Martin County needs a pair of bloodhounds. We hope the Commissioners will take this under consideration at their next meeting.

The breaking of the jail by the Washington mob last Monday night is deeply regretted by the entire town.

This is the second time that the jail here has been broken open, and a negro taken out and lynched. It will be remembered by many that the negro Hart, who was brought here some 14 years ago from Tarboro, was taken out of jail and carried back to that town and lynched.

We cannot see that there was any cause for lynching in this last case. Had any of the poisoned family died, we might have been able to account for the feeling of revenge, but even in that event, there would not have been any reason for lynching.

Had the law been allowed to take its course, punishment would have been justly meted out to the negro.

This is the season when the dear girls make even the vainest man see that he isn't in it with clothes.

If Gen. Fitzhugh Lee keeps on getting enthusiastic receptions in various places he'll be accused of having aspirations.

If the Cubans insist 20 per cent reciprocity do them no good, Congress may take their word and drop the whole business.

We consider Italy very slow, but 150,000 of its farm laborers are on strike, which is ahead of anything in that line we have had.

Doubtless it was the office-seekers who made the President deem it necessary to take boxing and wrestling instruction from a professional.

The New York jury which gave a pretty girl, on trial for murder, the benefit of every doubt and an acquittal, must have been composed of average men.

With forty-one governors of States helping to push along the change of inauguration day to the latter part of April the idea seems to be reasonably sure of success.

That this is an extensive country is constantly brought to one's attention. In the same paper that told of damages by flood in Maine was news of a semi-famine in Northern Arkansas as a result of a long drought.

WASHINGTON LETTER

(From our regular Correspondent.)

March 24, 1902.

Who would have supposed during the fight between the gold standard and the free coinage of silver, in '96, that within six years a clause of a bill before Congress as an administration measure would provide for the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the mints of the U. S. The clause aforesaid is not yet actually before Congress, but according to those who ought to know, it will be as soon as the Senate committee on the Philippines completes the bill providing a form of government for the islands, as it has already been approved by the administration and by a majority of the committee. The money to be coined under this authority is to consist solely of what is to be known as the American Filipino dollar, similar in weight and size to the Bombay dollar, issued by Great Britain and widely circulated in the Orient, and the Mexican dollar worth at the present price of silver 56 cents. It is figured that this will be good for the Filipinos, because it will give them an unlimited circulation, and good for us because it will utilize our surplus stock of silver. All the same the whole proposition seems staggering at first glance, coming from a gold standard administration.

The River and Harbor bill with its $61,000,000 of appropriations, reached the Senate to-day, having been passed by the House last week. The Senate will doubtless pass the bill, after adding somewhat to its total, but will not be in a hurry to do so, as it makes a useful club to hold over the heads of Representatives, whose districts are largely interested in the appropriations carried by the bill.

Final arrangements are being completed for turning over Cuba to the newly elected government, at a series of White House conferences participated in by the President, President-elect Palma, of Cuba, Gen. Leonard Wood, and Secretary Root. May 1 is the objective date.

The bill providing that all paper money issued by the U. S., except national bank notes, shall be in the form known as the post-check, convertible by the holder into a check to a named payee, which shall be payable at any money order post office, is now in the hands of committee in both House and Senate. The bill has been endorsed by the American Newspaper Publishers Association.

Representative Gaines, of Tenn., has a habit about which there is a difference of opinion. Some say that Mr. Gaines has fallen into the habit because of his deep interest in all public matters and others that he has deliberately started out to make the name of "Mr. Gaines of Tennessee" a familiar one in every Congressional district of the country. Neither opinion may be correct, but the fact remains that as certain as a member of the House makes a speech on some matter of sufficient importance to his constituents to be widely distributed in his district, that speech will contain the name of "Mr. Gaines, of Tennessee" in one or more places when it appears in the Record, owing to his habit of interjecting a good-natured interruption or two. It is a good scheme for free advertising, so long as too many members of the House do not try to work it.

