Election Tuesday, November 7, 1882.

THE Democrats are now gaining ground all over the State, from every direction comes the good news.

THE Egyptian problem is solved, and the war is ended. Arabi met his Sedan at Tel el-Kebir, and is now a prisoner. The English are now in possession of Cairo, the Capital and scattered remnants are daily surrendering. What England proposes to do with this conquered territory remains to be seen. She will hardly demand any territorial indemnity, the rebellion. Poor Egypt has the Charleston, S. C., but cannot. sympathy of every downtrodden na-
