SEVEN YEARS OLD

The Enterprise enters upon the eighth year of its existence with this issue. It was inaugurated September 27th, 1899. During this stretch of a period of seven years, it has seldom failed to appear on time. Its editorials have been contributed and its news items have been gathered and arranged by different persons. Each one giving to his particular work the color of his own individuality. But the paper has always stood for the intellectual, social and material advancement of its subscribers.

It has not been unkind of the religious sentiments of our people; but has always welcomed and published any news to aid any denomination in its great work.

We feel that we can truthfully assert that the paper has had something to do directly, or indirectly, with every enterprise that has been started in the county. If some one of its editors did not suggest it, some one of its subscribers did, by writing to it a local, or an article. When the paper was started in the county, and located in Williamston, this town was comparatively small. Since that time the population has more than doubled. And in the main the new comers have been most energetic and desirable citizens. But we must not overlook the fact that the old residents were men of solidity of character and the women possessed of the charm of refinement. With such a beginning, it could be easily foreseen what splendid opportunities awaited The Enterprise. And whilst we do not claim infallibility for the paper, yet under all circumstances, it has served the public and accomplished its mission right well. Main street has undergone a remarkable business transformation since seven years ago. But the paper now has the brightest prospect that its friends have ever seen for it.

With an increased circulation and more business men speaking weekly through its columns to the public of their bargains, and with the most competent help that we can secure, The Enterprise enters this week upon a larger mission of usefulness.

THE WEEKLY TAR HEEL.

The Weekly Tar Heel seems to have the spirit of enterprise. In its last issue it contained the following statement: "Seven copies of The Tar Heel till after the election for $1.00, or fifteen copies for $2.00. Have the paper sent to your Democratic friends, it may induce them to vote the Republican ticket. If our contemporary is really interested in the triumph of the Republican party, it occurs to us that it is charging full price and a little more for a reasonable service to that party. If it believes in the righteousness of the principals that it appears to represent, why should it not be willing to do a little missionary work? But instead, it seems to want to form a corner on the time and seeks for spoils in the excitement of veranxious politicians. We fear that its effort to convert Democrats will prove futile. However, we are willing that the experiment shall be tried. Let us know the result.

Many kind words of appreciation have been spoken of the last issue of The Enterprise; all of which makes us feel like redoubling our efforts in the interest of our subscribers.

In our paper last week there was a great deal of original matter. We are trying to keep abreast of the times. The reading public possibly more than ever appreciates a statement of facts before it gets cold.

Danger From the Plague.

There's grave danger from the plague of Coughs and Colds that are so prevalent unless you take Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Mrs. Geo. Walls, of Forest City, Me., writes: "It's a Godsend to people living in climates where coughs and colds prevail. I find it quick ends them. It prevents Pneumonia, cures Lagrippe, gives wonderful relief in Asthma and Hay Fever, and makes weak lungs strong enough to ward off Consumption, Coughs and Colds. 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by S. R. Bigg's drug store. Trial bottle free."

To the Cotton Growers.

President C. C. Moore, of the N. C. Division of the Southern Cotton Association requests that ten delegates shall be appointed from each cotton growing county at their county meetings Oct. 6, to attend a meeting at the State Capital in Raleigh, Oct. 17th, at 8 o'clock, p. m. to hear President Harvie Jordan, and Hon. John P. Allison, member of the executive committee of the S. C. A., discuss the proposition to raise a fund sufficiently large to protect the cotton interests of the South from the low prices we are threatened with each season.

This is an important step and should interest each cotton grower. It probably means more to the cotton industry of the South than any step that has yet been taken by the Association.

The meeting will be held during fair week which will insure low rail-road fare and should also insure a large attendance. Let every county be represented by a large delegation of representative farmers and others interested in the movement.

It is the opinion of the well informed that the cotton crop will not be as large as was thought some weeks ago, and unless some very decided action is taken will not bring the producer the money they should receive for it.

There should be a full attendance at each of these county meetings the first Saturday in October to discuss this and other questions of importance to the Association. Let us show our interest and loyalty to the Association by attending the meetings.

Afflicted With Sore Eyes for 33 Years.

I have been afflicted with sore eyes for thirty-three years. Thirteen years ago I became totally blind and was blind for six years. My eyes were badly inflamed. One of my neighbors insisted upon my trying Chamberlain's Salve and gave me half a box of it. To my surprise it healed my eyes and my sight came back to me.—P. C. EARLE, Cynthia, Ky. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale by S. R. Bigg's.

SPIRIT OF THE PRESS.

The Standard Oil Company is preparing to take over the distilleries. Evidently want to make a corner on fossil oil.—The Daily Reflector.

A young woman of St. Louis, Mo., has been committed to the insane asylum because she imagines she will marry a rich man. If this is a sign of mental aberration, there are numerous other young ladies who should not be at large.—Durham Sun.

Of course it goes without saying that Mr. Bryan is a candidate for the presidential nomination by the Democratic party in 1908, and it is as certainly true also that the people will not have to do any guessing about what he believes. If nominated by the Democratic party it will be with a full knowledge of

ROYAL Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Healthful cream of tartar, derived solely from grapes, refined to absolute purity, is the active principle of every pound of Royal Baking Powder.

Hence it is that Royal Baking Powder renders the food remarkable both for its fine flavor and healthfulness.

It is doubtful if President Roosevelt will ever succeed in simplifying spelling beyond the point reached by the man who invented the "I. O. U."—Tarboro Southerner.

All gossips are not women, not by any means. There's no more inveterate old troublemaker than the garrulous man, who splits hairs over all that his neighbor does or is going to do. A man can drop a poisonous word here and there quite as deftly as the woman gossip.—Manchester (N. H.) Union.

