amount. A hint to the wise and reasonable, is sufficient.

ADVERTISING RATES Transient rates 12} cents per incl Contract rates 10 cents per inch Discounts in proportion to space and term of contract.

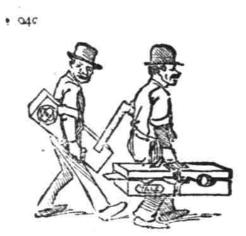

Special care given all advertising matter accepted. **********

VOLUME 3.

Published Every Tuesday.

WADESBORO, N. C., DECEMBER 1, 1908.

NUMBER 27

Carpenters Tools

ure in showing

Also let us fig-

DUILDERS ARE BUSY Nobody likes to EVERYBODY is busy building. sell Good Goods Are you? any better than If so, tall your carpenter or hulder that you'd like to have we do, and we thin get Yale & Towne Hard. will take pleas-

you

Stop in at the store and look s it yourælf.

This had been Hardware regulates Duell to and a water kind of building, har a of Plumbs, Hammers, Keen Kutter Planes, Black Navy Braces, Keen-Kutter or Atkins Saws, a Stanley Level or Try Square, or possibly you want a Keen Kutter Foot Adze.

There is always satisfaction in buying goods that are warranted, those that have a reputation behind them.

We are continually strengthening our lines of

Building Material

Now, we carry almost

Any Size Door or Sash in stock, both Plain and Check Rail, Side Lights, Transoms; Blinds, all sizes

And don't forget

Albemarle Mantels

This is one of our very strongest lines.

We would also like to show you our different kinds of

Roofing S

We carry between $3,000 and $4,000 worth of different roofing materials in stock always---the National & Security Gravel Rooting Three-Ply Felt Roofing, all kinds of Metal Roofing, and last but not least, a full carload of

We are also carrying a complete line of Plumbing Supplies, and are headquarters on Paints, Leads, Oils, and, oh! we know that it will pay you do a little figuring with us.

BLALOCK HARDWARE CO.

Editorial Comment

ure with you on

SPEAKING of the Methodist Con-knowledged.

them. Long may it continue wealth, the south was in the throes thus and grow exceedingly.

RECENTLY a commission of gov-roment officials came to North from the necessary work of reconernment officials came to North struction came the lesson of work, fore we make too much fuss about the criticism? Here is a burden bearers had little hand in making? very readable article from the In- And it is only the hand of time dustrial News along the matter that may heal, and make whole.

miliating, if we are not very much mistakened, to the people of the any possible criticism, on the score south. Conditions here with our of southern slackness, should be rural populations are not what tempered by a proper weighing of they ought to be, as a comparison the inexorable conditions that of conditions that obtain most any- bred this seeming slackness. where else will show, and we are bound, among other things, to hear a revival of the talk about Anniversary of President Davis' the benighted "native mountain whites," and about "Southern Clarence H. Poe, while traveling abroad last summer wrote the Progressive Farmer, from London, on July 20: "An intelligent laboring class is the backbone of any strong. There are no negroes here, of course, the entire serving class being white. And their neatness, cleanliness, quickness, and intelligence is one of the things No where in the country districts here have I seen the signs of shiftlessness-- broken gates, gullied fields, neglected tools, shackly outhouses, unpainted and illkept residences-which mar the land-in the south. A house here may the work of landscape gardeners; all Scotland between Edinburgh and Glasgow seems to be almost as neat as our capitol squares-and England is hardly less beautiful. bear no ill-will toward our negroes, but it is impossible to escape the conclusion that their ignorance and shiftlessness have not only held back the south in a thousand ways, but their carelessness has provided a lower level for indifferent white people to fall to. Nowhere else do you find white people content to live in such ugly homes and with such unpromising farms as often meet our vision in the south, and I think it partially explained by the fact that the ne-

This indictment from one of our own people is unquestionably a severe one, especially when Mr. Poe says: "Nowhere else do you find white people content to live in such ngly homes and with such unpromising farms as often our vision in the south." It is unlikely that a government commission will ever deal with us in terms more critical than this, but it is going to prove more but it is going to prove more discontinuated and the proposed the purse and was glad to deliver in the south." It is original contents. He had been trying to dispose of it but could find no owner. Best of all, no one was surprised to know that James did a deed like this.

