Teachers, Welcome!

The summer school is now in session and there is a large attendance of Martin County teachers. To these noble and faithful workers in the cause of education we extend a most hearty welcome.

There should be nothing too good for the man or woman who devotes time and talents to this great work, the sacrifices are all made by the teachers, they are poorly paid and in most cases not appreciated. Their's is a hard lot—misunderstood, belittled and criticised.

Let's make the three week's stay of these sacrificing people the most pleasant of their lives. Make them feel that they are appreciated. Teachers, we welcome you to this little city, and hope that you may be able to speak in the highest praise of it and its citizens when the summer school is over and you return to your respective homes.

It probably will be a wholesome lesson for a number of northern philanthropists engaged in elevating the colored race at long range to read the speech of Bishop Turner of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, made in New York last week. Among a number of other things he said was the remark he had no use for America, despised the American flag, and wished all the negroes would emigrate from a country where they are so ill treated as in the United States. It seems that such a remark comes very near branding as an undesirable citizen a man who never ought to have been made a citizen in the first place. The last section of his remark, however, is one with which most people in the United States can agree. If Bishop Turner can only find some country that will accept him and his fellows of like sentiments as residents, the rest of the country will watch with a single regret the spectacle of the Bishop as an ebion Moses leading his following into the new Canaan. The only real regret is that while he will continue to rant and orate, he will never carry out his threat to emigrate. Such views as he has voiced are the worst possible training for the other members of his race to hear. And they do not offer much encouragement to the white population to continue staggering along with the White Man's burden.

It is not very encouraging news that is handed out to the public by the Geological Survey this week. The survey announces that the anthracite coal supply of the country is only good for 75 more years. Of course this will not effect the most of us very much as at the end of time we will be either where we want coal or where we will have more than we want. But the prospect is not cheering for future generations. The calculation has been made on the basis of the known coal supply of the country the present annual consumption and the normal growth of the population. It is further stated that there is no prospect of anthracite ever being any cheaper than it is at present a piece of gratuitous information on which the Coal Trust had the Geological Survey several years ago. But hope is held out in the fact that there is enough soft coal to last for several generations more, and this ought to be good news for the south as much of it is in the south and still undeveloped.

A proposal is being advanced now by a number of well meaning gentlemen, members of the Society des Beaux Arts, for a new member of the Cabinet, a Secretary of Fine Arts. At the present rate of suggestion, the Cabinet would eventually become larger than the Senate. The doctors of the country have been for several years pressing for the creation of a Federal Health Department with a Secretary at its head. There are others who hold that the Commissioner of Education should be made a cabinet officer and doubtless there are other professions that would like

Destroys Hair Germs

Recent discoveries have shown that falling hair is caused by germs at the roots of the hair. Therefore, to stop falling hair, you must first completely destroy these germs. Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, will certainly do this. Then leave the rest to nature.

Does not change the color of the hair.

Formula with each bottle. Show it to your doctor. Ask him about it, then do as he says.

Recent discoveries have also proved that dandruff is caused by germs on the scalp. Therefore, to cure dandruff, the first thing to do is to completely destroy these dandruff germs. Here, the same Ayer's Hair Vigor will give the same splendid results.

to have cabinet representation. But as it seems hardly practical for all to have departments of their own, the chances are that none will have them.

It is hard to figure out why the English House of Commons should be making such a fuss about limiting the power of the Lords. So far as the records show, the House of Lords have never done anything since the battle of Runnymede.

A man up in West Virginia the other day started to beat his wife when she drew a revolver and killed him. If he had time to reflect on the incident at all, he probably came to the conclusion that he hit the wrong woman.

Don't laugh at the man in the hickory shirt, jeans pants and brogans. He may own a thousand acres of land worth $20 an acre and have more money out on interest than you have seen in a year.

"Few die and none resign" was applied to office-holders years ago. It is still applicable, and if you hear that one is not to be a candidate for reelection, deny the rumor on the spot.

Mark Twain has been dined by the staff of Punch. He says that they are really beginning to appreciate his jokes, probably the ones they have been incubating on since he first sprung them in 1867.

Astronomers claim to have discovered a fine new canal on Mars. It is a great pity that we can not find out their system and whether they dig them by contract or commission.

If the present increase in food prices continues, the menu at the next Jefferson dollar dinner will have to consist of a glass of water and a few kind words.

A number of revisioning sheets declare that "tariff talk is in the air". And from all we can observe, that is where Uncle Joe Cannon intends it to stay.

Jack London says "I am not an authority on anything". It seems the news is getting around Jack's way at last.

Roosevelt Dangerous.

In a speech before the Maryland State Bar Association last week, Mr. John S. Wise, an eminent Republican lawyer now living in New York, denounced Roosevelt's doctrines as dangerous and hurtful. Quoted by a reporter, Mr. Wise said:

"I consider President Roosevelt a dangerous element in American politics because I believe he is both sincere and respectable, and his doctrine is utterly subversive of the idea of State sovereignty and limited Federal power. He does not realize that Federal power is no more than that which was delegated. He is constantly striving against the limitations of Federal power, without which at least two States of the Union—North Carolina and Rhode Island—would never have come into it. The Supreme Court has rebuked the Roosevelt idea within the last month in the Kansas-Colorado case. It is on that point that I take issue with Roosevelt."

