Some Bold Larceny Friday Night.

With what looks like a premeditated determination to break right into the penitentiary, two negroes engaged in some midnight work Friday that will probably take them there about as soon as a court can convene and go through the necessary preliminaries. The negroes figuring were Tom Huntley, a home dandy, and one George Franklin, alias Kid Paterson, of uncertain habitation. They hired Jim Craven, a mule, telling him that they would give him $2 for it for two hours and further stating that Mr. Sheek wanted it in order to get some whiskey moved and moved at once as the revenues were coming. They went directly to the cotton field of Messrs. L. D. Robinson and J. J. Sullivan where a lot of cotton had been left. They put on something like 1000 or 1500 pounds of the Franklin negro drove it to Cheraw, S. C. Disposing of the cotton he put the mules in Pezue's stable and phoned to Crawford, telling him where to find them. This information and suspicions led to the arrest of Tom Huntley as accomplice and Mr. Zeke Lewis, Morven's intrepid officer, was sent for the other negro, who had probably planned the entire job. He was arrested in Cheraw and the wagon with Mr. Robinson's cotton sheets was found. Franklin, however, drew his gun and attempted to get away.

Mr. Lewis landed Franklin in jail last night. The negro denied knowing anything about the wagon but admitted driving the wagon, claiming that it contained whiskey. It is thought here that he is also wanted for stealing a gun in Monroe and for doing the highway robber stunt in Cheraw recently.

Remarkable Rescue.

The truth is stranger than fiction, has once more been demonstrated in the little town of Fedora, Tenn. The residence of C. V. Pepper. He writes: "I was in bed, entirely disabled with hemorrhages of the lungs and throat. Doctors failed to help me, and all hope had fled when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. Then instant relief came. The coughing soon ceased; the bleeding diminished rapidly, and in three weeks I was able to go to work. Guaranteed for coughs and colds 50c. and $1.00, at Parsons Drug Co. Trial bottle free."
