

The Ansonian

W. C. BIVENS,

Editor and Proprietor.

R. S. PINKSTON, Assistant Manager.

Entered as second-class matter July 5, 1906, at the postoffice at Wadesboro, N. C., under the Act of Oct. 3, 1917.

TUESDAY, JULY 16, 1907

Now and then we hear it said that Mr. so-and-so has predicted the early downfall of this sheet. So long as these things are said by men who never helped to make any enterprise a success, we are not despondent in the least. While it gains about a dozen new subscribers each week over and above all it loses, we feel pretty solid.

The Monroe Enquirer estimates that there was enough courting done in that town on the Fourth to bring about the marriage of five hundred couples. Admitting that it is an unsafe subject to deal with, yet we venture to say that if Union county realizes a dozen marriages from the number mentioned she will be doing exceedingly well.

THERE seems to be little grounds for the report that Japan and the United States may engage in war, though many newspapers are striving hard to make it appear that way. The only reason which can be given for supposed stringency relations is the fact that a Japanese restaurant was smashed in California a few weeks ago and several months ago some Japanese children were excluded from Anglo-Saxon schools in that state. Now these things and other matters of a like nature tend to show that it is not wise to encourage the immigration of that race of people to this continent. It is only a question of time when even more restrictive measures will be resorted to in order to keep the races apart. This is and has been for a long time, essentially a white man's country and with our accumulated resources, if the occasion should ever demand it we would make the little spats with Great Britain in 1776 and 1812 look like childish play in showing how much we think of it. Let Japan learn a lesson from what has already taken place and consider how much worse matters will be when a few score of her countrymen are killed in riots.

Then too, Japan positively can seriously crippling the remarkable industrial development that is now proceeding in that country. And much of the capital responsible for this great industrial awakening has come from America and England. Many of her bonds, issued to carry on a successful though expensive war with Russia, are held by the United States, and while laboring under great burdens and at the same time, facing great possibilities, Japan can hardly afford to engage in war with any nation even if she were inclined to do so.

Dr. McLendon Urges the Farmers to Attend the Institute.

Editor of The Ansonian

The Farmers' Institute for Anson county will be held in Wadesboro July 23rd and Polkton July 24th. Aside from my interest in the improvement of Agriculture generally and in Anson county specially, being one of the workers, I desire to see the farmers, their wives and daughters in large numbers at both places. We have tried to arrange a good program for each place, and have secured the best speakers to be had. Some of the speakers I have heard and can promise our people something that will pay them well for the day so spent, besides the pleasure of meeting together once a year on occasions like these. The subjects discussed are of importance to our people, both men and women, and I especially desire to see a large attendance of our ladies from the county. You will see from the program that we have a different set of speakers at the two points, so persons going to Wadesboro will hear different men discuss different subjects, if they will go to Polkton also, which is equal to two days at one point. So I earnestly request our people to attend both Institutes. Truly,

W. J. McLendon.

Attempt to Kill Whole Family.

Durham Special, 12th. News & Observer

At Bilboa, a small trading place and station east of Durham, an attempt was made yesterday afternoon to murder the entire family of M. C. Jones, a merchant at that place, who has an extensive business in the eastern part of this county and in Wake. But for the timely arrival of Dr. George Ross, of East Durham, who was summoned when it was known that both Mr. Jones and his wife were in a serious condition, there would have been two deaths.

Mr. H. W. Little spent Wednesday in Charlotte on business.

Your brain goes on a strike when you overload your stomach; both need blood to do business. Nutrition is what you want, and it comes by taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents. Tea or Tablets Martin Drug Co.

THE FARMER'S INSTITUTE

Program for the Meetings of the Men and Ladies—Subjects for Discussion.

The following is the program for the Farmer's Institute to be held here and at Polkton Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

Men's Meeting in The Court House. Fertilizers and how to use them—By C. M. Conner, professor agriculture A and M College.

Corn Culture—By C. F. Bennett. Insect Pests and Spraying—By Frank in Sherman, Jr., state entomologist. Hay-making—By J. D. Haytt.

Morning session will open at 10:30 o'clock and afternoon session at 1:30 o'clock.

Women's Meeting in Ladies' Rest Room. The Women's Institute will be held at the same hours in the ladies rest room. The program follows:

Foods and their cooking—By Miss Mae Card, State department of agriculture.

