Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work. Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney troubles.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries. It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble. If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

When Smoking Was New.
It was a sixteenth century parson who wrote, "In these days, the taking in of the smoke of the Indian herbs called Tobacco, by an instrument formed from the mouth into the bed and stomach, is grette taken up, and used in England, against Rhexmes and some other diseases, ingredred in the longes and inward partes, and not without effect." Barnaby Rich, in "The Honesty of the Age," complained, however, of the money spent in 1614 on tobacco, estimating it at something like £800,875 ($1,096,875) a year in England, "all spent in smoke." He admits the general belief that smoking is good for some ailments, "but cannot see but that those that do take it fastidiously are as much subject to all these infirmities as those that have nothing at all to do with it."—Westminster Gazette.

No Fired the Stick
"I have fired the walking stick I've carried over 40 years, on account of a sore that resisted every kind of treatment, until I tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve; that has healed the sore and made me a happy man," writes John Garrett of North-Mills, N. C. Guaranteed for Piles, Burns, etc., by S. R. Biggs, druggist, 25c.

Feebles' Wish.

Feebles (about to be operated upon for appendicitis)—Doctor, before you begin I wish you would send and have our pastor, the Rev. Mr. Blank, come over.
Dr. Sawaen—Certainly, if you wish it, but—
Feebles—I'd like to be opened with prayer.

The Vice of Excess.
If we carry our work or play to extremes, nature will present a bill for the excess. Moderate rowing is beneficial to the lungs, yet more than one professional oarsman has died of consumption. Physicians are familiar with the irritable heart of young athletes and soldiers. The pulse is rapid and irregular, with palpitation, showing that the circulatory apparatus has been strained. Races ruin nine-tenths of our thoroughbred horses before they reach maturity. The attempt to break a record has ruined many a young man.—O. S. Marden.

Women in Elizabeth's Time.
Concerning the women of the court of Queen Elizabeth a writer of that time remarked, "They do shun and avoid idleness, some of them exercising their fingers with the needle, some in continual reading, either of the Holy Scriptures or histories of their own or foreign nations about us, and divers writing volumes of their own or translating of other men's into our English and Latin tongue." Also, "many of the oldest sort are skillful in surgery, and there is in manner none of them but when they be at home can help to supply the ordinary want of the kitchen with a number of delicate dishes of their own devising."—London Saturday Review.

Helping the Blind.
"I hope the blind man is at the push cart market today," said the woman as she started out, "I feel so sorry for him. I always buy my candles from him. Then, too, he sells them for 1 cent apiece, and the other day when it rained and he wasn't there I had to pay 2 cents for them at the grocery. Whenever I can, I live up to my rule to patronize the blind."—New York Press.

Papyrus.
The ancient Egyptians and later the Romans were manufacturers of papyrus. In its manufacture a layer of thin longitudinal strips of the stem or pith of the papyrus plant was overlaid with a similar layer at right angles, then soaked in water, pressed and dried to form a sheet. Such sheets were pasted together to make a roll.—Philadelphia Press.

Man's inhumanity to woman dates from the garden of Eden, when Eve merely tasted the fruit and at once generously handed it over to her spouse, who devoured it to the core and never allowed her to get another morsel.—Marie Corelli in Rapid Review.

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour risings, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol relieves indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol for dyspepsia does not only relieve indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy helps all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach. Mr. B. S. Hall, of Removewood, W. Va., says: "I was troubled with sour stomach for twenty years. Kodol cured me and we are now using it in milk for baby."

Kodol Digests What You Eat.
Bottles only. Relieves indigestion, sour stomach, flatulence of gas, etc.