Miss Carrie V. May, for F. P. Pratt & Co., was good in her recitation.

Miss Willie McGhee delightfully ended the program for the business concerns in her poetical presentations of the merits of Liles' Underselling Store.

One of the most artistic productions was that of Miss Hattie Hines in behalf of the Morver High School and its excellen teachers. A pity it was that Prof but it is going to prove more disagreeable to peruse such statements, however true they may be, in-a government report.

not belive such responsibility can Season. gros or the poor classes of southern white people. If the lot of many of our southern farmers brings to mind the "Man With the Hoe," with the emptiness of the ages depicted upon his brow, the fault therefore, does not lie, essentially, in him. It is not even a climatic condition, this lack of good, red blood, and a poverty which more than half the world will never understand. It was the property owning classes that brought on the Civil War, in which the poorer classes did most of the fighting, and while the once wealthy land owners smerged.

Good Cough Medicine for Ghildren.

The season for coughs and colds is now at hand and too much care cannot be used to protect the children. A child is much more likely to contract the children. A child is much more likely to contract the children. A child is much more likely to contract the children. At the fault therefore, does not lie, essentially, in him. It is not even a climatic condition, this lack of good, red blood, and a poverty which more than half the world will never understand. It was the property owning classes that brought on the Civil War, in which the poorer classes did most of the fighting, and while the conce wealthy land owners smerged.

Good Cough Medicine for Ghildren.

The season for coughs and colds is now at hand and too much care cannot used to protect the children. At child is much more likely to contract the children. At child is much more likely to contract the children. At child is much more likely to contract the children. At child is much more likely to contract the children. At child is much more likely to contract the children. At child is much more likely to contract the children. At child is much more likely to contract the children. At the can be seen the failed to get that of his lady love. Mr. Z. V. Hart-specific the capable auctioneer, by soft pleadings, made the young fellows part with something like the capable auctioneer, by soft pleadings, made the young fellows part with something like the capable auctiones.

It was altogether a justly be charged to either the ne-from that great fractrical strife THANKSGIVING NIGHT much poorer in this world's goods, it was the poor farmer-tenant who was left even poorer. Conditions are better now-much better, but while a work of destruction may be performed quickly, a work of reconstruction is in most cases a matter of evolution. It has been ference last week, the Waxhaw well said that the Union is a fact, Enterprise pays the following not merely because Lee surrendertribute to the church at Wades- ed to Grant, but because Lee's surrender of a sectional belief in Wadesboro seems to be one of ideal in democracy and work. the coming Methodist points of Very strikingly was this fact the Conference. Rev. J. H. West, pointed out a few weeks since by the holiday. Everybody was in a the real beginning of Solomon's who has just completed his first Prof. Edward K. Graham, of the good humor and the behavior was reign. About 1022 B. C. year's work there, reports that faculty of the State University, there has been an increase of $400 when he wrote: "The learning of in the preacher's salary at that the new ideal was to the south the ness enterprise was represented in usalem, where the tabernacle had point and a surplus over all of great fight. After the war the a series of cosmoramic recitations been erected for a time, and a cen-$160. Wadesboro has the best whole country became the battle parsonage in the Conferece, so ac- ground of an absorbing economic struggle. In the contest, pitably Mr. M. L. Ham made a short We are glad to print the above handicapped, the task of the south and add that the Methodist are Titanic task of complete material doing a great work here. The reconstuction. In the gloom of church is strong and spiritual, bitter oppression, while the unhaving in it many of the city's trameled north and east, under leading business and professional the nurture of national business men. Wadesboro is proud of its business enterprises, while the unlaws, were constructing great churches and the spirit of brother- trameled west was turning a ly love which prevails among fertile wilderness into immediate by Mr. Lewis.

Carolina and held a meeting in the its dignity, its true worthiness, its This commission has been severely criticised for speaking plainly of conditions as they found them.

The commission has been severely criticised for speaking plainly of conditions as they found them.

