Markel, who obtained the con-tract to feed the workmen on the Pan-ama Canal, began the business of feed-ing people nearly fity years ago, when, as a boy, he took a contract to feed workmen on a big flatboat be-tween St. Louis and New Orleans, on the Mississippi river. He was raised on a farm near Mark Twain's place, in eastern Missouri, and after his experi-ence on the flatboat he settled down in St. Louis to become a baker. Next he drifted to the west, and in 1872 began operating eating houses authorities. ance drinks

Next he drifted to the west, and in 1872 began operating eating houses along the Uniou Pacific, with which road he continued for thirty years. His great experience in feeding crowds placed him in a positon to bid intelligently for the Panama contract. Regarding the contract and his plans, Mr. Markel says: "The contract runs for five years. I was first invited to go to the isthmus by Mr. Wallace, and I was studying the conditions when he left. I kept watch of things and confinued my in-vestigations until I found out just what was wanted. I spent a whole month down there, and when I finished I knew what was necessary and knew Iced Drinks. The remarkable wave of temperance which is at present spreading all over the country is said to be due in the first place to economic conditions, and, secondly, to the great change in public taste, says London Express. "One of the chief reasons of the de-crease in the national drink bill," said John T. Rae, scretary of the National Temperance League, "Is the striking condemnation of the use of alcohol by some of the most influential medical authorities.
