FRIDAY, APRIL 15, 1904.

Complaints are still coming in about the way mail is being handled in this county, especially at this office and Jamesville. The Rural Route patrons are kicking, and justly so, from their statements. This way of handling public business is a shame and disgrace to the community. The feeling is growing very strong, and it will only be a very short while, if these matters are not remedied, when these complaints will not stop at this office, but will be forwarded to the proper place for adjustment.

It has been our aim to keep from doing this; we have warned the postmasters, and this is our last warning.

The complaints that reach us after this will be forwarded to the post office department.

Of the candidates for the nomination of Lieut. Governor, ex Judge Francis D. Winston, will evidently get Martin county's votes. He's our choice.

BOURKE COCKRAN'S SPEECH.

The speech Bourke Cockran made in the House Saturday, pleading for the preservation of the constitutional rights of the legislative department of government, and protesting in vigorous English against executive usurpation, was one of the greatest speeches of this decade. It was based upon principle, the preservation of which is essential to safe and constitutional government, and it was delivered with the eloquence of a Burke: The packed hall gave inspiration to the orator.—The theme fired the heart of the native son of Ireland. The arraignment of the usurpation startled and impressed every lover of liberty who heard the speech. It ought to be widely read, for it was a powerful indictment of steady and illegal usurpation that characterizes the present executive. Here are six of the characteristic epigrams with which the speech abounds:

"It is my desire simply to vindicate the dignity of the House I arise, not as a partisan, but as a member of the House."

"I want to see generous provisions made for the old soldiers in declining years, but I want to see it done by Congress and not by any self-constituted authority."

"We are the parting of the ways. If this order is tolerated, what is there that is beyond the power of an executive officer?"

"Ours is the right to make war, but the executive gives us the power to declare war when he chooses."

"In this order we have the taking of property not by appropriation, but by interpretation."

"England and Cromwell found it necessary to disperse the house of commons by force, but we are shunk so low that soon we will not even merit the trouble of removal. Shall we be a great, growing, and dominant force, or shall we sink still lower and lower?"—News & Observer.

SHE IS MRS. IRWIN AVERY.

The Court Grants Miss Johnson's Request to Bear the Name of Her Dead Betrothed.

Morganton, N. C., April 11.—Miss Nancy Forney Johnson, the fiancée of the late Irwin Avery, filed a petition, on the assembling of court on Monday morning, before His Honor, Judge Shaw, for leave to change her name under Section 3302 of the Code so that she might assume the name of Mrs. Irwin Avery, a name which she had hoped to assume on the 28th of the month and both looked forward to it with so much happiness and joy. His Honor granted the petition.

Nothing Equal to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for Bowel Complaints in Children

"We have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in our family for years," says Mrs. J. B. Cooke, of Netherlands, Texas. "We have given it to all of our children. We have used other medicines for the same purpose, but never found anything to equal Chamberlain's. If you use it as directed it will always cure." For sale by S. R. Biggs.

DIED FOR LITTLE BROTHER.

Girl Falls Beneath Wheels of Log Train. Boy May Die.

Washington, N. C., April 11.—At Wharton's, about five miles from here the Greenleaf-Johnson Company's train was backing in while two children of Jesse Beacham, an eleven year-old girl and a two-year-old boy, were playing near the track. As the train neared them the little boy fell on the track, and his sister in an effort to rescue him slipped and fell close beside him. The car wheels crushed her to death, her skull was smashed to a jelly and different pieces of her body so mangled she was almost unrecognizable. The boy had his arm and head badly mashed and may die.

A Thoughtful Man

M. M. Austin, of Winchester, Ind., knew what to do in the hour of need. His wife had such an unusual case of stomach and liver trouble, physicians could not help her. He thought of and tried Dr. King's New Life Pills and she got relief at once and was finally cured. Only 25c. at S. R. Biggs and all druggists.

Mayor and Aldermen Enjoined.

Greenville, N. C., April 11.—Restraining orders have been served on the mayor and aldermen here requiring the defendants to appear before Judge M. H. Justice at Wilmington, on Wednesday, the 20th day of April, 1904, and show cause why they should not be enjoined from establishing or attempting to establish a dispensary in this place.

Among questions raised in the complaint was this: That the town has not a legal board of aldermen. Another was that the dispensary election was held under the wrong law. Yet another was whether the aldermen, in case the matter is not settled by the first of July, can issue any licenses then for liquor to be retailed in the town.

A Great Sensation

There was a big sensation in Leesville, Ind., when W. H. Brown of that place, was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He writes: "I endured insufferable agonies from Asthma, but your New Discovery gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure." Similar cases of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis and Grip are numerous. It's the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c. and $1.00. Guaranteed by S. R. Biggs and all druggists. Trial bottles free.

—If you have a dollar that belongs to THE ENTERPRISE, remember the fellow we owe is hot after us and says he needs it badly. THE ART OF ADVERTISING

A Merchant is Judged by the Advertising He Does

It has been said with much truth that publicity is the main artery of legitimate trade, and yet it is an astonishing fact that a majority of intelligent business men are mere tyros in the art of promoting publicity. They are shrewd buyers and skillful sellers and good managers, and apparently have all the attributes of successful business men, but somehow or other success evades them in the most inexplicable manner.

It cannot be said that they are narrow in their views, or parsimonious in their methods, or that they have neglected means of publicity, for as a matter of truth they have advertised, and advertised lavishly, but principally with schemes and catch-penny affairs which gave them notoriety with a certain class not desirable as customers, but which did not appeal to another and better class highly desirable as customers. A merchant is as surely judged by the kind of advertising he does, and by the medium he employs, as the individual is judged by the company he keeps. Note the fact, and it will be found invariably true that the merchant who relies on fashish schemes and cheap and common mediums for advertising will pursue the same methods in buying a stock of goods. It is the man's instinct, and he can't divest himself of it. THE HIGHEST AND BEST MEDIUM OF ADVERTISING IS THE LOCAL NEWS-PAPER. IN HELPING THAT YOU NOT ONLY HELP YOURSELF BUT ALSO HELP YOUR COMMUNITY, WHICH AGAIN HELPS YOU.—Newport News Press.
