

LOCAL NEWS

—This is the coldest spell we have had this winter.

—The new Methodist preacher is preaching some good sermons. Services Sunday morning and night.

A Comedy Drama entitled "Fruits of His Folly," will be presented at the Opera House next Friday night, February 3rd, by local talent.

—Any one desiring to purchase a gasoline engine will do well to call or write to A. E. Whitmore, Williamston, N. C. who will make low figure on the best gasoline engine on the market, "the Fairbanks."

—Mrs. J. M. Sitterton is an expert grower of lemons. There was one on exhibition at the post office this week that weighed two and one quarter pounds and this was the smallest on the bush.

Constipation and piles are twins. They kill people inch by inch, sap life away every day. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will positively cure you. No cure no pay. 35 cents. Tea or Tablets. J. M. Wheelless & Co., Robersonville.

—A surprise marriage took place at Mr. A. J. Adams last Sunday night when Mr. Fred Mansse led to the altar Miss Addie Garrett. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. D. Carroll of the Baptist Church.

—Mr. J. R. Leggett, R. F. D. no. 1., Jamesville was in town Monday and brought to this office two of the largest turnips we have ever seen. The largest measured 4 1/4 in., in circumference and weighed 3 1/2 lbs. These turnips are in this office for any one to see. I'll brave the storms of Chilkoot pass, I'll cross the plains of frozen glass, I'll leave my wife and cross the sea rather than be without Rocky Mountain Tea. J. M. Wheelless & Co. Robersonville.

A Comedy Drama entitled "Fruits of His Folly," will be presented at the Opera House next Friday night, February 3rd, by local talent.

—Rev. E. J. Edwards, formerly pastor of the Baptist church here but now with the Biblical Recorder at Raleigh, was in town Wednesday shaking hands with old friends. Mr. Edwards was the founder of the East Carolina News a newspaper published here some years ago. Mr. Edwards left yesterday morning.

In a wreck which occurred Tuesday on the Asheboro and Aberdeen railroad, Rev. G. A. Ogleby pastor of the Methodist Church at Aberdeen, was killed and several passengers injured. Two cars fell down an embankment and were demolished. Rev. Mr. Ogleby was at one time presiding elder of this district.

—Your attention is respectfully called to the announcement in this issue of our 1905 clubbing offer. These subscriptions are going rapidly and if you want a subscription to the Southern Agriculturist FREE you had better subscribe TO-DAY. Don't put it off because we have only a limited number of subscriptions to give away. Read also the Atlanta Constitution club offer: THE CONSTITUTION, THE SUNNY SOUTH and THE ENTERPRISE all one year for only $2.00.

Last Saturday night Miss Irma Woodhouse entertained quite a number of little friends. Those present were: Misses Ruth and Rose Crowell, of Lexington N. C. Miss Mittie Walker, of Greenville, Miss. Louise Banta, Mary Sylvia and Nina Robertson, Samuels-Upton, Miss Fannie Biggs, Martin, Miss Myrtle Fryar, Miss Carrie Delle White, Miss Viver Godard, Masters Maurice Watts, Oscar and Roy Anderson, James Frederick Upton, Jr. All reported a very nice time.

Is it right?

Is it right that a property owner should lose $4.30 to let a dealer make 50 cents? A dealer makes 50 cents more on fourteen gallons of ready-for-use paint, at $1.50 per gallon, than our agent does on eight gallons of L. & M. paint and six gallons of linseed oil, which makes fourteen gallons of the best paint in the world, at $1.30 per gallon; the property loses just $4.30. Is it right?

It only requires 4 gallons of L. & M. and 3 gallons linseed oil to paint a moderate sized house. Ten Thousand Churches painted with Longmans & Martin's L. & M. Paint. Liberal quantity given to churches when bought from S. R. Biggs.

Hints to Clerks

The value of time. Lost capital may be restored, by diligent use of experience, time lost is lost forever.

