Register Your Names. The registration books are now open. The election occurs November 2. You cannot vote on the day of election if you have not registered before that time. Do not put off this duty, but attend to it at once.

Business on the boom. We learn from the Stanly Observer that Mr. J. W. Crayton, of Locust Level, died on the 16th inst., aged 76 years.

Mr. John Myers, accompanied by Mrs. W. T. Milton and her children, of Albemarle, have gone to Texas.

The Carolina Central Railroad has crossed Sandy Run, and have the track laid past Ellenboro. They will reach Fuzzle Creek about Monday.

The receipt of the generous contribution sent to Charleston from Waidesboro, was duly acknowledged by the Mayor of Charleston.

The circus pictures have given a new interest in life to the young people—and to many old ones, too.

A slight skirmish occurred in town on Saturday between two citizens of the county, and we have no doubt both are heartily ashamed of it now.

Mr. B. D. KENDALL, formerly of this town, now a resident of Shelby, arrived here Monday night in charge of John Moseley, charged with the larceny of tools from the Hamilton Gold Mine. Moseley says he is innocent. He was released on bail, for examination Saturday morning before Justice Horton.

Slight earth-tremblings are felt here nearly every day or night. The one felt at Charleston Monday at 5 p. m., was felt plainly here by several.

MR. JESSE SMITH, who lives near Cedar Creek below Lilesville, says there is considerable excitement in his neighborhood on account of the earth cracking open near the creek, supposed to have been caused by the earthquake.

MR. BOB CARPENTER, who lives a short distance from this town, had the misfortune to break one of his legs the other day. Dr. Bennett attended the injured man.

HON. ALF. ROWLAND arrived here Wednesday, and proceeded to Gullledge's, where he was to speak. He is looking well, and is perfectly confident of a walk-over in the District. Col. Jones is of no consequence in the canvass, but seems to amuse the people by his presumption.

COL. CHAS. R. JONES and Oliver Dockery had a conference a few days since, and rumor has it that Col. Oliver D. will be a candidate for Congressional honors at the last moment. Better stay at home, Colonel, and attend to your crop.

Since writing the above, Col. Jones informs us that in his interview with Col. Dockery, the latter told him that he would not be a candidate.

COTTON is coming in freely, and everybody seems well pleased with the prices they receive for it. Prices so far have ruled as high as at Charleston and Savannah. On Saturday last 199 bales were sold, some of it as high as 9.20.

Good Times Coming.

The signs of good times are upon us. Several of our merchants are busy opening their fall stock. The goods look bright, fresh and attractive. Among those who are receiving their new goods, are: Messrs. Hardison & Allen, grocers and staple goods; J. A. Little & Co., dry goods; Fetzer & Pharr, clothing, shoes, &c.; Henry & Huntly, dry goods, notions and furniture; C. M. Burns, general merchandise; Brady & Simons, general merchandise; T. S. Crowson, dry goods, millinery, &c.; McLendon & Parsons, drugs; Costner & Huntley, drugs; Shepherd, the red nag man, dry goods; C. M. Little, dry goods and groceries. In fact, business life is showing itself in every direction. Mr. Horton's cotton gin is now in full blast turning out the snowy staple, as is the gin of Mr. J. P. McRae. The blacksmith shops are singing out merry tunes from early dawn till dark. Friend Saylor is too busy to talk, with crowding orders in his carriage and repair shops. The travel is rapidly increasing, which tends to brighten up the faces of the popular landlords of the Burns Hotel and Central Hotel. Tom May hasn't much time to doze now in his feed and sale stable, and J. W. Huntley is in the same predicament at his livery stables. Maj. Ingram is serving his customers with more choice meats, now that fall is approaching. Cotton is coming in briskly. Farmers, as a general thing have made good crops. There is talk of another railroad to this town. The Circus is coming next week. Altogether, everything is cheering and everybody looks happy—except the doctors and undertakers, whose elongated and doleful faces plainly show how "distressingly healthy" this section is. Waidesboro is a lively business town, has a big trade, sells goods as cheap as they can be bought in this State or out of it, and pays as much for cotton as they do in Charleston or Savannah.

Religion a Good Thing.

A defeated aspirant for legislative honors in our late convention, was heard to remark that "if he had had religion he would have walloped Mr. Parsons." As the unfortunate one is a worthy gentleman and good citizen generally, we hope he will come before the next convention prepared to win, as he now knows what is necessary to insure his success. A little religion is a good thing.

MR. R. H. COWAN and family have arrived in Waidesboro, where they will remain till December. We are pleased to hear they are all in excellent health.

