The Optimist

The optimist, while he sees much of the evil, sees also much of the good. He sees more of the beauty, hears more of the music; his mental vision is keener, his spiritual insight deeper...

Something For Boys.

Many people seem to forget that character grows; that it is not some thing to put on, ready made with womanhood or manhood; but day by day, here a little and there a little, grows with the growth and strengthens with the strength...

For the benefit of those who abhor printers' ink as prime factor to the advancement of their interest we should state that Samson—the strong party—was the first man to advertise.

The new governor of Rhode Island is reported to have a lame arm, brought on by too much hand-shaking on his inauguration day.

CHARLES W. MURPHY.

The battle of Brownsville, Tex., seems destined to cut a greater figure in history than that of San Juan Hill.

A Kentucky girl presiding at a church fair is accused of hypnotizing the minister. Talk about get-rich-quick schemes! How about a combination of a church fair and a girl hypnotizer.

At any rate the increased cost of living has put out of business the man who used to write those plausible articles on "How to Live on Thirty cents a Day".

An English physician has discovered that high collars produce headaches. The kind produced by the combination of high collars and high balls must be particularly fierce.

The SPORTING WORLD

Murphy "Unbells For the Limit." Chubby Charley Murphy, president of the Chicago National Baseball club, champion of the league, has developed into a plunger—that is, he is getting reckless with the club's money, not with his own.

CHARLEY W. MURPHY.

are too strong already. The sporting world can hardly believe that Murphy will separate himself from so much money—that is, from so much of the club's money—but Charley will take oath that he is ready to "unbelt for the limit" whenever a good candidate for his champion team heaves in sight over the horizon.

Penn's Football Outlook.

The prospects for a splendid football team at the University of Pennsylvania next season are very fine. Only two men, Quarterback Lawrence and Left End Levene, will be absent when work begins next fall.

In addition to Scarlett, end; Gaston and Draper, tackles; Gallagher and Ziegler, guards; Dwyer, center; Green and Folwell, halves, and Hollenbach, full, the following men will be eligible for the team: Lavery, who played in the Michigan game at right tackle; Dyer, subfullback, who proved a very strong offensive player; Longwell, the fullback who was hurt in the Indian game; Kelso, the quarterback candidate, of whom nothing is known; Townsend, subend and half; Bickman, subcenter; Sheble, subend and quarter; Rogers, subend; Shirley, subquarterback, and Grille, subguard.

Besides this list of substitutes, there are several members of the scrub who will return and should give some one a tussle for positions, as follows: Colburn, '08, dental; Turner, '08, law; Esau, '08, medical; Campbell, '08, law; Wassenburg, '08, medical.

Mrs. Isaac W. Austill, of Chestnut Ridge, N. C., tells a strange story of great suffering. I was in bad condition for months but got no relief. My periods had stopped all but the pain. After taking part of a bottle of Wine of Cardui, nature worked properly and without pain.

Because Senators Tillman and Foraker have started out to jointly clean up the Brownsville situation, we trust no one will feel called upon to refer to them as the Gold Dust twins.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Benefits a City Councilman at Kingston, Jamaica.

Mr. W. O'Reilly Fogarty, who is a member of the City Council at Kingston, Jamaica, West Indies, writes as follows: "One bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy had gone effect on a cough that was giving me trouble and I think I should have been more quickly relieved if I had continued the remedy. That it was beneficial and quick in relieving me there is no doubt and it is my intention to obtain another bottle."

Dr. Clapsey says there never was any Garden of Eden. Then we should like to know how Eve could ever have handed Adam that lemon.

The Price of Peace

The terrible itching and smarting incident to certain skin diseases, is almost instantly allayed by applying Chamberlain's Salve Price, 25 cents. For Sale by S. R. Biggs.

Bad Stomach Trouble

Having been sick for the past two years with a bad stomach trouble, a friend gave me a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They did me so much good that I bought a bottle of them and have used twelve bottles in all. Today I am well of a bad stomach trouble.—Mrs. John Lowe, Cooper, Maine. These tablets are for sale by S. Heat on Tobacco Improves it Like Roasting Improves Green Coffee. Heat Develops the Stimulating Aroma and Taste found in Schnapps Tobacco and Coffee

Three ways are used by farmers for curing and preparing their tobacco for the market; namely sun cured, air cured and flue cured. The old and cheap way is called air cured; the later discovery and improved way is called flue cured.

In flue curing the tobacco is taken from the fields and racked in barns especially built to retain heat and there subjected to a continuous high temperature, produced by the direct heat of flame heated flues, which brings out in the tobacco that stimulating taste and aroma that expert roasting develops in green coffee.

The quality of tobacco depends much on the curing process and the kind of soil that produces it, as expert tests prove that this flue cured tobacco, grown in the famous Piedmont region, requires and takes less sweetening than tobacco grown in any other section of the United States and has a wholesome, stimulating, juicy, full tobacco taste that satisfies tobacco hunger. That's why chewers prefer Schnapps, because Schnapps cheers more than any other chewing tobacco, and that's why chewers of Schnapps pass the good thing along—one chewer makes other chewers, until the fact is established that there are more chewers and more pounds of tobacco chewed to the population in states where Schnapps tobacco is sold than there are in those states where Schnapps has not yet been offered to the trade.

A 10c. plug of Schnapps is more economical than a much larger 10c. plug of cheap tobacco. Sold at 50c. per pound in 5c. cuts. Strictly 10 and 15 cent plugs.

Don't

Don't ask the editor to publish a list of wedding gifts. Don't add to the terrors of death by tacking several stanzas of doggerel to a death notice. Don't crowd the mourners.

Don't lug old clippings into a newspaper office and tell the editor that you have brought him "something to fill up with." Take him a cabbage; he can fill up with that.

Sitting in the end of a church pew don't get up to admit others, move along.

Don't kick a man when he is down unless you are sure that he will never get up again.

Don't put lard on a man's shoes when you see a man "going down hill." They are already greased for the occasion.

Don't pray with the hungry until you have given him something to eat, prayer without pork availeth not.

The ice crop is fine in Wisconsin but Indiana is not worrying. Fairbanks will be home after a while.
