Mrs. Wilson G. Lamb entertained the D. C's last Friday afternoon. Only a few of the members were in attendance. With just a little care and attention the next meeting may be made both profitable and enjoyable. Let every member of the chapter be present at the meeting and come prepared to narrate some incedent showing forth the gallantry and bravery of some Confederate soldier. This will give the older members, possibly an opportunity to relate some personal experience, and will do more than anything else to bring the younger ones in closer touch with our beloved Confederate Veterans.

The Independent Book Club has not held a meeting for some time. That doesn't argue, however; that the members are idle or losing interest by any means. So many things have taken up the time that the Club has courteously postponed its meetings, feeling securely bound Mr. and Mrs. B. T. The residence of Mr. Josh Ewell was the scene of a very novel entertainment last Tuesday evening rant has once again invaded the when the young ladies gave a "Tacky Party" complimentary to notwithstanding the alert and the young men. Costumes quaint, costumes ancient, costumes fearfully and wonderfully made were what each one present arrayed themselves in and when the guests assembled! Well it is safe to say, that not since the days of our greatgreat-grandmother's has such peculiar daintiness (?) been in evidence. A prize was awarded the young lady and gentlemen, who should wear the tackiest cootume, they were won by Miss May Bennett and Mr. Louis Bennett. The delightful refreshments, consisting of stick candy and ginger snaps were served in tin pans by the young ladies and added greatly to the fun of the occasion. Those present were, Misses Mary B. Hatton, Nannie Biggs, Nellie York, Mary nett, and Messrs. Jim Roberson, Grover Hardison, Hugh York, Jno. Pope; Louis Bennett, and Henry Pool.