The commission has been severely criticised for speaking plainly of conditions as they found them.

The commission has been severely criticised for speaking plainly of the prayer is conditioned upon the conditions as they found them.

The commission has been severely criticised for speaking plainly of the prayer is conditioned upon the conditions as they found them.

The congregation wisdom and adds to it they are all in such deadly earn-blustness principles, and should make money and prosper like any prematurely broken down the congregation of the prayer is conditioned upon the congregation of the prayer is condi interest of rural communities. rewards. Work became spirit and ington & Co.'s store. of conditions as they found them. pitiably handicapped and oppress- Carrie Capel recited a piece about life of Solomon. While it hurts to be told of our ed people, struggling for years unfaults, wouldn't it be well to set der a burden which at times seemabout remedying those faults be- ed more than the finite mind, and

We trust the government commission will find it possible to But it will inevitably prove hu- lend a helping hand to the poor

Sunday, Dec. 6th, is the Anniversary of President Davis' death. On Monday, Dec. 7th, Daughters of the Confederacy all over the South will present to their town schools framed pictures of Jeffercountry, and in this England is son Davis. Anson Chapter, U. D. C. by permission of the Principal, will present this picture at nine o'clock on the morning of the 7th. to the Wadesboro graded school. This will take the place which impresses itself most deep- Chapel exercise. The parents and others interested will be welcomed -daughters of the Confederacy are asked to attend with their badges.

The following is the order of exercises to be carried out:

have only two or three rooms, Bible Reading....Rev. Mr. Chambliss Presentation of picture by Mrs. R. E. Little. Picture recived by some one selected by

Dixie......School Benediction.....Rev. R. M. Mann

An Honest Colored Man. As has been previously stated in these columns, nothing delights the Ansonian more than complimenting a worthy deed performed by anyone. Friday, while trading in Wadesboro, Mr. L. J. Kiker of Burnsville township, one of the county's best citizens, left his purse containing $100.03 on the counter in the Parsons drug store. He missed it sometime afterwards gro takened fresh from Africa has left it. After going to different stores, he returned to this store and way no other counand was talking to one of the and Perhaps Mr. Poe is warranted, talks of Caveny. Wednesday applauded the nice things said of

AT MORVEN.

Successful Entertainment Given Under the Auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society.

Under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Morven Wisdom. -I Kings 3:4-15. Methodist church, one of the most ments was given Thanksgiving -Prov 9:10. leisure and caste to the national night. The affair was largely at- Time-This lesson is closely most excellent.

by young ladies dressed to repre- ter of religious worship. sent the various business houses. THE LESSON speech of introduction, showing of a passionate struggle merely to exist. Years followed years of

Dr. Misenheimer, telling of his PRACTICAL TRUTHS ability and skill in dealing with all tone of voice or some existing cir- ideal toward which to move. cumstances, altogether unknown The life choice was presented to to this writer, made this take-off Solomon. So it is to every man

Thomas Dean (?).

Miss Esther Dunn, decorated Solomon desired wisdom. Wis-George Martin appeared for Dr. continually pray. Thompson and made a person feel that it was not so bad after all to It is not what we get, but what we within easy reach.

Miss Mae McQueen made a senthis substantial and growing instiaudience to trade with J. L. Little our hearts and wills. & Co., giving excellent reasons in support of her assertions.

Mowry & Co had Miss Levada

what she said was all to the good. Miss Nina Martin was loud in her praise of T. V. Hardison and his various business enterprises. She gave specific directions as to all details and each of Mr. Hardison's assistants came in for special

Miss Aline Lowery then spoke the fruits of wise living. Every the praise of T. J. Ballard's grow- one should work in order that he

