Stockholder's Meeting.

The stockholders of the Farmers and Merchants Bank met Thursday, March 8th, and decided without a dissenting vote, to have the new bank building up the street or beside the office of the Dennis Simmons Lumber Co. Take Care.

We herewith notify all persons who carry or intend to carry any kind of strong drink from here to Jamesville, or further, in tin cans or new kerosene oil pots that they are doing something that is very injurious to health, that is if they take the contents of the pots internally, for the whiskey eats the tin and when one is ready to use it internally he has tincture of tin instead of pure whiskey. But if they only apply the whiskey locally, then we do not suppose it will hurt.

Death of Haywood Roberson.

Last Saturday night Haywood Roberson was taken with a congestive child at Pinner's Point, where he was in the employ of the Coast Line, and died in a few hours in the throes of this terrible malady. Haywood was about seventeen years old and had just become an apprentice in the repair shops at Pinner's Point, having left here about the middle of January.

We trust his spirit is in safe hands. It is an almost unthinkable thought—why did he live? But this is not a question for us; we bow in submission and say, "Thy will be done."

Buy Wood at a Wood Yard.

Don't pay 8 cents per pound for wood. If you buy 100 pounds of White Lead in kegs you get 88 pounds of White Lead and 12 pounds of wood. When you buy L. & M. Paint you get a full gallon of paint that won't wear off for 10 or 15 years, because L. & M. Zinc hardens the L. & M. White Lead and makes L. & M. paint wear like iron.

4 gallons L. & M. mixed with 3 gallons Linseed Oil will paint a moderate sized house.

L. & M. costs only $1.20 per gallon.

Sold in the north, east, south and west.

C. S. Andrews, Ex-Mayor, Danbury, Conn., writes, "Painted my house 19 years ago with L. & M. Looks well to-day."

Sold by S. R. Biggs, Williamston, North Carolina.

Death of John Hatton.

After lingering a few weeks with great suffering and an uneasy pillow from the accident that mangled his body in several places, John Hatton breathed his last, Tuesday night in the Washington Hospital.

John was about eighteen years old. That such a young life like his should not be spared we cannot explain, but "in the midst of life we are in death" is an indisputable fact, an axiom of all life.

We extend our profoundest sympathy to the relatives of Haywood and John, these young men, that were cut down in the very prime of manhood.

Death of Mr. Tom Harrell.

After being confined to his bed for twenty six years with rheumatism Mr. Tom Harrell died Tuesday morning at about 10 o'clock of asthenia. His name has been a synonym of suffering for many long years, yet sunshiny has been his nature for these many years.

He was born on March 16, 1830, and was therefore nearing his fifty-sixth birthday.

He had the most powerful reproductive memory of any man in the community, and was always an interesting conversationalist.

Mr. Harrell will be missed especially by those who ministered unto him and who never allowed him to suffer. He has seen the robust and brawny, spring up and pass away; generations have lived and perished while he has lain a-bed and suffered like a Job—even worse. Long ago he realized that the rest of his days would be spent in inactive suffering, but not a murmur did he utter against his lot.

No more beautiful illustration of patience and submission has ever been incorporated in the soul of an individual than this one of Mr. Harrell. He did not clamor his troubles to all those who went to see him regularly. The "self" with him was a secondary matter. He suffered less than many a man in this community—if you judge by self parade of troubles. By suffering less he lived longer than the average individual would live under similar circumstances. The essence of sunshine he possessed, and it is no doubt the drug that prolonged his life.

We trust he is better off, in the fields of pleasure, free from all physical pain, at rest.

The Conn'y Teachers Association.

On Saturday, Feb. 17, the teachers of Martin county met in Williamston to discuss the needs of public schools. The president of the Association, Mr. Everett, called the meeting to order and minutes of the previous session were read, followed by the program, prepared for the occasion. The little folks who were to recite for Miss Hodges, came punctually and she was requested to illustrate her method of teaching primary work. This she did in a manner which evinced her superior work. Before dismissing the pupils Mr. Everett, in a few well chosen words thanked both teacher and children. "Need of Thorough Organization," being next on the program, Mr. S. T. Liles had given mature thought to the subject and his ideas were excellent.

