—Dr. M. L. Krome, the specialist has returned from Elizabeth City and is now at the Atlantic, where he can be consulted by any needing treatment of the eyes.

—Wednesday afternoon before Thanksgiving the "Stork" visited Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Manning, formerly of Jamesville, now 328 Bute Street, Norfolk, Va. and left a fine 8 1/2 lb. boy.

—Mr. S. H. Dawson, Rural Inspector of the Post Office Department, was in town this week looking into the routes from here. He found all four routes in good working shape, and especially complimented number one. He also investigated the proposed route from Everetts, but found that a route from there would materially conflict with other rural routes and informed us that a route from Everetts would not be established.

Their First Anniversary

(Special to the Enterprise) N. Eugene Mizell and wife formerly near Jamesville, N. C., but now residing at Malvern, Pa., celebrated their first wedding anniversary on Thursday night the 7th of November, by having their wedding company of young people. The hostess wore her bridal gown of white silk crepe-de-chine trimmed with hand made lace. The young ladies looked nice in their white and light blue dresses. Those who partook of the supper were, Miss Sue Fisher, Miss Belle, Josephine and Frances Nolan, Miss Lewis, Mr. John Nolan, and the Messrs. White of Philadelphia. A pleasant evening followed.

Barber Shop Burned.

Last Sunday morning at 1:40 o'clock the inhabitants of the town were awakened by the alarm of fire, and soon a large crowd was on the street.

The fire was in Hyman's barber shop next to the Post Office. After some delay the fire engine was put to work and the danger of the fire spreading to adjacent buildings was overcome, and the fire was put out before entirely destroying the store.

All the fixtures to the barber shop were practically destroyed, those not entirely burned are useless. In the rear of the shop a pressing club was conducted and a number of suits of clothing belonging to various parties were destroyed.

The fire caught in the rear room and had about consumed everything in it when it was discovered. The building, owned by H. T. Stallings of Jamesville, was considerably damaged but the damage is covered by insurance, there being $550 insurance on the barber shop, fixtures, and clothing.

Thousands of men and women in all walks of life are suffering from kidney and bladder troubles. Don't neglect your kidneys. Delays are dangerous DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills afford quick relief for all forms of kidney and bladder trouble. A week's treatment 25c. Sold by S. R. Biggs, Williamston, N. C. Slade Jones & Co., Hamilton, N. C.

Fire Averted.

Tuesday morning about 4 o'clock, officer Brown went to Will Mizell's room, in the Mobley Building, to call Mr. Mizell, he being in the habit of calling him each morning, and while in the building heard some one walking around in the store below. Thinking some one had broken into the store he went around to the rear entrance of Phelps bar to investigate. The rear of the building was found to be alright, there being no signs of a forced entrance. Not being satisfied with this the officer tried the door, but found it locked and everything secure. The noise had stopped and as it did not begin again he returned to the street. When the place was opened for business that morning it was found that kerosene oil or gasoline, or both, had been poured around in the building as if preparations for a fire had been made. The timely investigation of officer Brown put a stop to the operation of the party or parties on the inside.

Insurance Agent Crawford, who was carrying insurance on the stock and fixture of E. A. Phelps, seeing that a fire was imminent at once cancelled the policies. Not being able to get insurance on his stock Mr. Phelps has closed his place of business.

LOOKS BAD FOR ROEBUCK

Martin County Boy in Richmond on Two Charges of Forgery.

Richmond Va., Dec. 2.—B. Roebuck, who was brought back from Williamston N. C. last night upon an extradition warrant charging him with forgery, was arranged in the police court this morning. The case is continued until January 7 for further evidence. In the meantime, the grand jury, which went into session this morning may indict the young man.

Roebuck maintained a sullen silence when confronted in court by A. Williams of Wilkinson, Williams and Reed which firm cashed for him, after he had been introduced as H. N. Ballard, a check for ten dollars, signed L. W. Ballard and Company. The cashier saw Roebuck sign this name. The other charge of forgery will have to be proved by a witness from North Carolina whose name he is alleged to have signed to the check cashed here.

Roebuck was taken from here last Saturday afternoon by an officer from Richmond. He had been in jail several days, having been sent to the officers of the law here by his father, who, evidently, had become tired of his son's acts. It is rumored that the father, some weeks ago, gave the son money and told him to go to Norfolk or some other point and leave the country, but instead of doing as his father bade him, he "blowed" the money and returned home, whereupon his father gave him over to the officers. Young Roebuck at one time was clerk in the post office here. He has a wife and young child who are with his father.

Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary, of the Church of the Advent, was held at the home of Mrs. D. S. Biggs, on the afternoon of November 29th. Rev. W. J. Gordon, rector of the parish, presided.

Business was disposed of in its regular order, followed by the election of officers for the coming year. Those chosen were: Miss Hattie Thrower, president; Mrs. K. B. Crawford, vice-president; Miss E. S. Gordon, secretary, and Mrs. D. S. Biggs, treasurer.

A vote of thanks and appreciation for the services of the retiring president Mrs. S. R. Biggs, was proposed and heartily given. The financial report made by Mrs. D. S. Biggs, treasurer, was the most satisfactory since the organization of the auxiliary in 1895. The past year, in every feature of the work, has been the best in the life of the organization, owing without doubt to the splendid management of its officers.

The life of a church society is not to be noted by dollar marks, but rather by that inner life, showing forth in a more cordial relationship and a deeper love for the church and its principles. Mrs. Joseph M. Sitterson and Miss Annie Lamb were gladly welcomed to the membership of the auxiliary at this meeting, and placed upon one of the committees in charge of the arrangements for the Bazaar to be held December 17th.

The first meeting of the new year will be held December 12, and the presence of every member is earnestly requested.

There is something about Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup that makes it different from others, as it causes a free yet gentle action of the bowels through which the cold is forced out of the system. At the same time it heals irritation allays inflammation of the throat and lungs. It is pleasant to take. Children like it. Contains no opiates nor narcotics. Sold by S. R. Biggs, Williamston, N.
