

SENSE AND NONSENSE. COPHEN, Aug. 4, 1900. Well, I didn't consent to my coming into the world.

THE DROUGHT: THE DROUGHT! Away back in the 40s and 50s, the corn crop was much more likely to be cut short by drought than in more recent years.

THE RECENT ELECTIONS. The Jan (Or. Troy), writing to the Charlotte Observer has the following to say concerning our recent State and county elections.

QUICKER THAN THOUGHT. The "News" Calculating Pencils enables any one to figure faster than the brightest brain can without its aid.

In order to encourage the raising of chickens we have decided to give the following premiums to the families to whom we pay the most money for chickens from March 5th to Oct. 1st, 1900.

GREENSBORO LETTER. GREENSBORO, N. C., Aug. 2nd, 1900. Mr. Editor: To-day is voting day, and there is some anxiety among the town people. It is but natural for all to think their way of thinking is best.

And I'm always in somebody's way. I never have been counted a success at anything. No matter how much I try, and I've been in life work living for. And I'd like to do it for the rest of my life.

There is a fine fellow in our section—internationally and a matter of us I suppose in most countries. Very hard, composed of his sturdy members. It has been a hard day for you, and your party is not in a position to be as sure as we can to have pure water for drinking, and domestic uses, to boil our milk, and not to eat much butter.

There is some fever in our section—internationally and a matter of us I suppose in most countries. Very hard, composed of his sturdy members. It has been a hard day for you, and your party is not in a position to be as sure as we can to have pure water for drinking, and domestic uses, to boil our milk, and not to eat much butter.

What a great boon on a picnic, and may be carried without melting, if first, well wrapped in newspaper, then slipped into paper flour sacks, then into a heavy clothing bag.

C. W. R. Smith Commercial College. Reference—Awards at 2 largest World's Exhibitions and thousands of graduates in positions of honor in business, education, agriculture, etc.

Table with columns: TRAINS GOING SOUTH, TRAINS GOING NORTH. Lists train names, destinations, and departure times.

STORY OF A SLAVE. To be bound hard and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery.

FOUST'S MILL ITEMS. FOST'S Mill, July 31. DEAR MESSENGER: As I have seen nothing from this place for sometime I will send you a few items.

MISS LINDA CRAVEN died at her home in Orange on July 7, and was buried in the cemetery at Greensboro July 9th.

MISS LINDA CRAVEN died at her home in Orange on July 7, and was buried in the cemetery at Greensboro July 9th.

NEAL GRAPHOPHONE. Simple, Clever, Motor, Medium, Portable Construction. NO BOTHER, MUCH FUN.

Silver City Hardware Co., DEALERS IN FARMING IMPLEMENTS, COOK STOVES. And everything usually kept in a first-class hardware store.

SIMMON GROVE LETTER. SIMMON GROVE, Aug. 7, 1900. Well, the election is over and I'm glad of it.

A LITTLE GIRL'S LETTER. GREENSBORO, N. C., Aug. 6, 1900. Mr. Editor: I got the paper in last week's paper. I wrote and I'm going to write you.

MISS MARY CRAVEN died at her home in Orange on July 28th, after a long illness.

MISS MARY CRAVEN died at her home in Orange on July 28th, after a long illness.

MISS MARY CRAVEN died at her home in Orange on July 28th, after a long illness.

A MIDGET M'LEPLIER. Cleverest little educational device of the age. By a simple twist of the wrist it gives results you'd get in minutes in obtaining mentally.

MISS MARY CRAVEN died at her home in Orange on July 28th, after a long illness.

MISS MARY CRAVEN died at her home in Orange on July 28th, after a long illness.

MISS MARY CRAVEN died at her home in Orange on July 28th, after a long illness.

MISS MARY CRAVEN died at her home in Orange on July 28th, after a long illness.

MISS MARY CRAVEN died at her home in Orange on July 28th, after a long illness.

MISS MARY CRAVEN died at her home in Orange on July 28th, after a long illness.

MISS MARY CRAVEN died at her home in Orange on July 28th, after a long illness.

MISS MARY CRAVEN died at her home in Orange on July 28th, after a long illness.

MISS MARY CRAVEN died at her home in Orange on July 28th, after a long illness.

MISS MARY CRAVEN died at her home in Orange on July 28th, after a long illness.

MISS MARY CRAVEN died at her home in Orange on July 28th, after a long illness.

MISS MARY CRAVEN died at her home in Orange on July 28th, after a long illness.

MISS MARY CRAVEN died at her home in Orange on July 28th, after a long illness.

MISS MARY CRAVEN died at her home in Orange on July 28th, after a long illness.

World of Knowledge. ONLY 3 CENTS. A CLEAR MIND. This is the most valuable thing you can have.