The influence of women in the home—By Mrs. Sue V. Hollowell, Goldsboro. Suggestions for Home Nursing—By Miss Mae Card.

Joint Meeting of Men's and Women's Institutes in The Court House.

Some suggestions for the improvement of Farm Homes By Franklin Sherman, Jr.

A talk to Men and Women in the Farm Homes By Mrs. Sue V. Hollowell.

Farm Butter making By J. A. Conner, U. S. department of agriculture.

INSTITUTE AT POLKTON. The Institute will be held in the school house at Polkton Wednesday July 24th. The morning session will open at 10:30 o'clock and the afternoon session at 1:30 o'clock.

Men's Meeting. Corn Culture By R. L. Redding, formerly director Georgia experiment station.

Insect Pests and Spraying—By Frank in Sherman, Jr., state entomologist. Plant Diseases—By Dr. F. L. Stevens, A and M College.

Cotton Culture By R. J. Redding. Soil Improvement By Dr. W. J. McLendon.

Women's Meeting. Home Economics and Conveniences—By Mrs. Walter Grimes, Wake county.

Cooperation of Home and School—By Mrs. F. L. Stevens, Raleigh.

Some suggestions for the improvement of Farm Homes By Franklin Sherman, Jr.

Home Nursing—By Mrs. Stevens. Beautifying the Farm Home—By Mrs. Grimes.

At 3 p. m. Dr. F. L. Stevens will deliver a free lecture, illustrated with magic lantern, on the value of an agricultural education to the farmer.

The above programs are given to indicate the nature of the Institutes, but they may be changed or added to as the present desire of a question box will also be open.

Into which all are invited to put such questions as they desire discussed.

The Farmers' Institutes are held for the benefit of farmers, and none but strictly farming questions will be discussed. It is, therefore, especially desired that a large attendance of farmers and their families be secured and to this end every effort will be made to do the same.

Students' Reunion at Union Institute. There will be a students' reunion at Union Institute in Union county, Friday, August 2, 1907. The old students in Union are making an organized effort to get all former students to attend this reunion, but as it is impossible to ascertain present postoffice addresses, they must therefore depend upon the newspapers, and through them extend a cordial and general invitation to all former students of Prof. O. C. Hamilton to assemble at Union Institute and enjoy this event. A picnic dinner will be served in the grove.

Anson county has been well represented at this well known institution, and it is hoped that all former students of Anson will be present on this occasion.

Mayor's Court. Cases disposed of since July 9th.

Herbert, colored, disorderly conduct, discharged on payment of cost.

Lois Tillman, colored, disorderly conduct, discharged on payment of cost.

Al Waddell, drunk, fined $2.50 and cost.

John Howard, colored, drunk, discharged on payment of cost.

Ben Lee, drunk, discharged on payment of cost.

Frank Rogers, drunk, discharged on payment of cost.

Joe Martin, disorderly conduct and drunk, $2.50 and cost.

W. N. Forbes, drunk, $5.00 and cost.

Big Brown Creek. The temperature is all right for cotton now. Corn that has been worked well is very fine.

Miss Daisy Flake is at home from Thomasville. She will stay three weeks.

Mrs. J. F. Hendley is having chills, now, we are sorry to learn.

Some of our people who spent the Fourth at Rocky River Springs report a good time, and especially in regard to order. Stanley is a dry county.

On the Fourth our road was disgraced as it has ever been. I suppose by drunk negroes, cursing and swearing in a loud tone. Ladies would have been in danger on that day traveling on our road. It is surprising that some who have been raised in a civilized land will vote for and sell a product that will bring all this meanness out of negroes and white people too, when we in the country have no protection.

Polkton News. Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Ledbetter and children of Red Springs are spending sometime here.

Mrs. T. B. Goodman is slowly recovering after being sick for sometime.

A large water tank, belonging to the rail road company, fell last Thursday, being full of water. A negro asleep under it waked up just in time to escape injury.

We are patiently waiting for some one to open up the central phone office at Bivens. Who shall it be? We extend to all a cordial invitation to attend the Farmers' Institute to be held here July 24th.

Mr. S. S. Hutchinson, a former student of the Pee Dee Institute, is visiting friends in town.

Columbus just landed; meeting a big Indian chief with a package under his arm, he asked what it was. "Great medicine, Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea," said the Indian.