THE fall meeting of the Mecklenburg Presbytery met at Morven yesterday. Will publish the proceedings next week.

MR. CROWSON has been fortunate enough to secure the services of Miss Maude Dawson, an accomplished young lady of Baltimore, in his millinery department. We hope Miss D's stay in Waidesboro will be both pleasant and profitable.

MESSRS. FETZER, J. A. Little, and Crowson have returned from the North.

JUDGE ASHE leaves next week for Raleigh.

SEPTEMBER has been very dry and warm. The temperature of the month has been only about one degree less than the month of August.

VERY glad to see Mr. John Hardison on the streets after a long illness. Also, glad to see Mr. Walter Ashe out again. He expects to leave for New York City in a few days, to resume his studies.

THERE will be a baptizing at the Baptist Church in this town next Sunday night, Rev. H. W. Battle, officiating. It is said a large number will be baptised.

FARMERS tell us they have a better grass crop than has been known here for many years. The horses and cows will be glad to know this.

ROWLAND and Jones to-day!

We trust there will be a full turnout of the staunch Democracy of old Anson to greet Col. Rowland to-day. People are very busy and we fear there will not be a large crowd, but Anson needs not to hear from the gallant Rowland or Robeson. They know him and will give him their so-called Democratic vote.

THERE was some "skinning" done at Rockingham Tuesday, but Chas. R. was the party that got "skinned." We were there and know whereof we speak. O. S. H. in the Charlotte Observer to the contrary notwithstanding. But then O. S. H. is none other than a died-in-the-wool Republican—we know who he is.

JUDGE BYNUM has declined to lead a forlorn hope. Charles R. should now follow his wise example.

IT is getting most time for Col. Jones to withdraw. Of course no one considers his candidacy seriously.

COL. ROWLAND, the nominee of the Democratic party, and Col. Jones, the nominee of the — the — well, the lone star convention, will discuss the political issues to-day.

Our Advertisers.

We have been compelled to leave out this week several advertisements. It was our intention to visit every business and professional man in Waidesboro, but it was impossible to do so.

- The new advertisements which appear this week are: The Circus—double column. Hardison & Allen. McLendon & Parsons. D. L. Saylor & Son—double column. V. Wilson. Fetzer & Pharr—double column. Hargrave & Alexander, Charlotte.

We invite attention to the advertisement of Messrs. Hargrave & Alexander, of Charlotte, N. C. This is a wide awake and enterprising firm who have made a very favorable impression on all who patronize them, both on account of the excellent quality of their goods and moderate prices at which they sell them. Mr. Julian A. Little, of Little's Mills, is associated with the firm. He will be glad to see any of his friends when they visit Charlotte. When they cannot come, he will be pleased to send them promptly samples of what they want.

The Central Hotel.

Col. Fredrick will soon retire from the management of the above Hotel. His host of friends will be sorry to part with him. Mr. D. L. Parker will take charge of the hotel about January. He will refurbish it throughout, besides making other important improvements. He says he intends to have one of the best hotels in the State, both as to the menu and the general appointments of the house. Mr. Parker is a pushing business man, and never fails with anything he undertakes. The good wishes of the entire community will go with Col. Fredrick when he leaves us.

Cotton Receipts and Sales.

WADESBORO, September 29—5 P. M. Cotton has been coming in freely during the past week. The boll is opening well, the weather being very favorable. The crop is fully equal to that of last year. The bottom lands were seriously injured by the excessive rains of the early summer, otherwise the crop would have been far above the average. The season is about two weeks later than last year.

Table with columns for date and quantity of cotton bales. Includes entries for Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and a total for 6 days.

The prices for the same grades in Charleston on Tuesday were: Middling, 9c; Strict Middling, 9 1/2c; Middling, 9 1/2c.

COMING! COMING!

The Mighty Monarch of All Large Aggregations—John B. Doris' Great Inter-Ocean Circus, Museum, Peerless Menagerie and Elevated Theatre Stage—At Waidesboro, Friday, October 8th.

This mammoth show comes here with strong endorsements from the entire press wherever it exhibited. Its attractions are exceedingly numerous, and every promise made by Mr. Doris will be carried out to the letter. No show in the country can surpass the great Inter Ocean in the extent and variety of its features, and always directing carefully to increase the facilities for comfort and convenience of its patrons, has, at last, brought its circus to its present vast dimensions, and is now regarded second to none on the continent.

