From the Raleigh Star.
To the Public.—It is understood that the Commissioners appointed by the Legislature to superintend the rebuilding of the Capitol have determined to lay the Corner Stone of the edifice on the 4th of July next. This occasion, it is expected from the arrangements that have been made, will call together a large number of the most intelligent and respectable citizens of the State.

It is believed that this meeting will afford a favorable opportunity to ascertain public sentiment with respect to the various projects of Internal improvements, which have been proposed in different sections of the country, and perhaps produce unity of action in support of such system of operations as may be best calculated to advance the general good.

To this end the undersigned beg leave respectfully to invite public attention to the subject, and propose that a convention be held in this city at the period above mentioned, to be composed of such delegates as may be appointed for this purpose by the several counties and towns in this State.

Raleigh, June 14... The Supreme Court of this State commenced its Summer Term on Monday last.—Star.

Laying the Corner Stone of the Capitol.—By the following notice, it will be seen that the ceremony of laying the Corner Stone of our State Capitol is to take place on the 4th of July next:—

The Commissioners appointed to rebuild the Capitol of the State, having determined to lay the Corner Stone, in which is to be deposited a metallic engraving commemorative of the event, on the 4th day of July next, have felt it due to the character of the State to give general notification of the fact, and respectfully to invite His Excellency Governor Swain, the President, Professors and Faculty of the University, the members of the Legislature of the State, the Judges of the Supreme and Circuit Court, the gentlemen of the bar, and all other citizens of the State, to be present and join in the ceremony.—ib.

Another extensive Fire.—Our devoted City has again been visited by a most destructive conflagration. About half past 12 o'clock on Saturday morning last, our citizens were aroused from their beds by the too familiar and appalling cry of "Fire!" The flames were observed bursting out from the second story windows of Mr. Cobbs' coach manufactory, located in Morgan street, adjoining Messrs. Turner & Hughes' book store. Such was the combustible nature of the building, that before the citizens had time to repair to the scene of conflagration, it presented one solid mass of flames, and in a few moments the large and elegant establishment of Messrs. Turner & Hughes caught fire and shared the same fate. Strong exertions were made to arrest the progress of the devouring element, but to no purpose, until it had destroyed in its ravages the entire range of buildings on Fayetteville street, from the corner of Morgan street to Mr. Steward's dwelling house.—The latter was saved with the greatest difficulty. The fact of this being the third extensive fire on that side of the street, which has terminated at this house, is one of the most remarkable coincidences we have ever seen recorded. The Newbern bank, a three-story brick building, at the corner on the opposite side of the street, which narrowly escaped being burned at the last fire, was in imminent danger of catching on this occasion, and was only saved by the most strenuous exertions of the firemen and citizens. No satisfactory knowledge of the origin of the fire has yet been obtained. We much hope that it may prove to have been the result of accident, though very little doubt is entertained at present of its being the act of a vile incendiary. We would fain hope, for the credit of human nature, that there was not an individual in our community so depraved as to perpetrate a deed of such enormity. The following is an accurate statement of the buildings destroyed, with an estimate of the loss sustained individually:

Capt. Cobbs—4 houses; 2 occupied by himself as workshop and office; all his stock consumed; 3d occupied by Messrs. Turner & Hughes as a book store; 4th occupied by Mr. Benjamin S. King, Merchant—loss $4000.

Dr. Haywood—1 house, occupied by Wm. Smith, barber—loss $300.

Bernard Dupuy—1 house, occupied by himself as a Jewellery store—loss $2000.

Wm. White—1 house, occupied by Mr. John C. Stedman, Jeweller—loss $600.

Col. Polk—1 house, occupied by Mr. John G. Marshall, Grocer—loss $400.

John Stewart—1 house, occupied by Mr. Wm. Taylor, tailor—loss $300.

Turner & Hughes—the greater portion of their books saved; their loss, however, is considerable—$5000.

Benj. S. King—nearly the whole of his groceries and hardware and many other goods destroyed—loss $1500.

Mr. John G. Marshall's and Mr. John C. Stedman's loss was but small.

A man named Lewis was arrested yesterday morning, and committed to prison, on suspicion of having set the town on fire.

An affray took place on the morning of the fire in this city, between Seawell Moore and a man by the name of Tippet, which came near terminating fatally to the latter. The quarrel, we understand, arose about a comb, valued at 5 cents, which Tippet had borrowed of Moore, and failed to return. Moore stabbed Tippet in three or four places—He is, we learn, likely to recover from his wounds; though his life was despaired of some time after the affray.

The President of the United States, on his northern tour, arrived at New York on Wednesday afternoon, the 12th inst. He landed on the south side of Castle Garden, amid the roar of cannon and the cheers of the multitude.

The President was also received with great demonstrations of joy at Baltimore and Philadelphia.

$25 Reward.

RAN OFF from my plantation on Toisnot, Edgecombe county, on the 19th inst. a negro man named

BRYANT.

22 or 23 years old, 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, stout built, quite yellow for the appearance of his hair which is as knotty as the negro's usually is, has long lips, large feet and long toes, has a down look when spoken to, had on when he went off dark clothes and a black furred hat. He will probably lurk about Dr. Hall's plantation near Tarborough, where his father and mother are, until he can procure free papers to pass to a free State, as he has done the like before. I will give the above reward to any person who will confine him in some jail within this State so that I get him again, or deliver him to me in Stantonburg.