The success of perseverance. "Keeping everlastingly at it" brings the hoped-for result.

The pleasure of working. The only really unhappy, rich or poor, are the idle.

The dignity of simplicity. When the "frills" are off the man is "on."

The worth of character. In the last analysis the only real value is a clear conscience.

The power of kindness. It wins when all coercive measures fail.

The influence of example. Practice does more than precept, in showing the way.

The obligation of duty. Your concern should not so much be what you get as what you do for what you get.

The wisdom of economy. The man who saves makes more than he saves.

The virtue of patience. "All things come to him who waits."

The improvement of talent. Talent is the only capital which compounds itself by exercise.

The joy of originating. The happiest man is he who does the best thing first. The creative instinct should be encouraged for the pure joy found in its demonstrations. The subsequent financial reward brings no such pleasure as that first sense of having made a new thing or conceived a new idea.—Merchants Journal.

Souled, Not Beauty

Harriet Howard, of 209 W. 34th St. New York, at one time had her beauty spoiled with skin trouble. She writes: "I had Salt Rheum or Eczema for years, but nothing would cure it, until I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve." A quick and sure healer for cuts, burns and sores. 25c at S. R. Biggs, drug store.

Why She Missed It.—Mrs. Hatterton—I didn't see you at the lecture on the "Simple Life." Mrs. Catterson—Why, no, I had no idea it was going to be such a swell affair.—Brooklyn Life.

"Really, Mr. Hansom," said the fair girl, "I'm shocked to hear you confess such behavior in your business dealings. You should always 'do unto others as you would have others do unto you.'" "You wouldn't have me do that always?" "Certainly," she replied; "always." "All right. Here goes!" he cried, and kissed her.—Philadelphia Press.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY. Take LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25 cents. 11-4 1/2 Y.

Merchants Tax

Yesterday's News and Observer contained the following:

The sub-finance committee of the Senate and House met yesterday afternoon and unanimously voted to repeal the merchants tax. The merchants of North Carolina are greatly interested in this action of the sub-committee.

Senator J. A. Long, chairman of committee, said of this measure that it was placed upon the mercantile interest of the State to pay certain indebtedness and should have been repealed before.

The sub-committee is composed of Senators Long, of Persons, Chairman, Odell, of Caharrus, and Everett, of Richmond, and Representatives Wood, of Randolph; Stronach of Wake; Coffield, of Martin, and Davis, of Burke.

Grocery in Demand

Nothing is more in demand than a medicine which meets modern requirements for a blood and system cleanser, such as Dr. King's New Life Pills. They are just what you need to cure stomach and liver troubles. Try them. At S. R. Biggs, drug store, 25c., guaranteed.

In a private burying ground in Western Massachusetts is this epitaph according to "What-to-eat," Henry James Walters, beloved son of William and Janet Walters, Born March 1, 1851. Departed this life June 5, 1864, of fits, to which he was subject every time he ate much. "And now, after life's fitful fever, he sleeps well."

PERSONALS

Tonic to the System

For liver troubles and constipation there is nothing better than DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little Pills. They do not weaken the stomach. Their action upon the system is mild, pleasant and harmless. Bob Moore, of LaFayette, Ind., says, "No use talking, DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work. All other pills I have used gripe and make me sick in the stomach and never cured me. DeWitt's Little Early Risers proved to be the long sought relief. They are simply perfect." Persons traveling find Little Early Risers the most reliable remedy to carry with them. Sold by Anderson, Crawford & Co.

There were four of them in the smoking-compartment of the car when the traveler from Chicago happened to say:

"That reminds me of a man out in my town who is so mean that he makes the members of his house write small hands, in order to save ink."

"A friend of my father's, sub. wuz ven was than that," came promptly from the Baltimorean. "He stopped the clocks at night, sub, because of the wear and tear on the works."

Then the Philadelphian: "Well, there's a good old Quaker out in Wayne who won't read the papers. Wears out his glasses, says he. All three looked inquiringly at the man from New York, but merely smiled and rang for the waiter to take the orders.—February Smart Set.

