

LOCAL BRIEFS.

—El Cereso.
—We had a perfect storm of rice as well as rain on Tuesday morning.
—Mr. W. H. Renfrew for sometime foreman of this office, left for Greenville Saturday afternoon.
—For sometime we've been expecting that "brass band" to parade through the street.
—Taffy-Tolu, that's me.
—Mr. Elbert Pool has accepted a position with The Enterprise Printing Co.
—Mr. Haywood Knight has accepted a position with the Jeffers Drug Store as clerk.
—Chew Taffy-Tolu Gum.
—The Baseball fever has struck Williamston now, and the boys are predicting a feat on any and all competing teams.

Taffy-Tolu Gum quenches thirst.
—The 10 is driving near and jockeys with their sulks and high stepping animals are often seen on their way to the track.
—The cows have been allowed an extension of time in which to parade the streets, owing to the freshet in the river, it is responsible to get all the stock up, comfortable quarters have been provided for any cow which may fail to obey the law, after the extension of time is out.
—Court convenes next week, Judge Crawford Biggs presiding. There are twenty three criminal cases on the docket. Most of them petty offences. The civil docket is always full, though quite a number of cases were disposed of at the March term.
—Judge Winston, of the law firm of the Winston and Everett, was in town Monday to appear before Judge Hobbs in the case of Peel vs Watts. A compromise was effected to the satisfaction of all concerned.

—The editor is ill this week with grippe, and the office is being run by a corps of "devils". All mistakes should be excusable for this reason, if not, however, they should be charged to the account of the chief "devil," who is prepared to warn things up.

—The town commissioners met on Friday night last to consider the building of the town hall and market house. After some discussion C. E. Hartge was given the contract for a plan. N. S. Peel was appointed to supervise the work. It was further ordered that workmen to be employed shall be residents and therefore tax payers. A tax of $200 was placed upon each saloon.

—Mrs. Chloe Lanier was "at home" to a number of the young people on Tuesday evening in honor of her cousin, Miss Janie Wood, of Baltimore. Mrs. Lanier is a delightful hostess and the evenings spent with her are always pleasantly remembered.

—The potato market has opened here with prices medium and stock not high grade. The indications for good prices were favorable last week but reports say that Texas unloaded her enormous crop and prices dropped. "It is ever thus" to the Martin County farmers.

—The town is paying high for the hole in the ground, facetiously called an artesian well. From a statement of the treasurer $1924.24 has been expended and yet it still is a mud hole. Two holes—one in the treasury and one in mother earth—are rather unpleasant sights to the tax payers.

When you feel the need of a pill take a DeWitt's Little Early Riser. Small pill, safe pill, sure pill. Easy to take—pleasant and effective. Drives away headaches. Sold by S. R. Biggs, Williamston, N. C., Slade Jones & Co., Hamilton, N. C.

In a Texas court the other day, the defendant referred to one of the witnesses against him as a "triple expansion liar". Probably the superlative of this would be "under forced draft".

Oxford Class in Williamston.

The Orphan Asylum's Singing Class spent last Friday night in town, and as usual rendered their creditable little concert in the Masonic Opera House to a large and appreciative audience.
The class consists of sixteen members, ten girls and six boys, under the care and management of Miss Bush and Mr. J. S. Bunch both teachers of the institution.
It was composed for the most part of small children, who gave a very creditable little entertainment, and one that would have done credit to much larger children.
They left Saturday for Plymouth where they were to play that night.

You can't tell a woman's age at tea she takes Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea.

Her complexion is fine. She is round, plump, and handsome; in fact she is young again. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets, J. M. Whitters & Co. at Robersonville N. C.

Death of an Infant.

Francis King, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Carstarphen, died in Tarboro, on Sunday, June 9th, after a short illness. The remains were brought home on Sunday afternoon accompanied by the parents and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Carstarphen. The funeral services were conducted at the residence of C. D. Carstarphen on Smithwick Street by Rev. B. S. Lassiter, Monday at 3 p. m. Interment at Oakdale Cemetery.

The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the community in the loss of their lovely babe, which like a flower, budded, shed its fragrance and died.

More Hail

The re was a very destructive hail storm last Saturday afternoon at Hobgood. The track of the storm was about one mile wide and extended from Hobgood to Conoho, a distance of four miles. The hail was very heavy, destroying nearly all the garden and field crops. The farmers will plow up and replant the land in cotton and peanuts.
There were two other hail storms in the county about the same time of day. One in the Gold Point section doing serious damage on a few farms. The other in the Bear Grass section doing some damage to tobacco.

