

The Scrap Book

The Candidate and the Lady.
A political candidate, after affectionately kissing and praising an assortment of eleven children and marveling much at the resemblance they bore to a matronly lady, who blushed the while, then repeated with a by-the-way air that she would mention to her husband that Mr. So-and-so had called. "Alas," said the lady, "I have no husband!" "But these children, madam, you surely are not a widow?" "I feared you were mistaken, sir, when you first came up. These are not my children; this is an orphan asylum!"

Infamy of Truth.
I do not know what I may appear to the world, but to myself I seem to have been only like a boy playing on the seashore and diverting myself in now and then finding a smoother pebble or a prettier shell than ordinary, while the great ocean of truth lay all undiscovered before me.—Sir Isaac Newton.

Must Hold Up Something.
"Down in my state," said the late Senator Vance of North Carolina, "our courts are particular about forms and ceremonies. For example, in a court in Asheville a soldier who had been battered considerably in the war was brought in as a witness. The judge told him to hold up his right hand. "Can't do it, sir," said the man. "Why not?" "Got a shot in that arm, sir." "Then hold up your left!" "The man said that his left arm had been amputated." "Then," said the judge sternly, "you must hold up your leg. No man can be sworn, sir, in this court unless he holds up something!"

The Wife as a Conscience.
You may think you had a conscience and believed in God, but what is a conscience to a wife? Wise men of yore erected statues of their duties and conscientiously performed their part in life before those marble eyes. A god watched them at the board and stood by their bedside in the morning when they woke, and all about their ancient cities, where they bought and sold or where they piped and wrestled, there would stand some symbol of the things that are outside of man. These were lessons, delivered in the quiet dialect of art, which told their story faithfully, but gently. It is the same lesson, if you will—but how harrowingly taught—when the woman you respect shall sweep from your unkindness or blush with shame at your misconduct. To marry is to domesticate the recording angel. Once you are married, there is nothing left for you, not even suicide, but to be good.—R. L. Stevenson.

Out to Develop.
A little girl whose father is addicted to amateur photography attended a trial at court. This was her account of the judge's charge: "The judge made a long speech to the jury of twelve men and then sent them off into a little dark room to develop."

The Rich Do Not Whistle.
Very rich men never whistle; poor men always do. Bird songs are in the heart of the poor man.—Stephen B. Elkins.

An Old Joke.
Here is an ancient joke: "An Englishman and a Frenchman engaged to fight a duel in a dark room. The Englishman fired up the chimney and brought down the Frenchman, who had taken refuge there." As told in France, the Englishman is up the chimney.

Pneumonia's Deadly Worm
had so seriously affected my right lung," writes Mrs. Fannie Connor, of Rural Route 1, Georgetown, Tenn., "that I coughed continuously night and day and the neighbors' prediction—consumption—seemed inevitable, until my husband brought home a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery, which in my case proved to be the only real cough cure and restorer of weak, sore lungs." When all other remedies utterly fail, you may still win in the battle against lung and throat troubles with New Discovery, the real cure. Guaranteed by S. R. Biggs, druggist, 50c, and $1.00 trial bottle free.

"Rebuke to the fool is a loss of time," says the Baltimore American. Not always. Sometimes a swift kick avails much.

When you need a pill, take a pill, and be sure it's an Early Riser, Dr. Witt's Little Early Risers are safe, sure, satisfactory pills. The pills with a reputation. They do not gripe or sicken. They are sold here by S. R. Biggs, Williamston, N. C., Slade, Jones, & Co., Hamilton.

Mr. Rockefeller is making it possible for many more students to burn the midnight oil.

Rest is the great restorer. We tire our muscles by exercise and then rest to restore them; yet a great many of us do not stop to think how little rest we give to our stomachs. As a usual thing no part of our body is so generally overworked as our digestive organs. A tired and overworked stomach will give signs of distress to which we pay no heed until at last dyspepsia takes hold, indigestion is just a warning, and if we heed the warning we can easily avoid further consequences. KODOL is a most thorough stomach relief. It digests what you eat and gives the stomach the needed rest and greatly assists in restoring it to its normal activity and usefulness. KODOL is sold on a guaranteed relief plan. It is sold here by S. R. Biggs, Williamston, N. C., Slade, Jones, & Co., Hamilton, N. C.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and sours ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased. Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Senator Cullam is quoted as saying that Harriman ought to be put in the penitentiary. That would be an awful lonely place for an exponent of high finance.

The Price of Health
"The price of health in a malarious district is just 25 cents; the cost of a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills," writes Ella Slayton, of Noland, Ark. New Life Pills cleanse gently and impart new life and vigor to the system. Satisfaction guaranteed at S. R. Biggs, druggist.

Mayor Weaver of Philadelphia, continues to have reform fever of the intermittent variety.

Gentle and Effective
A well-known Manitoba editor writes: "As an inside worker I find Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets invaluable for the touches of biliousness natural to sedentary life, their action being gentle and effective, clearing the digestive tract and the head." Price 25 cents. Samples free S. R. Biggs.

The simplified spelling board is to give a dinner. An appropriate dish would be plankb crow.

A Woman Tells How to Relieve Rheumatic Pains

I have been a very great sufferer from the dreadful disease, rheumatism, for a number of years. I have tried many medicines but never got much relief from any of them until two years ago when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I found relief before I had used all of one bottle, but kept on applying it and soon felt like a different woman. Through my advice many of my friends have tried it and can tell you how wonderfully it has worked.—Mrs. Sarah A. Cole, 140 S. New St., Dover, Del. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. It makes rest and sleep possible. For sale by S. R. Biggs.

Jefferson Day dinners now range from $3 to $10 a plate. Another result of "the increased cost of living."

Cured of Rheumatism
Mr. Wm Henry of Chattanooga Tenn., had rheumatism in his left arm. "The strength seemed to have gone out of the muscles so that it was useless for work," he says. "I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and wrapped the arm in flannel at night, and to my relief I found that the pain gradually left me and the strength returned. In three weeks the rheumatism had disappeared and has not since returned." If troubled with rheumatism try a few applications of Pain Balm. You are certain to be pleased with the relief which it affords. For sale by S. R. Biggs.

It is intimated that Mr. Roosevelt will be for Taft on the condition that Mr. Taft will only want one term of the presidency.

Y., "and when it looked as if there was no hope left, I was persuaded to try Electric Bitters, and I rejoice to say that they are curing me. I am now doing business again as of old, and am still gaining daily." Best tonic medicine on earth. Guaranteed by S. R. Biggs, druggist, 50c.

The Chicago elevator boy who has taken to the study of art, will find that it, too, has many ups and downs.