WANTED—A first-class barber at once. Apply to J. H. HYMAN, Williamston, N. C.

The Boss—How did my wife ever come to pick out a nurse girl as pretty as you are? The nurse—I suppose she wanted to be sure that the children had police protection when they are on the street.—Chicago Journal.

WANTED 10 men in each state to travel, tag signs and distribute samples and circulars of our goods. Salary $75.00 per month. $3.00 per day for expenses. KUHLMAN Co. Dept. S. Atlas Building, Chicago, 15-81.

The poor man has one happy thought As he eats bread and water— As long as he is poor no duke Will ever wed his daughter. —Detroit Tribune.

$2 COMBINATION OFFER

The Weekly Constitution, The Sunny South and The Enterprise, all Three One Year for Only Two Dollars

We present elsewhere the announcement of the Weekly Constitution and Sunny South. We have made special arrangement with these two great papers by which we can offer our readers a clubbing combination with our paper for only $2.00 a year for all three.

This places within reach of every reader a trio of papers, covering the reading demands of every household that we reach.

The Weekly Constitution with its facilities for gathering news and interesting features will present each week a splendid general newspaper and summary of the world's events.

The Sunny South will give weekly, continued stories from the best writers, short stories, sketches of travel, adventures and readable incidents that will interest every member of the household. The Sunny South is devoted to literature, romance, fact and fiction and gives the best in each wide field it covers. This bright paper is welcomed in over 60,000 homes to-day and it deserves popularity by its general excellence.

Our paper will for 1905 give the best local and county features. The county news from different correspondents, the improvements that are present and in prospect, meetings and movements of more than ordinary interest and all events that touch upon home matters will be faithfully chronicled.

By this combination offer, only $2.00 a year, you will receive the South's greatest general newspaper, the South's popular literary weekly and your own home paper. The remarkable price is your opportunity to make your investment for the year 1905 periodicals for your home at once. Please send your orders, accompanied by the full amount, directly to this office and your subscription to the Constitution and Sunny South will be promptly forwarded.

THE ENTERPRISE, Williamston, N. C.

IN SHAKERTOWN

In Shakertown the people all shook late and early, large and small. Some blamed their ills on their religion; Some cursed the age of the region. Though on the cause they didn't agree— They shook with unanimity. A traveler, as he passed that way, With pity deep, to them did say: "Oh, why in this sad state remain, When here's a cure for every pain?" Then gave each one—this is no myth— A bottle labeled "Wintersmith." Was cured completely then and there; And no more shake these shivering Shakers; They've grown as quiet as queer-clad Quakers; Each loves the other with love platonic And all praise Wintersmith's great tonic.

A GUARANTEED CURE FOR PILES

Itching, Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles. Druggists refund money if PAZO OINTMENT fails to cure any case, no matter of how long standing, in 6 to 14 days. FREE TO SUBSCRIBERS

OUR GREAT 1905 OFFER

We have purchased a number of annual subscriptions to the SOUTHERN AGRICULTURIST, and, as long as they last, we will give one free of charge to every subscriber who pays for THE ENTERPRISE a full year in advance. If you are in arrears pay up now and get this valuable present. If you are not already a subscriber send in your order at once, before this great offer is withdrawn.

Southern Agriculturist

is published at Nashville, Tenn. It is issued 24 times a year and the subscription price is only 50 cents. It contains more reading matter than most dollar papers and is edited by Southern men who know the needs of Southern farmers. Every issue is like a big experience meeting, the farmers' questions being answered by such men as Maj. Thomas J. Key, formerly Assistant Commissioner of Agriculture of Alabama, and Prof. A. M. Soule, Director of the Virginia Experiment Station. The Home Department is conducted by Aunt Anne, whom all readers soon learn to love.

WE OFFER $1.50 IN VALUE FOR $1.00

But you must hurry. This proposition will not be held open indefinitely.
