Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through lood in your body passes strituging ye once every three minutes.

The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood.

If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work. Pains, aches and rheumatism come from ex-cess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble. Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries. It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size. You may have a sample bottle by mail remember the name, swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Go out under the bright, glad sky; listen to the songs of the happy birds, the shout ot dancing brooks; see how the sunlight glorifies hill and meadowland and comes shimmering down through uncounted forest leaves, these mellow, golden summer days. Turn your faces from the thronged towns and cities, forget a little while busy care, and let your soul thill and glow under the wonderous touch of divine harmony that fills all nature. The glad earth seem: ver calling to an enjoyment of he all-ture and the all-beautiful. Morning after morning we know the rills claps their hands for joy, tway off in greenwood, and the hearts of the tiny bird thrill and thrill, again and again, because they are glad. And we have so much more to make us happy than they have—so many hopes and oves that bird-hearts never know How can we go up and down the ighways with sad countenances when the whole earth seems so nappy? It seems like ingratitude o God to do so. And our smiles and pléasant faces will bring such sunlight to other hearts!

Rich Wilhout Money.

Manya man is rich without oney, Thousands of them with othing in their pockets, and housands without even a pocket, ire rich. A man borń with a good ound constitution, a good stomach good heart and good limbs and a pretty good head-piece, is rich. good bones are better than gold, ough muscles than silver, and nerves that flash fire and carry nergy to every function, are better than houses and land. It is etter than landed estate to have and the right kind of a father and nother. Good breeds and bad preeds exist among men as really as among cattle and horses. Education may do much to check evil tendencies or to dovelop good ones, at it is a good thing to inherit the right proportion of faculties to start with." That man is rich who has a tlavor of wit and fun in his composition. The hardest thing to get along with in this life is a man's own self. A cross selfish fellow, a desponding and complaining fellow, a timid, care-burdened man, these are all born deformed on the uside. Their feet may not limp, but their thougts do. A man of fortune on the brink of the grave would gladly part with every dollar to obtain a louger lease of life.

Swift Destruction.

We have sat upon the sea shore and waited for its gradual approaches, and have seen its dancing waves and white surf, and admired that He who measured it with His hand had given it life and motion; and we lingered till its gentle waters grew into mighty billows, and had well-nigh swept us from our firm footing. So we' have seen some of the heedless youth of our town gazing with curous spirit upon sweet motions and gentle approaches of inviting pleasures and sins, till they have detained their eyes and imprisoned

That Sweet Song.

The secret longing of nearly all tho are wanderers or whose abid ng place is temporarily among trangers, is expressed in the words of that sweet song "Write me a etter from home." The one thing that the heart needs is a word from those around the old hearthstone. Especially is this so in the case of young men. No boy goes out rom the Home Circle without a ense of loss. For a time, at least he motherly presence is sadly missd, the sisterly affection warmly herished. Then if the mother's etters reach him often, filled with them. il that a mother most eloquently oly influence.

If the sister writes frequently,

The loss in the young man's life must be made He finds his leisure hours dull, and they must be enlivened. There is no call for long, heartfull letters in return for similar ones. The evening he might give great trouble in getting pay for it. to penning these, he spends in amusements of doubtful character Wanting the tenderness of woman's ove, it is not strange if he falls a rictim to wicked wiles. So he forakes his better self and takes to thing for the mother and sister young life fades out in darkness. A sad picture this of course. But it is only a sad picture of even sadder realities. There are hundreds of young men in every great city, in the very lowest depths of degradation, whom the home influence carefully and prayerfully extended through tender, affectionate, womanly letters, might have saved. who may be brought back to purity by loving words from mothers, isters or sweethearts. Until a nan becomes thoroughly vicious, he thought of a pure woman's love will do much to restrain him from iniquity.
