,	49	Mr. Wilkins,	30
Gov. Floyd,	11	Mr. Sergeant,	49

Stony Hill Academy.

THIS Institution is located in a high and healthy country, remote from scenes of vice and immorality, in a neighborhood of excellent citizens, with good and convenient buildings, with all inducements to a youth desirous of study, one and a half miles from Mr. H. Sims's, and nine miles from Mr. W. Burt's, in Nash. TERMS, for board and tuition, $40 per session of five months. The present session closes 22d November and recommences 7th January, 1833. In presenting this notice, the Subscriber acknowledges his gratefulness for the encouragement he has received and begs a continuance of patronage, with a pledge of diligence on his part in advancing his pupils in science as well as exerting himself in striving to imbue their minds with the excellencies of virtue and morality. An experience of five years has taught me to know the advantages resulting from daily infusing in the minds, some moral precept and inculcating the idea, that nothing tends more to make men worthy and excellent in after life, than a close application to study whilst young and the daily practice of virtue. Being a parent myself and the instructor of my own sons, I know the solicitude felt by others for their children, and under these considerations, I promise to act a parent's part. I am apprized of the fact, (that evil communications corrupt good manners,) and fully sensible am I, that all parents when they commit their sons to another, they do it with fear and trembling, lest his minds or morals may be injured by a connexion with idle or profligate youths, who may decoy him from the paths of virtue and lead him to the tipling shop or the card table, from whence he returns with infamy and disgrace—Under these circumstances I know the importance of youths being placed with their instructor where they can be nurtured under a parental eye. In consequence of my affection for my children & believing that all parents have a like affection for theirs, I have determined not to receive any who are too lazy to apply themselves to study, and too profligate and abandoned to submit to a discipline founded in love—such may avoid the mortification of a dismission by remaining where they are. I want youths who can honor themselves as students and myself as their preceptor. To such I am devoted and such I promise to prepare for our University, and instruct others in all the branches that are usually taught in Academies. Persons who intrust their children or wards to my care may expect to be promptly informed of the general conduct and progress of the same.
