

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

Prevalence of Kidney Disease.

Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalence of kidney disease. While kidney disorders are the most common diseases that prevail, they are almost the last recognized by patient and physician, who content themselves with doctoring the effects, while the original disease undermines the system.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

THE HOME CIRCLE COLUMN

Pleasant Evening Reveries---A Column Dedicated to Tired Mothers as they Join the Home Circle at Evening Tide.

By J. KNOX HALL

"Some women are always on the go" is the extravagant remark one often hears and it is not always the expression of envy. Strange to say, these are those who think women do too much traveling. Bless our souls, they don't do half enough. The woman whose world is in the four corners of her house, even though she be intellectually above the average and surrounded by evidences of wealth and fine taste, is necessarily more narrow minded and bigoted than her sister, whose mental vision has expanded under the influence of new scenes and balmy skies, free from mental perplexities or drudgeries. She who has been "on the go" occasionally is the better mother, the more intelligent helpmeet and the sweetest companion.

Moulding Wives.

It is very true that almost any husband who is afflicted with a bad wife, or imagines he is, has only proved his own incapacity for the married life. A wife's demands are usually simple enough, if not always just and these complied with, she is likely to be all the exacting spouse could ask to be loved better than any one else in the world, and to have her own sweet way in all things. If she can achieve the latter end without seeming to do it, so much the better; she is philosophical enough to be satisfied with the reality of power, whoever has the semblance. Besides, the majority of women are married at an age when their characters are still mobile and plastic, and can be shaped in the mould of a husband's will. At least, so the husbands are fond of fancying, and if mistaken beings, they are often shaped than shaping, they are happy in never knowing it.

Saturday Night Reveries.

Saturday night seems to have the happy faculty of making people human; set their hearts to beating softly as they used to do before the world turned them into war drums and jarred them to pieces with tattoos. On Saturday night the ledger closes with a clash, the iron-doored vault comes to with a bang, click, goes the key in the lock. It is Saturday night and the business man breathes free again. Homeward, ho! The door that has been ajar all the week gently closes behind him, the world is all shut out. Shut out? Shut in, rather. At home are his treasures after all, and not in the vault and not in the book—save the record in the old family Bible—and not in the bank. Maybe you are a bachelor, frosty, and forty. Then, poor fellow, Saturday night is nothing to you, just as you are nothing to anybody. Get a wife, blue eyed or black-eyed, but above all, true-eyed. Get a little home—no matter how little—a sofa, just to hold two, or two and a half, in it, on a Saturday night, and then read this paragraph by the light in your wife's eyes, and thank God and take courage.

How many a kiss has been given, how many a curse, how many a caress, how many a look of hate, how many a kind word, how many a promise broken, how many a soul lost, how many a loved one lowered into the narrow chamber, how many a babe has gone from earth to heaven, how many a little crib or cradle stands silent now which last Saturday night held the rarest of treasures of the heart. A week is a life. A week is a history. A week marks events of sorrow and gladness which people never heard. Go home to your family, man of business! Go home, you heartening wanderer! Go home to the chair that awaits you, wronged wait on life's breakers! Go home to those you love, man of toil, and give one night to the joys and comforts fast flying by! Leave your books with complex figures, your dirty shop, your busy store! Rest with those you love, for God only knows what the next Saturday night will bring you! Draw close around the family hearth; Saturday night has awaited your coming in sadness, in tears and silence. Go home to those you love, and as you bask in the loved presence and meet to return the loved embrace of your heart's pets, strive to be a better man, and bless God for giving his weary children so dear a stepping stone in the river to the eternal, as Saturday night.

Table Talk.

You will find that a great deal of character is imparted and received at the table. Parents too often forget this; and therefore instead of swallowing your food in sullen silence; instead of brooding over business; instead of severely talking about others, let the conversation at the table be genial, kind, social and cheering. Don't bring disagreeable things to the table in your conversation any more than you would in your diaries. For this reason, too, the more good company you have at your table, the better for your children. Every conversation with company at the table is an education to the family. Hence the intelligence and the refinement and appropriate behavior of a family which is given to hospitality. Never feel that intelligent visitors can be anything but a blessing to you and yours. How few have gotten hold of the fact that company and conversation at the table are no small part of education.

Be Kind in Little Things.

The sunshine of life is made up of very little beams that are bright all the time. In the nursery, on the play ground and in the school-room, there is room all the time for little acts of kindness, that cost nothing but are worth more than gold and silver. To give up something when giving up will prevent unhappiness; to yield when persisting will chafe and fret others to go a little way around rather than come against another; to take an ill word or a cross look rather than to resent it; these are the ways in which clouds and storms are kept off and a pleasant, smiling sunshine secured even in a humble home, among very poor people, as well as in families in higher station. Much that we term the miseries of life would be avoided by adopting this rule of conduct.

Grover Cleveland says he is not dead, and that ought to be pretty good evidence.

President Jordan of Leland Stanford University, says that one half the human race ought to be killed off to make room for a better breed. But the question arises what the one half would do while the other half was doing the killing.

The way to get rid of a cold, whether it be a 'bad co'd' or just a little one; is to get it out of your system through the bowels. Nearly all Cough Cures, especially those that contain opiates, are constipating. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup contains no opiates and acts gently on the bowels. Pleasant to take. Sold by S. R. Biggs.