North Carolina refused the bait of Federal offices and its natural desire to help organize the Republic until it had what it regarded as permanent limitations upon the Federal power. If it had believed that an hundred years later a Federal Judge would suspend for a month or a day or for years a statute of the General Assembly it would have demanded a specific guarantee against that species of usurpation before it would have joined the Union of States. Mr. Wise is right. The Roosevelt desire to make the State mere colonies is dangerous and subversive of the spirit of our Republic.—News & Observer.

Vanderbilt Objects.

The board of equalization of Buncombe county was in session hearing complaints of property owners on account of alleged over-assessment by the tax assessors appointed to assess property for a period of four years. The assessed value of Buncombe real estate this year has been considerably increased and there are many complaints before the equalization board. Among the complainants who will appear will be George W. Vanderbilt, through his representatives. During the past four years the assessed value of Vanderbilt's holding in Buncombe has been placed at above one and one-half million dollars. The assessors this year raised the assessment to over two million dollars. At the time the assessment was made formal notice of protest was given the assessors. Vanderbilt last year paid to Buncombe's tax collector in State and county taxes between fifteen and sixteen thousand dollars. If the new assessment stands he will pay this year over twenty thousand dollars.

As It Striketh Solomon.

Behold the eight-dollar clerks. They toil not, neither do they spin. Seest thou a man diligent in business? He shall stand before kings.

The slothful servant goeth to his business like a lamb; but when he leaveth it he foareth like a young lion.

Labor is the price of everything worth having.

There is an opportunity which cometh once and then is gone for ever.

Who conquereth the man of energy will find a stubborn foe.

He who followeth two hares is sure to catch neither.—Ex.

A Point That Brings Success.

The wide-awake country merchant is rapidly coming to the conclusion that the best way to meet the competition of the city merchant, the department stores and mail order houses is to fight them with their own weapons. The day when a man can put in a stock of goods and sit down and wait for business is past. He has to hustle for it, and advertise his goods in order that the people may know that he has what they want.

A merchant who knows how to advertise never complains of dull times. When things quiet down, he advertises a little more, and in this way keeps things moving all the time.—Exchange.

Columbus just landed, meeting a big Indian chief with a package under his arm, he asked what it was. "Great medicine, Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea," said the Indian. "35 cents, Tea or Tablets, J. M. Whittier & Co., at Robersonville N. C."

Will not Call Extra Session

There has never been any idea on the part of Governor Glenn to at present call an extra session of the Legislature to have anything to do with making any change in the rates for passenger fares and freights made by the General Assembly of 1907, and the story that he thought of doing so, sent out from Asheville, amounts to nothing.

Governor Glenn was in his office yesterday after being in Western North Carolina some time on a "vacation" for rest and recreation and being asked about the matter spoke emphatically, saying:

"If the railroads had given the rate made by the General Assembly a fair trial, and then could have made it appear to me or to the North Carolina Corporation Commission they could not operate under it without a confiscation of their property; knowing the justice of the people of North Carolina, I would not have hesitated to have called the Legislature together to provide a remedy."

But after the Legislature had fixed a rate based upon the sworn returns of the railroads, which rate seemed reasonable and just, and the railroads saw fit to go into the courts to enjoin the State before giving the new law a fair trial I feel that the only thing left to do is to fight the case to the finish to determine the great legal question whether or not a railroad by the injunction of the Federal court can set at naught the will of the people of a sovereign State as expressed through its Legislature.

"I have therefore authorized the Corporation Commission, regardless of cost, to fight the case to the finish, believing as I do that the State will ultimately win."—News and Observer.

Chew What You Know About and Know What You Are Chewing

There is real pleasure in chewing the best tobacco grown—where the best tobacco grows—in the famous Piedmont Country.

Only choice selections of this well-matured and thoroughly cured tobacco is used in making SCHNAPPS. That's why SCHNAPPS and others of the Reynold's brands, as shown by the Internal Revenue statistics for a fiscal year, made the wonderful growth of six and one-quarter million pounds, or a net gain of one-third of the entire increased consumption of chewing and smoking tobaccos in the United States.

Evidently, chewers cannot resist the flavor and they cheer SCHNAPPS because SCHNAPPS cheers them more than any other chewing tobacco, and every man that chews SCHNAPPS passes the good thing along—one chewer makes other chewers—until the fact is now established that there are many more chewers and pounds of tobacco chewed, to the population, in those States where SCHNAPPS tobacco was first sold than there are in the States where SCHNAPPS has not yet been offered to the trade.

SCHNAPPS is like a cup of fine Java coffee, sweetened just enough to bring out its natural stimulating qualities. SCHNAPPS pleases all classes of chewers: the rich, because they do not find a chew that really pleases them better at any price; the poor, because it is more economical than the large 10c. or 15c. plugs and they get their money's worth of the real snappy, stimulating flavor so appreciated by tobacco lovers. All imitations contain much more sweetening than SCHNAPPS. They are made that way to hide poor tobacco improperly cured.

For the man who chews tobacco for tobacco's sake, there is no chew like SCHNAPPS.

Sold at 50c. per pound in 5c. Cuts. Strictly 10c. and 15c. Plugs

"John I must say that you are a fool."