There are just fifty acts to be seen in the ring and on the elevated theatre stage. These acts embrace, besides the grand circus performances of wonderful riding, tumbling, vaulting, leaping, high ladder maneuvers, presenting thrilling and startling achievements, classic posturing, troupe of French bicycle riders, twelve genuine brawny Turks, the Siberian roller skaters, even champion clown, led by Johnie Patterson, the rambler from Clare, especially engaged for this season; James Robinson, the only man who rides, who alone possesses the only diamond studded champion of the world belt; medals of France, Spain and Russia, and is now more celebrated than any other equestrian living or dead, and his merit and claim to first place as a horseman remains unchallenged to-day; the Fisher Brothers, the flying meteors of the air; Misses Sallie Marks and Ella Storks, the well-known equestriennes, are among the stars—these famous artists are so well and so favorably known that praise is simply superfluous, as they no competitors; Katomorpa, queen of the reptile world; three Seigrists, acrobats; Mlle. Lizette and LeFevre, the flying women of the air; La Rosa and Ruge, contortionists; Rice Brothers, horizontal bars; Clarence Robinson, champion hurdle rider; J. P. Batchelder, champion leaper of the world; Riffia Bey, Turkish Knife-thrower; the trained elephants and educated stallions, and dozens of other features go to make up a show that eclipses in extent and merit anything the people ever observed. In addition to the foregoing, there is to be seen in the great Inter Ocean Megatherian Menagerie almost unceasing numbers of beasts, birds, reptiles and marine monsters. Open dens of wild animals will be exhibited free of charge on the public streets. The grand street parade takes place daily at 10 a. m. Don't miss it. Six different kinds of bands will discuss popular music of the day. One mile of sumptuous, sun bright golden chariots. A gay suite of ladies and gentlemen. Hundreds of handsome horses, ponies, etc. Tabernacles and this marvelous pageantry festival. Cheap excursion rates on all railroads. Doors open at 1 and 7 p. m.

Still they Come!

Each train, as it unloads its burden of Freight at Waidesboro, sends out box after box of Goods, which we are assorting out and displaying on our counters; and it gives us pleasure to say we worked hard while in the Market, and have some royal good bargains in SHOES & CLOTHING for the people in this country.

We are prepared to demonstrate more clearly than ever that we are the People's Clothiers and "Shoethiers." We ask all to give us a call before buying, and we are sure we can save you money. Very truly, FETZER & PHARR.

GENERAL NEWS

A practical movement has been inaugurated in Bossier Parish, Louisiana, for the abolition of miscegenation. Mary Anderson's seven performances for the benefit of the Charleston sufferers will begin in Dublin October 11. Special Envoy Sedgwick, who went to Mexico to investigate the Cutting case, has returned home. He says that the original account of his conduct in the City of Mexico, published in the New York Times, and charging him with drunkenness, was false in every particular; that it had been written by some malicious scribbler, and that he was easily prepared to prove its libellous character. He says that he has made an explanation to Secretary Bayard, who is satisfied with it. Mr. Sedgwick will not talk of the points covered by his Mexican investigations.

Pleuro-pneumonia is raging near Chicago, and 2,000 cattle which have been exposed to the disease have been placed under quarantine.

Mr. Thomas E. Benedict, New York, has filed with the Secretary of the Interior his official bond in the sum of $100,000 as Public Printer, and has taken charge of the office.

Dr. Andres estimates that the peril from lightning is now from three to five fold greater than it was fifty years ago, owing to the vastly increased electrical intensity induced by the charging of the atmosphere with steam and smoke at all centres of population.

Quite a stir has been created in New York social circles by the marriage of George Gould, eldest son of Jay Gould, to Miss Edith Kingdon, a well known actress.

The number of deaths resulting from the railroad collision near Silver Creek, N. Y., has been swelled to nineteen.

Antionette Polk, (niece of the famous fighting bishop of Louisiana, who fell in battle,) is at the Hoffman House in New York. The Marquis of Bute once offered her his hand on condition that Stgr. Capel would convert her to Catholicism. Miss Polk declined and he married Miss Arundel the great London beauty instead. Afterwards Miss Polk married the Baron de Gbarette, and has come to this country to make her eldest son acquainted with the land of his mother's birth.

Near Marietta, Georgia, James Whitman, while digging a post hole for the Marietta and North Georgia railroad, in Tolona Valley, unearthed the skull of an Indian, and also a spear. The latter, probably, was the weapon that laid low the "red face" warrior.

Western Texas has been devastated by one of the most disastrous droughts that has ever visited that section.

DIED, near Norwood, Stanley County, on the 24th inst., Mrs. Margaret J. Lanier, wife of the late Robert J. Lanier, in the 73d year of her age. She had been a devout member of the Baptist Church for nearly fifty years.