Pretty Marriage Tuesday Morning

A charming June wedding was celebrated at 7:30 o'clock, Tuesday morning, in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, when Miss Henrietta Hassell Peele became the bride of Mr. William Polk McCraw, both of this City. The marriage vows were given by Rev. Charles L. Reid, pastor of the church.
The handsome interior of the edifice was elaborately decorated with potted plants and cut flowers, the color scheme being artistically carried out in pink and white. Preceding and during the ceremony sweet music was rendered by Miss Lettie Critcher, of the Baptist University.
Menbelsohn's wedding march was used as a processional, and as the soft strains filled the air, there first passed up the aisle, Messrs. Clarence Jeffers and Frank S. Hassell, next entering the bridesmaids, Misses Anna Crawford and Mary Hassell, following came Dr. Hugh B. York and Herbert Peele.
Dainty little Miss Mary Whitmore, in white and pink, carrying pansies, followed the dame of honor, Mrs. Fabius L. Minga, sister of the bride, then the maid of honor, Miss Annie Peel, entered with the bride, and the groom, with Mr. Grover Hardison, met them at the chancel. After the vows were taken, the bridal party left the church, the recessional being Lohengrin's bridal procession.

The wedding tableau, as it gathered in front of the chancel was a lovely one and was admired by a host of friends who filled the church.

The bride was becomingly gowned in a travelling suit of green and gray with hat and gloves to match, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses with white ribbon.
The brides maids were robed in white with large hats and carried pink lilies tied with pink tulle. Miss Annie Peele was attired in white net over silk with hat to match and carried pink carnations and ferns. Mrs. Minga wore cream cloth exquisitely embroidered, and carried sweet peas with foliage. The bride is the attractive and accomplished daughter of Mrs. Mary E. Peele and is very popular in social circles. She is the great grand daughter of Rider C. B. Hassell, and comes of a long line of noble ancestry. Mr. McCraw is a prominent druggist and has made a host of friends since coming here from Littleton, N. C., where he was reared. Many handsome presents attest the esteem in which the young couple are held.
Mr. and Mrs. McCraw left via the A. C. L., for Old Point Comfort, Washington City, and other northern points. They will be at home on Haughton Street after June 25th.
"This little pig went to market," doesn't amuse tonight. Baby's not well; what's the matter, her dear little cheeks are so white; Poor little tummy is aching, naughty old pain go away; Cascaweet mother must give her, then she'll be bright as the day. It is sold here by S. R. Biggs, Williamston, N. C., Slade Jones & Co., Hamilton, N. C.

S. R. Biggs Sells Longman & Martinez L. & M. Paints in pints and quarts at half-gallon prices.

ROBERSONVILLE ITEMS

Mr. A. B. Henderson representing the A. K. Hawk's Co, oculist of Atlanta Ga., is in town and is busily engaged in adjusting glasses to all who call upon him. Mr. Henderson is a very polite and courteous gentleman.

Mr. Bone of Rocky Mount is making our town a visit, and is supplying our merchants with an ample supply of horse correctors and whips. They are of good quality and the merchants are selling these whips cheap. Mr. Bone wins friends wherever he goes. We wish him success in his business enterprises.

Large quantities of Irish potatoes are being shipped from this point every day and they are bringing remunerative prices.

We regret to know that the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Young of Robersonville is very sick. We hope the careful attention given it by the parents and friends will result in its recovery.

The 12th of June and cold enough for fires, is one of the climatic wonders of the day.

The gentlemen who will conduct the tobacco business here this year are getting houses ready and completing all other arrangements for the opening of the tobacco market.

These days many of our citizens go out to the near-by streams and are bringing in quite a quantity of nice fish, some of them very large.

Fried chickens are very scarce and as there are several Methodists in this immediate section, there is much grumbling because of their great scarcity. Our good Baptist friends can get all the fish and duck they wish, hence they are content. Bring on your chickens and let us all be happy together.

Mrs. J. S. Cook and children Lydie and John Cook Jr. accompanied by Miss Delia Ray left Saturday for Norfolk.

There is no case of indigestion, no matter how irritable or how obstinate that will not be speedily relieved by the use of Kodol. The main factor in curing the stomach of any disorder is rest, and the only way to get rest is to actually digest the food for the stomach itself. Kodol will do it. It is a scientific preparation of vegetable juices containing the very same acids found in a healthy stomach. It conforms to the Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by S. R. Biggs, Williamston, N. C., Slade Jones & Co., Hamilton, N. C.

STRAW NO. 6

A Straw is a Straw

Two Obituaries

John Doe died last week after a short illness, leaving a widow and five small children. Mr. Doe was seemingly a prosperous merchant, but in settling his estate his stock of merchandise had to be sold at a discount of 50 per cent, and the entire income was absorbed in paying his debts. Nothing was left to his family. Mr. Doe had intended taking Life Insurance, but put it off until it was too late. It would grieve him now if he could know that his family is an object of charity.
Richard Roe died suddenly this morning while on the train enroute to New York. His remains will be brought home for interment. Mr. Roe was a man of large business capacity and foresight. Just one year ago he took a $10,000 Life Insurance Policy for the benefit of his family. This amount well invested will bring an annual income to educate his children and support his family comfortably.
Moral Query—Would your name be John Doe or Richard Roe?
