Letter to N S Peel

Williamston, N. C.

Dear Sir: Thomas J. Bannon, druggist, Westerly, R. I. says: Westerly painters, expect a gallon of paint to cover 19 sets of blinds; Devoe covers 25; there is no such thing as rubbing this out.

(The usual reckoning is for a gallon to cover 16. We suspect the Westerly people don't wear their paint till it gets very shabby.)

Devoe covers more; of course, we know that; we know why too; it's all paint and full-measure.

Yours truly, F. W. DEVOE & Co.

Mayor's Court

Suit was brought by Anderson, Crawford & Co., vs. Southern Exs press Co. for $25 damages for good-lost. S. J. Everett representing plaintiffs. The defendants asked for continuance till next Tuesday to have time for securing affidavits of delivery of goods.

Justice's Court

BEFORE J. L. EWELL

Bill Tyner was indicted for assault on Sol Ruffin with a gun. S. A. Newell appearing for defendant and B. A. Critcher for State.

Probable cause being found defendant was bound over to Superior Court under a $50 bond.

Is it right?

Is it right that a property owner should lose $4.20 to let a dealer make 50 cents? A dealer makes 50 cents more on fourteen gallons of ready-for-use paint, at $1.50 per gallon, than our agent does on eight gallons of L. & M. paint and six gallons of linseed oil, which makes fourteen gallons of the best paint in the world, at $1.20 per gallon; the property loses just $4.20. Is it right?

It only requires 4 gallons of L. & M. and 3 gallons linseed oil to paint a moderate sized house.

Ten Thousand Churches painted with Longman & Martinez L. & M. Paint. Liberal quantity given to churches when bought from S. R. Biggs.

Accidently Shot

Will Wilson, colored living a few miles from town accidently shot his wife, Sunday morning. The wound is very large but not serious. He was standing to the side of his wife when the gun was discharged the loud scraping the skull from right to left. The variation of direction of one half inch either way would have meant death or no wound. The wound was dressed by Dr. Knight.

NOTES FROM PROF. WILLIAMS

About the Progressive Farmers, a Valuable Free Book For Stockmen, and Alfalfa Growing

The best thing in the papers this week is the announcement that Editor Poe declines the offer to the editorship of the New York magazine and will remain in charge of The Progressive Farmer. It is my conviction that no place in the world to-day is so inviting to a young man of constructive mental power as the South. Great things are to be done here in the present generation. We have come into our constructive period. And the South intends to deal well with those of her sons who over her and know how to serve her. I believe The Progressive Farmer has a splendid family circle. They are wide awake and keen to go forward. They will support you, Mr. Editor.

If I may pass from this pleasing fact to stockraising, I should like to say that if you wish a valuable book, write to your Congressman and ask for a copy of the Twentieth Annual Report of the Bureau of Animal Industry. This report contains an article of one hundred pages on the management and feeding of pigs. You will get valuable information from it. And if your Congressman is as good a one as mine, he will be glad to send it to you.

Another thing I have learned is how to get a good field of alfalfa. Try this plan, if you are interested. Select a half acre near your feed-place, it must be well drained and good land. Give it as much stable manure as you can spare this spring. It is a little place, so plow it deep and harrow it fine. Then sow cow peas on it. Then in September if the cow peas are not too rank, plow them under, running a cutaway harrow over them first. Then make a solid, fine seed bed and sow 10 pounds best alfalfa seed. In May this plot should be ready for mowing. And you can cut it every thirty days. Whenever you can spare a load of stable manure spread it on the alfalfa.

We predict a good entertainment and bespeak a good attendance. These plays always require effort and more time than the unacquainted imagine. We are always curious to see what each other can do, and we always surprise ourselves in what we do.

The Union at Scotland Neck

Rev. R. D. Carroll attended the Union of the Unions of the Tar River Association held in Scotland Neck last week, beginning with Thursday night. Mr. Carroll was one of the few who preached. Preaching one of the three scheduled sermons on Saturday night, he preached in the Methodist church on Sunday morning.

The Union was an interesting and pleasant gathering of Eastern North Carolina Baptists, and it was royally entertained by the hospitable Scotland Neck people.

Cutting Scrape

As the result of a drunken brawl at Parmele Friday night two negroes became involved in a fight. We have not been able to learn the facts further than that one had his throat cut and is at the point of death. The assailant thus far has made his escape.

Fraud Exposed

A few counterfeiters have lately been making and trying to sell imitations of Dr. Kings New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, and other medicines, thereby defrauding the public.

This is to warn you to beware of such people, who seek to profit, through stealing the reputation of remedies which have been successfully curing disease, for over 35 years. A sure protection, to you, is our name on the wrapper. Look for it, on all Dr. King's, or Bucklen's remedies, as all others are mere imitations. H. E. BUCKLEN & CO., Chicago, Ill., and Windsor, Canada. S. R. Biggs.

February German

The dancers tripped their fantastic step for February on Wednesday. It was an ideal occasion, in weather music and crowd. There were fourteen couples. Several original figures were introduced by Messrs. Harry Biggs and C. B. Hassell, chaperones were Mesdames, Terry, Peele and Fowles. The German was danced this early in the month on account of the presence of Miss Alice House, of New York, the guest of Misses Mayo and Eliza Lamb. Miss House is making her first visit to South and our town feels honored in the privilege of acquainting her with Southern localisms and introducing her into Southern society. The dance was greatly enjoyed by every one present and especially by Miss House. She is delighted with Southern people and Southern dances. Miss House will be in town until next Wednesday.

Miss Ruth Clark of Plymouth was present. After the dance and mid night hour parties were given at the following houses. Misses Mayo and Eliza Lamb. Miss Victoria Martin.