SPECIAL NOTICES. I would like for all who contemplate buying a wagon, carriage or buggy, to call and examine my stock. No trouble to show the stock. D. L. SAYLOR & SON.

The best butter, cheese, sweet potatoes, &c., constantly on hand. Fresh and cheap. W. J. CORNWALL.

If you want a Photograph made by the latest improved process, call at FESPERMAN'S Gallery. Also, just received, a lot of Sewing Machine supplies—needles, oil, &c. *

WANTED—EVERY MERCHANT IN Waidesboro to have an advertisement in this paper. It will greatly benefit you.

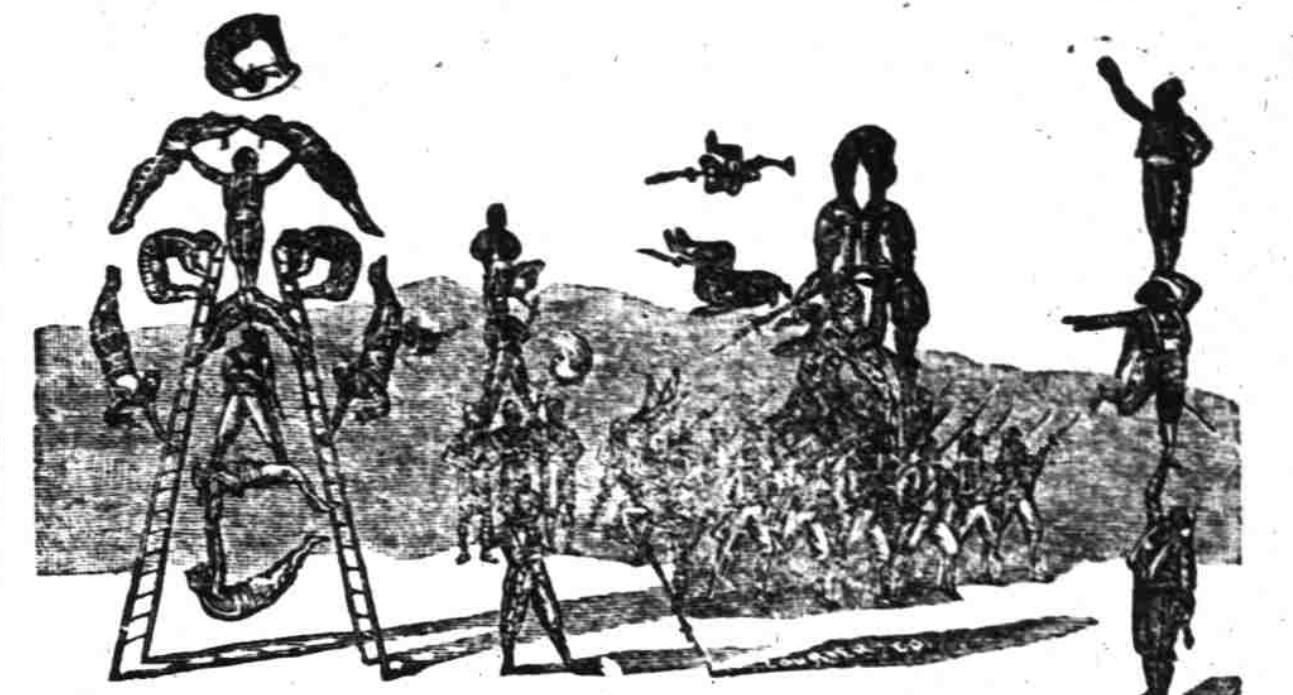

WANTED.—Every farmer, and all others in the County, to subscribe to the TIMES.

Immigration Notes. Mr. Patrick, General Agent of Immigration, has gone to Pennsylvania and New York to attend three of the most popular agricultural fairs there. He will meet by engagement a large number of people who are interested in North Carolina and have been in correspondence with his office in regard to settling. By this means he can accomplish in a week's time what would otherwise require much time, travel and expense. It is likely that a considerable number of settlers will return with Mr. Patrick.

Mr. E. Lanx, of Nazareth, Pa., is desirous of securing a tract of land in a good, healthy section of North Carolina. He writes Commissioner Patrick that he has two or three thousand dollars to invest in North Carolina if he can be suited.

L. Reece, Esq., of Greenville, S. C., would like to locate in North Carolina and desires the price of good lands. Parties having such lands might do well by corresponding with him at once.

WANTED RELIABLE AGENTS. I sell our popular BROWN and WHITE in every town and country. LIBERAL TERRITORIES. J. F. DIXON & CO., 1013 Main St., Richmond, Va.