Miss Charlie Woolard gave "Some Practical Points on Getting Full Attendance the First Day."

She approves of the visiting the patrons, using every means of persuasion to get the children out. In connection with this subject we may mention "The Difficulty of Keeping up Attendance," which was discussed by Mr. S. D. Burroughs in an interesting talk.

This is a problem which confronts every teacher, especially those in rural districts.

"The Effect That Improvement of School Property Will Have on Attendance" must not be overlooked. Mr. Hudson, being unable to attend, a letter from him was read in which he fully describes the condition of many school houses and the grounds surrounding them.

He presents contrasting pictures which are not impossible.

"How Best to Get The Co-operation of Patrons," was next taken up, by Miss Annie Ballard and Mr. J. E. Manning. Both recognize this as a matter of vital importance in the education of the youth of our state, and one not to be lightly overlooked.

"How and When to Promote Pupils," was next in order. Miss Frances Hoarde made an excellent talk on this phase of school work.

Miss Garrett gave the program that she has used for a number of years also her reasons for the arrangement of certain studies which was at once proof of her sympathy with the pupils under her charge.

The convention adjourned after many expressions of pleasure and benefit derived, from the excellent discussions.

The next session will convene at Williamston on March 17, and it is hoped that all the teachers will attend. The program for next month is an interesting one as follows:

I "How to Teach Reading," by Miss Lela Brown. General discussion.

II "Spelling Class," by Mrs. S. T. Liles.

III "How to Secure and Hold Attention," by J. E. Manning. General discussion opened by Mr. Alex. Corey.

IV "Lesson in Fractions," in which the teachers are pupils by Mr. J. D. Everett. General discussion.

V "How to Correlate History and Geography," by Mr. Chas. M. Peele. Discussion opened by Mr. S. D. Burroughs.

VI "Report from Committee on Library Fund."

HATTIE BURRASS, Secretary.

The Shooting in Griffins.

About noon Tuesday a negro, Allen Peel, shot in the shoulder Mr. C. C. Coletrain, Jr. and hurt him very badly but it is believed not seriously.

Mr. Coletrain told the negro to go to his (Coletrain's) house and get something to eat and stop quarreling. Upon saying this the white man turned his back and walked off. The negro raised his gun to his shoulder saying, "you are the man what conjured me," pulled the trigger and the load took effect in Coletrain's shoulder.

The negro took to the woods and has not been found yet. Almost everybody in the township offered to assist the sheriff but with all their search he has not yet been found. Mr. Coletrain is getting on pretty well.

Plague Spots in the Blood.

A Remedy Found to Cleanse the Entire System.

Half of the diseases from which mankind suffers are caused by impure blood. That headache, those pains in the joints and muscles, that tired feeling are all caused by poisons in the blood. The reason Rheumatism, Sciatica and Gout cannot be cured by rubbing with liniments and oils is that the disease originates in the blood, and an internal disease cannot be cured by an external remedy.

RHEUMACIDE is the most powerful blood purifier in the world. RHEUMACIDE goes right to the seat of the disease sweeping all the poisons out of the blood, toning up the stomach, regulating the liver and kidneys, and restoring each organ of the body to its normal functions. That is the reason it cures to stay cured.

RHEUMACIDE cures Rheumatism and kindred diseases after all other means fail, because it "gets at the joints from the inside."

I gladly testify that RHEUMACIDE completely cured me of a severe case of Rheumatism," writes James Kenealy, of 1200 Frederick avenue, Baltimore. "About four months ago I was taken with the disease in my lower limbs, which spread throughout the body. My back troubled me greatly. I suffered acutely, could go up and down stairs only with the greatest difficulty. I received treatment at the Johns Hopkins Hospital this city, for nearly three months, but was not benefited. Your medicine was recommended to me, and after taking two bottles the disease left me, and I have been perfectly well ever since. I also found that RHEUMACIDE was a great benefit to my digestion. I trust that others will try it and be cured also."