The A. C. L., under the man-others. agement of Mr. C. C. Dunn, was represented by Miss May Griggs.
The People's Store was told ple should have part in it. It is ple should have part in it. It is tions of the merits of Liles' Under- Give love, give tears, and give thyself;

teachers. A pity it was that Prof. to us. The Clay modeling and chalk and failed to hear how the people or think. in a measure, in laying the partial responsibility for conditions so lamentable at the door of the negro. In the last analysis, however, we do late the biggest crowd of the last analysis, however, we do late the biggest crowd of the last analysis, however, we do late the biggest crowd of the last analysis, however, we do late the biggest crowd of the last analysis, however, we do late the biggest crowd of the last analysis, however, we do late the last analysis and of the last analysis, however, we do late the last analysis and of the last analysis, however, we do late the last analysis and of the last analysis, however, we do late the last analysis and of the last analysis, however, we do late the last analysis and of the last analysis, however, we do late the last analysis and of the last analysis analysis. The last analysis and late the last analysis analysis and late the last analysis and late the late t real or near-poetry.

Sunday School Department

Conducted by Special Editor.

The lesson—Solomon Choses Golden Text-"The fear of the enjoyable and successful entertain. Lord is the beginning of wisdom.'

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 6

tended, many out of town guests connected with lesson 8 which was being present to enjoy the close of our study for November 22. It is Place.—Gibeon, a sacred place

The fun began when each busi- five or six miles northwest of Jer-

The young king bas a vision in very plainly that he knew but which the life choice is presented little about what was coming, but to him. Notice the great assemno one thought hard of him after bly, the religious ceremonies, the effect upon Solomon, and his The first to appear was Roy Mc- dream in the night. Solomon's Ghee, his face lathered and in his reasoned out his decision. Rehands the various tonsorial equip- membering first what God had ments. He recited a poem adver- done for his father, David, and tising the barber shop conducted with the realization that God had called him to the throne, consid-Miss Mary Woodburn did justice ering his own youth and inexpeto Prof. Hines' drug store, telling rience and the greatness of the all about the various articles kept work to be done, Solomon chooses wisdom and asks God to give him Miss Ophelia Davis was next in understanding. The anger is a line with some verses telling of the double one. God is pleasedd with advantages offered by J. W. Cov- the decision and grants the request for wisdom and adds to it powerful influence upon the get a glimpse of his coffin borne human failings and helps men by Miss Mae Little appeared in be- world. Visions of prophets have through the streets. No such entertaining them more than by half of of R. H. Gathings & Co., opened doors of glory into the funeral has ever been seen in Lon- ranting and scolding at them. declaring that Mr. Gathings was future, to draw men to a better don." well-prepared to serve the people life. The Bible itself ends with a in every way, was a first-rate citizen, but badly in need of a good world, to attract men toward a night. Everybody wants to hear world, to attract men toward a night. Everybody wants to hear wife. Something in Miss Little's holy life, and to show them their Caveny. "Dr. Jenkl and Mr.

one of the best in the lot; most today. All ways of life lie open everybody apparently "saw the before us. Temptations to a wrong choice come to every per-The virtues of J. E. Moore & son in many ways. He cannot Co. were extolled by Miss Mary escape them but he can resist

One of the cosliest exhibits was The fact that God has put a man farm to get it." Only 25c. at Parsons throat and lungs are sound and well. that of Mr. G. A. Martin. He in a position of trust or duty crehad placed a Corbitt buggy on the ates an obligation to fulfill the stage and, standing by this, Miss trust or perform the duty. This Evelyn Melton recited the piece of is a strong reason for asking God poetry inserted by Mr. Martin to aid us in doing our utmost to elsewhere in this paper. Some accomplish the object. God would handsome signs added to this ex- not select us for the work unless hibit, made it very attractive he knew it were possible for us to do it on his strength.

with postcards, advertised the dom for the performance of daily postoffice to perfection. She told duty. Practical request. It is who received most mail and gave wisdom to accomplish the work many reasons why others should which God places upon us that we patronise Uncle Sam's emporium. need and for which we should Choosing is a test of character.

get sick with such a fine physician choose, not money or poverty, but the love of money; not success in gaining pleasure, but what we sible plea for the Bank of Morven, seek first, that tests us as to what saying some excellent things for we really are. What we have and what we do often depends on many things outside of ourselves. Miss Lela Watson advised the What we choose is the work of

The selfish man cannot receive the gifts that God gave to Solomon, and he ought not to receive Templeton for an advocate and what he selfishly asks for himself. Selfishness is of hell, not of heaven, and bears the blossoms and fruits of the place to which it belongs.

