The Legislature and the Convicts.

The General Assembly of North Carolina which will convene at Raleigh in January, will consider the ways and means of bettering the State's social, industrial and educational condition. One subject that will occupy the minds of some of its most progressive members will be the disposition of the State's convicts in such manner as will affect our section most beneficially.

The following clipping shows some of the advantages of such a system of convict employment: Short term inmates of the local penitentiary are being employed at breaking stone for road building. One result is that the county is saving 20 cents on each cubic yard of metal.

Unhappily, it has to be recorded that such employment of the convicts is strongly opposed by the labor unions, and their employment on the highways in the actual work of road building has through such influence been prevented.

There is, moreover, the general principle of the desirability of giving the convicts systematic work, and preferably hard work in the open air, such as that at road building. It is desirable to do so for their physical, mental and moral welfare.

What We Waste. We waste what a Yankee community would live upon. We throw away thousands of bushels of vegetables and fruits in their season, and when they are gone buy the canned goods put up by our northern friends who know we must have them.

Out of Death's Jaws. "When death seemed very near from a severe stomach and liver trouble, that I had suffered with for years," writes F. Muse, Durham, N. C., Dr. King's New Life Pills saved my life and gave perfect health.

Detailed Cost of Strike.

To show what great proportion the coal strike has amounted to the following detailed account almost takes one's breath: Tabulated loss to operators, and price of $52,500,000. Loss to strikers in wages, $28,300,000. Loss to employees other than strikers in wages $6,600,000. Loss to railroads in earnings, $12,800,000. Loss to business men outside the regions, $9,300,000. Cost of maintaining non union men $620,000. Cost of troops in the region, $550,000. Damage to mines and machinery, $6,500,000. Total, $135,970,000.

DO GOOD--IT PAYS. A Chicago man has observed that, "good deeds are better than real estate deeds--some of the latter are worthless. Act kindly and gently, show sympathy and lend a helping hand. You cannot possibly lose by it. Most men appreciate a kind word and encouragement more than substantial help. There are persons in this community who might truthfully say: "My good friend, cheer up. A few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will rid you of your cold, and there is no danger whatever from pneumonia when you use that medicine. It always cures. I know it for it has helped me out many a time." Sold by N. S. Peel & Co.

Appreciated Judge Winston

At the meeting of the members of the members of the bar of Vance county, North Carolina, held on Thursday, October 9, 1902, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted: Whereas, during the two weeks term of Vance Superior Court, now about to adjourn, we have noted with great pleasure the genial and dignified bearing the just and impartial rulings the uniform courtesy and kindness to the members of the bar and officers of the court, of His Honor Francis D. Winston, judge presiding; and whereas we desire to express our appreciation of the same. Now therefore, be it Resolved, That in Honorable Francis D. Winston, we recognize an able and learned lawyer, a faithful patient and conscientious judge, a distinguished fellow-citizen and public officer, and a great big-hearted friend.

Resolved further, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to him and also a copy be sent to the Gold Leaf for publication. A. C. ZOLLICOFFER, Ch'r.

America's Famous Remedies.

Look with horror on Skin Eruptions, Blistches, Sores, Pimples. They don't have them, nor will any one, who uses Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It glorifies the face. Eczema or Salt Rheum vanish before it. It cures sore lips, chapped hands, chilblains. Infallible for Piles. 25c at drug store.

Echo of Egotism.

There was one note in the speech of Senator Pritchard, at Raleigh, that grated harshly upon his strongest admirers. It was, when near its close, he boasted that whether in the Senate or out of it he could and would do more for North Carolina than any man who might be chosen to succeed him. It was a piece of egotism that did not add anything to the speech. If true, it would have been in better taste to let some one else make the statement. If not true, it of course ought not to have been uttered.

The Chapel Hill News tells of a speech made there to "fifteen or twenty Republicans and a few Democrats" by a young convert to Radicalism by the name of Norman Johnson. The News thus reports his echo of Pritchard's boast: "Said though if Pritchard should lose his place in the U. S. Senate, he could sit in his law office at Marshall and do more for North Carolina than any two Democrats that would go from this State. Mr. Johnson should by all means get a job with some traveling patent medicine company or get the position of out-side-man of some side-show. He will, no doubt, though get an appointment of some kind for his services in this campaign."

The Figures Talk.

Salisbury, N. C., Oct 23--Speaking of Republican claims that the Dingley tariff has helped the working people of this State, Senator Simmons said: "The Republicans claim that the Dingley tariff has benefitted labor in this State. The report of Mr. Varner, our Commissioner of Labor for the year 1901 does not sustain this contention. This report shows that in fifty-three of the ninety-seven counties of this State the fi-

LOOK OUT FOR FEVER.

Biliousness and liver disorders at this season may be prevented by cleansing the system with DeWitt's Little Early Risers. These famous little pills do not gripe. They move the bowels gently, but copiously, and by reason of the tonic properties, give tone and strength to the glands. S. R. Biggs.

It is Not a Hard Work--So Says a Negro Ex-Postmaster of the Registration Law.

Scotland Neck, N. C., Oct. 22--So few as may be judged from what they are saying about it, the masses of the negroes here do not care a fig about registering. Only a few have registered, and perhaps most of them do not even try. Your correspondent interrogated an ex-postmaster, a colored man who held office under McKinley, and he said he found no trouble in registering, and that the registrar treated him pleasantly, and did not seem to have any disposition to stickle on technicalities. Being asked if he thought it a hard law, he said he did not, but believed that if such a law had been passed twenty-five years ago it would have been much better for the negroes.

Gov. Boies Silences Them.

Whenever the Democrats advocate a repeal of the tariff duties on articles controlled by trusts, which are sold cheaper abroad than in America, the Republicans declare that there is no connection between the tariff and trusts. To prove their statement they declare: "There are trusts in free trade England" and act as if that statement proved their assertion. Ex-Governor Horace Boies, the Democratic candidate for Congress in the district now represented by Speaker Henderson, has made an effectual reply to Republicans in Ohio who are making such assertions as the one stated above. Gov. Boies makes this offer to his opponents: "If you can establish by competent testimony that there is one trust or combination of any kind in any free trade country that manufactures articles of necessity and makes a business of exporting them to other countries and selling them to markets foreign to their own at prices substantially below those for which they sell the same articles in their home markets; as our trusts are doing every day, I will pay every dollar of the expense of obtaining such evidence and withdraw from the field."

It is needless to say that this challenge has not been accepted. In making it Governor Boies has given in a few sentences the strongest argument for tariff reduction of this year of able tariff speeches.--News and Observer.