Opening of the Graded Schools.

The Williamston Graded School opened last Tuesday morning most auspiciously. Every teacher was in place and busy classifying scholars. The principal S. T. Liles, was in charge of affairs and appeared to be happy over the bright beginning of the fall session. Notwithstanding the fact that a number of boys and girls have gone from the school to different colleges in the state, the number enrolled was larger than that of last year. Addresses were delivered by Mr. W. C. Manning and Rev. P. L. Kirtton. Their good words of cheer were happily responded to by each of the teachers.

By the way there is an orator in the faculty this year. She knows what to say and when to say it. No one but an idiot could help being impressed by her speech. Mr. S. T. Liles and the Board of Trustees have exercised great judgment in the selection of the teachers. How they could secure such a teaching force on the small salaries paid is a question. But there are some people who put their trust and yield their service to higher things than money.

Miss Mary Hodges, to the delight of the community, is back and is in charge of the 1st and 2nd grades. Miss Sallie Hyman, a most charming young woman has control of the 3rd and fourth grades. Miss Meta Liles, who is no kin to the principal, has under her direction the 5th 6th and 7th grades. She will be a great factor in developing the school and in making it popular with the entire community. Prof. Lyles, as usual, is in charge of the higher grades. We have been at the opening of a number of city graded schools, but we have never been so favorably impressed as we were on last Tuesday. We believe that the influence of these teachers will be felt in every church of the town. Their ideas and ideals go beyond their work in the class room, if we are to judge from what we saw and heard. They are all agreed in their desire to have the patrons visit the school.

The music teacher, Miss Nannie Smith is as pretty and energetic as ever. She is in search of pupils for her department.

Cole Bros. Circus.

A Fine Performance. The Largest Crowd Ever Seen in Williamston.

If anything draws a crowd like a circus we have never seen it. Monday morning bright and early wagons from every quarter were coming to town loaded with human freight. There was old and young—from the grey-headed patriot to the nursing babe. We never saw so many babes at one time in our life. The crowd was estimated at from 8,000 to 10,000 persons.

Promptly at 10 o'clock the parade left the show grounds and wended its way through the principal streets of our town. The streets all along the entire route of the parade were lined with persons eager to see what was to be seen. The crowd followed the parade back to the grounds to witness the free attractions.

The main performance began at 2 o'clock with the large tent fairly filled with spectators, a crowd of 5,000. The performance captivated everyone. It was the best show taken in its entirety, that has ever been in Williamston.

All the performers and attaches of Cole Bros.' circus are ladies and gentlemen—in fact that is one thing Cole Bros. pride themselves on. No profanity is allowed on the grounds and nothing to offend the most delicate taste of the refined permitted.

Williamston will always welcome the return of this excellent tented aggregation, and a full house is assured on their next visit here.

To the eye of the connoisseur of horse flesh, Cole Bros. had one of the finest exhibitions ever seen in this city. The menagerie also came in for a lot of praise, while the clowns constantly kept the large audience convulsed with laughter.

The specialties were all good, space forbidding an extended description. The circus left at midnight Monday night, and showed in Wilson Tuesday. Mr. Will Mitchell, the clever and versatile press agent of the circus extended all the courtesies to the Editor explaining everything connected with circus life. He is undoubtedly one of the best in the business, and the wish of The Enterprise is that his shadow may never grow less. Cole Bros are to be congratulated in having in their employ such a genius as Mr. Mitchell.

There is nothing so pleasant as that bright, cheerful, at-peace with the world feeling when you sit down to your breakfast. There is nothing so conducive to good work and good results. The healthy man with a healthy mind and body is a better fellow, a better workman, a better citizen than the man or woman who is handicapped by some disability, however slight. A slight disorder of the stomach will derange your body, your thoughts and your disposition. Get away from the morbidness and the blues. Keep your stomach in tune and both your brain and body will respond. Little indiscretions of over eating can be easily corrected and you will be surprised to see how much better man you are. Try a little Kodol For Dyspepsia after your meals. Sold by S. R. Biggs.

Teachers to Meet

All teachers and those who desire to teach in the schools of the County are hereby notified to be at the Graded School building in Williamston, Saturday morning, September 29, for the purpose of reorganizing our County Teachers Association.

The law makes your attendance compulsory, and you must attend, if you expect pay for your work. R. J. PERL, Supt.

A Certain Cure For Croup—Used for 10 Years Without Failure.

Mr. W. C. Bott, Saat City, Ind., hardware merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the past ten years, and though they much feared the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has recommended it to friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequalled for croup and whooping cough. For sale by S. R. Bigg's.

The Tobacco That Made Chewing Popular

Man's fondness for chewing tobacco is created and popularized by the tobacco produced in the famous Piedmont tobacco belt. Only choice selections of this well matured, thoroughly cured leaf are used in making SCHNAPPS. That's why SCHNAPPS requires, and takes a smaller amount of, sweetening than any other kind—and that's why SCHNAPPS has a wholesome, stimulating and satisfying effect on chewers.

There are many imitations of SCHNAPPS claiming to be "just as good," but without the flavor or quality that has made SCHNAPPS 3 sales more than all similar tobaccos.

It is made in the Reynolds factories, famous for producing the best chewing tobaccos, by clean, sanitary processes, under the same direction, since 1875, of men who have made the business a life study. They are the largest and best equipped flat plug factories in the world and are situated in the very center of the world's greatest chewing tobacco district.

If you've never chewed SCHNAPPS, now is the time to get acquainted with the cleanest, most healthful, stimulating, satisfying and wholesome form in which tobacco can be used. Do not accept imitations.
