

Miscellaneous.

HOME.

O, Home! thou art in every place,
O'er all the boundless earth—
The centre of eternal space,
Where'er thou hast thy birth.
They say, "a thousand miles from home,"
As from the dearest thing
That links our souls, the more we roam,
The more to it we cling.

What though ten thousand miles we run,
And add ten thousand more,
There is a Home—'tis like the sun
That travels still before.

Though not for us—though all be strange;
Yet fondest hearts there be,
In all the world's unmeasured range,
No home elsewhere can see.

O'er peopled realms, or deserts vast,
There still One Voice is heard—
'Tis Home—Home there her lot hath cast
Of man, of beast, or bird.

Within the forest's deepest shade,
Ten thousand depths around—
Home for each living thing is made
That creepeth on the ground.

Where life hath neither bed nor lair,
In silence, and in gloom,
Home finds the lonely flower there,
The worm within the tomb.

Home, Home—it is eternal love—
His presence and His praise—
O'er all, around, below, above
Creation's boundless ways—

E'en in the poor, defiled heart,
The present Home of sin,
God said, Let wickedness depart,
And We will dwell therein.

Blest Spirit, thou that Home prepare,
Do thou make clean, secure,
Lest Love should seek his dwelling there,
His Home, nor find it pure.

Thou, when this earthly Home shall fall,
As built on erring sands—
Me to that heavenly mansion call,
Prepared, not made with hands.

That Home of love, and joy, and peace,
No sorrow in the breast—
From troubling, where the wicked cease,
And where the weary rest.

SORROW AND HOPE.

By sorrow revealed, as the stars are by night,
Far off a bright vision appears,
And Hope, like the rainbow, a creature of light,
Is born, like the rainbow, in tears.

Fanaticism.—A British Missionary, by the name of Thompson, has just arrived on our shores. His intentions were announced beforehand. He comes to preach up Abolition—and to sow, if he can, the seeds of discord and disunion. We again warn the Fanatics of the North, the Tappans, the Garrisons, the Coxes, and their fellows, to beware. The great majority of our Fellow Citizens of the North will scout their proceedings—if we judge by the spirit they have already displayed—and well will it be for our country, that they have taken this stand—for, if they once undertake to interfere with these delicate relations, the consequences must be fatal beyond calculation. The inestimable Union of these States might split upon this very rock.

Richmond Enq.

We learn by the Augusta (Maine) paper, that the Anti-Slave Convention, which was held there last week, was addressed by the itinerant foreign missionary, Thompson, who lately arrived in this country, in language so indecent and vituperative of our institutions, that a meeting of the citizens was convoked, and this impertinent intruder requested to change his quarters and leave the town, which he accordingly did. Nat. Int.

An Escape.—A colored girl, says the Hartford Times, who had been in this city for three or four years past was reclaimed by her master on Tuesday last. She was taken into the fourth story of the United States Hotel, and in a moment of desperation leaped from the window to the ground, a distance of 30 feet. Although the distance was so great, she was but slightly injured, and a purse was immediately raised for purchasing her freedom.

Important Medical Discovery.—Two physicians, at Gottingen, have, it is declared, lately discovered that oxydrat of iron is an infallible antidote against arsenical poison. As the oxydrat of iron is perfectly innocuous, this discovery is peculiarly interesting.

The candle factory of Mr. Wilcox, in Harrison street, Baltimore, was lately destroyed by fire, together with the adjoining dyeing establishment of Townsend & Bandell. The fire was caused by the spontaneous combustion of candle wicks thrown together, from which the tallow had been melted.

$20 Reward.

RAN AWAY from the Subscriber, about four weeks ago, a mulatto fellow by the name of

MILES,

He is tolerable well built, full round face, when interrogated generally frowns and looks down—his father belongs to Major Whitmel K. Bullock, and he has some relation at Charles Wilkinson, Esq's. He is about 21 or 22 years old. It is probable he may attempt to pass as a free fellow, being quite intelligent. I will give the above reward to any person who will deliver him to me, or secure him in jail so that I can get him again, and pay all reasonable expenses.

COTTON GINS.

THE Subscriber, who for several years past, has been engaged in the Gin Making business,

In Kinston, has established himself

IN GREENVILLE,

Where he carries on the above business in all its various branches. All those who wish to supply themselves with Gins of the best quality, are respectfully solicited to apply to the Subscriber personally, or by letter. All orders for Gins will be promptly executed. From the Subscriber's long experience in his business; and from the approbation which his work has hitherto met with, he hesitates not to promise entire satisfaction to all who may see fit to extend to him their patronage. Gins out of order will be expeditiously repaired. The Subscriber takes the liberty of calling the attention of those who wish to procure new Gins, or to have old Gins repaired, to the expediency of applying to him in time. When all wait as is usually the case, until the work is wanted, it causes such a pressure of business, that many are obliged of necessity to submit to a longer delay than they wish.

ALLEN TISON,

In connexion with this establishment, carries on

The Lock and Gunsmith business,

He also makes Saw Mill Boxes, and Mill Inks, and Gudgeons, of a composition invented by Daniel Peck, of Raleigh—Grist Mill Spindles, with Steel Collars, (turned.) These articles equal to any manufactured in the United States.

All letters and orders must be directed to the Subscriber, at Greenville.