Once more the Mexican Ambassador has issued an official statement that there is not and never has been a lottery in the Mexican State of San Luis Potosi, such as that advertised in this county. It is a clean steal, the ambassador says.

The President can make new friends among men of sturdy common sense, who do not believe in the introduction of such a European custom as a military body guard for our President, by voting the Hoar bill, which the Senate passed by a vote of 52 to 15, if it gets through the House, and those who know the man best will not be surprised if he does it. Military body guards have added nothing to the safety of European rulers and they will add nothing to the safety of our President.

The bill for the repeal of the war taxes enjoys the unique distinction of having gone through both branches of Congress without an adverse vote. The only changes made in the bill by the Senate committee were to correct errors in the language of the bill and to except the tax on "bucket shops" from the repeal. The only word of debate in the Senate came from Senator Tillman, who expressed the opinion that the tax of 10 cents a pound on tea might have been left as an encouragement to the South Carolina growers of tea.

The protest of Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, against the passage of the amended Senate bill defining conspiracy and restricting the issuance of injunctions in labor disputes, which was read to the Senate will be printed as a Senate document.

A Determined Mob.

Force an Entrance to the Jail—Secure Negro Prisoner, and Lynch Him.

On Monday night about 12 o'clock a party of about 30 men came over from Washington to pay Williamston an informal call, bringing with them sledge hammers, coal chisels and the like, with which to accomplish a purpose. And that purpose was to release Jim Boston, from Williamston jail. It will be remembered that Boston was the negro who poisoned Dr. Tayloe and family on Monday Morning of last week and was brought here for safe keeping as it was thought he would be lynched if kept in Washington.

The informal callers, above referred to arrived at Skewarkee church a mile or more from town, about 12 o'clock, at which place most of the teams were hitched, and the occupants proceeded to town on foot. It is presumed that the teams bringing the working tools were hitched somewhere near the depot. Pickets were stationed at various places in town and about half the crowd proceeded to the jail for operation. The operation however, required about an hour of hard slogging. The door to the jail was finally broken in and the prisoner secured.

The crowd left town about a quarter to two o'clock. Two or three of the citizens were held up by the pickets and taken in custody till the work at the jail was completed. Mr. William Anderson, who lives next to the jail, was the first to give the alarm. He ran to the Sheriff's home, not knowing the Sheriff was in Raleigh, and woke Mrs. Crawford who told him of the Sheriff's absence from town. Mr. Anderson then called the town constable, T. J. Latham, but it was too late to even bother the mob, as they passed Mr. Latham's on a "double quick" as he returned to his room to dress.

It was rumored here Tuesday morning that the negro was hanged from a tree in front of Dr. Tayloe's residence, but we take the following from "The Greenview Reflector" which we deem correct.

JIM BOSTON LYNCHED.

News came from Washington today that Jim Boston, the negro who some days ago poisoned the family of Dr. D. T. Tayloe, was early this morning found hanging from a limb about three-quarters of a mile from town. He was dead when found, but how or when he got to the end of the rope is not told. The Coroner of Beaufort county went out to investigate, but the jury was unable to find anything further than is told above. The night after the poisoning of Dr. Tayloe's family, there were threats—or at least some talk—of lynching the negro who had made a confession, and officers spirited him away. It was later learned that the prisoner was taken to Williamston and placed in the jail there. The supposition is that he was taken out of Williamston jail sometime during Monday night and carried back near Washington where the lynching took place. The body was not mutilated at all, the rope around the neck seeming sufficient to carry out their plans.

"Something New Under the Sun."

All Doctors have tried to cure CATARRH by the use of powders, acid gases, inhalers and drugs in paste form. Their powders dry up the mucous membranes causing them to crack open as bleed. The powerful acids used in the inhalers have entirely eaten away the same membranes that their makers have aimed to cure, while pastes and ointments cannot reach the disease. An old and experienced practitioner who has for many years made a close study and specialty of the treatment of CATARRH, has at last perfected a Treatment which when faithfully used, not only relieves at once, but permanently cures CATARRH, by removing the cause, stopping the discharges and curing all inflammation.