> There is a right use of worldly riches, large or small, which comes from faithfulness, good habits, industry, honesty which are among may have wherewith to help

For the heart grows rich in giving, Seeds which mildew in the garner, Scattered fill with gold the plain.'

"Give strength, give thought, give deeds, give pelf, Give, give, be always giving, Who gives not is not living. One of the most artistic produc- The more we give, the more we live.

God has many ways of speaking Crawford was away in Richmond God gives us more than we ask In all our ways we must acknowledge God.

The best choice is a heart to serve God faithfully. God's promises are for those who do his commandments. By this time, people were get- We can receive of God discern-

A GOOD NEWSPAPER.

(Scranton Tribune.)

sight, sound, and smell. The aristocracy of this settlement was the rum-sellers and keepers of gam-

to keep back the crowd of sobbing

Hyde." The Hit of the Season.

bling houses. Children were born here and grew to middle age who A good newspaper tells the news never heard the name of Christ, as faithfully and truthfully as it except in an oath. The commu-can, without fear and without nity numbered about thirty thou- favor, and comments on it with sand souls. A young man belong- the best intelligence it can coming to an Old English family mand.

graduated from Oxford. His A good newspaper is in league classmates were going into politics, with all men and women who or the army, or literature. But think and with all the agencies he happened to pass through this that strive for the happiness of the district and heard the bitter cry people.

from these depths. It rang in his A good newspaper shields no ears, go where he would. He re- wrong that ought to be exposed solved to give up all other work and stops at no truth that ought in the world and help these peo- to be uttered.

ple. They would not listen to an A good newspaper does not lend outsider only one of themselves, itself to make strife between citiso he took a house in their midst zens, neither rages like a demaand lived in it. He preached gogue nor weeps like a charlatan. every day in the streets and was A good newspaper has ideals, regularly stoned, shot at, and believes in progress, and wins its lriven back with curses. Yet he way by courage, plain speaking lived on and worked on until the and fair dealing.

worst ruffian learned to respect A good newspaper assembles him. He stopped street fights, each day as much of the good faced mobs, nursed the victims of things that are done in the world Asiatic cholera, did everything as it find and no more of the foul that fearless love could do. Mr. than it must of news necessity Louder lived in London docks for publish.

twenty-three years. Night schools | A good newspaper has political were opened; industrial schools opinions and may belong to a party and refuges for drunkards, dis- but it cannot be an organ and keep charged prisoners, and fallen wo- the high faith of the best journalmen were established. The peo-lism.

ple learned not only to under- A good newspaper knows no stand him, but to understand his boss, bows to no petty satrap or religion. A church and many office and owes no allegiance but missions were built. A visitor to to that which it believes to be the church said: 'The congrega- true.

his work, the police were obliged if that is its sole aim. A good newspaper takes a cheer-The visions of men have had people who pressed forward to ful view of the world, is kind to Beware of Frequent Colds.

A succession of colds or a protracted catarrh, from which few persons ever wholly recover. Give every cold the A farmer on Rural Route 2, Empire, lain's Cough Remedy? It is highly Ga., W. A. Floyd by name, says: recommended. Mrs. M. White, of But "Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured the two ler, Tenn., says: "Several years ago worst sores I ever saw: one on my hand was bothered with my throat and and one on my leg. It is worth more lungs. Someone told me of Chamberthan its weight in gold. I would not lain's Cough Remedy. I began using be without it if I had to mortgage the it and it relieved me at once. Now my For sale by T. R. Tomlinson.

Santa Claus Is Coming To W. N. JEANS' BIG STORE

But before he arrives,

We Must Sell

A few Ranges, Stoves, Heaters, Grockeryware, and some articles of Hardware to make room for the Christmas Goods. If you are interested in any of the things mentioned above, it will be to the interest of your pocketbook to come here at once.

At Cost

We are simply doing what you would do if you had the goods on hand and wanted the room for Other things.

JEANS

Remember we are Headquarters for Everything in Groceries.