

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, hemorrhage, apoplexy, are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles most always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sized bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Postponed. Reaming with joy, little Mr. Meek sat upon the edge of his high backed chair. His spectacles were dim with happiness, and he listened in rapt attention to the remarks of his prospective mother-in-law.

"I must tell you frankly, Mr. Meek," said the lady, "that my consent to your marrying my daughter has been wrung from me only under protest. I knew that if I did not agree she would disgrace the family by an elopement.

When she wants anything we always have to give it to her or take the consequences, and long experience has taught me that I might as well try to fan off a cyclone as reason with her when she loses her temper—especially if there is a fattion handy or a rolling pin. Has the marriage day been fixed yet?"

But Mr. Meek's spectacles were no longer misty. "I have, madam," he remarked nervously, "to see a man about a dog. If you will excuse me I'll chat it over with you—tomorrow."

And as he flew out of the hall door the little man congratulated himself upon the fact that tomorrow never comes.—London Answers.

The Wisdom of Karma. The pundit Karma sat by the river and watched the ripples. A man came toward him carrying a skin of wine on his shoulders.

"Master," he said to Karma, "is the bridge safe?" And he pointed to the twisted ropes that crossed the stream. "I am not accustomed to pass judgment hurriedly," replied the pundit.

"Before I can either condemn or praise the bridge I must know that it has been fully tested twice."

"You are too fussy," said the man and straightway started ashore. But the ropes sagged beneath him, and finally he fell into the current.

"The bridge is not safe!" Karma called to him. The man angrily waded ashore. "But I thought you required two tests?" he said to the wise one.

"That is true," Karma replied. "A little while before your arrival I tried to cross and fell in the river myself."

And the man was very angry, and when he reached a safe distance he rudely threw a stone at Karma, but happily missed him.

Bombed. "Ah, my friend," said the old soldier, "you don't know what it is to be in the midst of a shower of shells."

Ticked Warren's Vanity. In the famous St. Leonard's will case Lord Brampton, Sir Henry Hawkins, paid the most elaborate compliment of which he was ever guilty. Sam Warren, author of the novel "Ten Thousand a Year," with whom vanity was a passion, had to give evidence.

When Warren entered the box Hawkins, with his politest bow, said to the author: "Mr. Warren, I was you an apology for bringing you into the probate court. I am sure no one will ever dream of disputing your will because you have left everybody 'Ten Thousand a Year.'"

The enraptured author bowed first to Hawkins, next to the bench, receiving the judge's bow in return; then to the jury, then to the bar and finally to the gallery.

Catching a Phrase. A precocious little girl living on one of the business thoroughfares of the city was in the habit of gazing out of the window at the busy street below for hours at a time.

"What is it, Gladys, that you find so constantly interesting in the street?" asked her mother one day. "Oh, came the wise rejoinder, 'Just watching the cars go pro and con.'"

A Gaffer. Town Visitor (to small applicant for a holiday)—What is your father? Small Applicant—E's me father. T. V.—Yes, but what is he?

S. A.—Oh! 'E's me stepfather. T. V.—Yes, yes. But what does he do? Does he sweep chimneys or drive buses, or what?

S. A. (with dawdling light of comprehension)—O-o-w! No, 'e ain't dose nobles since we've 'ad 'im!—Punch.

Trial Catarrh treatments are being mailed out free, on request, by Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. These tests are proving to the people—without a penny's cost—the great value of this scientific prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Remedy. Sold by S. R. Biggs.

Whenever you feel that your stomach has gone a little wrong, or when you feel that it is not in good order as is evidenced by mean headach, nervousness, bad breath, and belching, take something at times, and especially after your meals until relief is afforded. There is nothing better offered the public today for stomach troubles, dyspepsia, indigestion, etc., than KODOL.

This is a scientific preparation of natural digestants combined with vegetable acids and it contains the same juices found in every healthy stomach. KODOL is guaranteed to give relief. It is pleasant to take; it will make you feel fine by digesting what you eat. Sold by S. R. Biggs, Williamston, N. C., Slade Jones & Co., Hamilton, N. C.

GOOD DIGESTION

With Good Digestion a Man Can Overcome Every Obstacle, Conquer Every Difficulty.

MR. R. Y. LECKIE, Keno, Miss.

"I write to tell you of the great benefits that Peruna has accomplished for me. It has cured me of catarrh and seemingly all the other ills that I was subject to."

"I can eat anything before me and digest anything I eat. Physically I am a new man."

"With weak or deranged digestion, the source of strength and vitality is impaired, the nerves are weak, the blood is vitiated, and the body is debilitated. No man is capable of thinking energetically or doing anything vigorously while suffering with indigestion."

To rid the stomach of catarrh will produce clean, healthy mucous membranes and thus correct the digestion. Peruna has the reputation of the world for doing this very thing. A course of Peruna promptly and completely sets the digestive organs at their true function.

His Natural Pace. Hounsell, a Confederate soldier, was deemed by his comrades, says Mr. Edward A. Moor in "The Story of a Cannoneer Under Stonewall Jackson," as great an engine as Jackson himself.

In some of the various evolutions of the drill it was necessary for the cadets to trot. This gall Hounsell failed to adopt and was reported to the superintendent, with the specification, "for falling to trot."

Hounsell handed in his written excuse as follows: "I am reported by Major Jackson for falling at artillery drill to trot. My excuse is I am a natural pacer."

A tickling cough, from any cause, is quickly stopped by Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless and safe, that Dr. Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it without hesitation, even to very young babes.

The wholesome green leaves and stems of a lung-healing mountainous shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough, and heals the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress.

Simply a resinous plant extract, that helps to heal aching lungs. The Spaniards call this shrub which the Doctor uses, "The Sacred Herb" Always demand Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. S. R. Biggs.

Intellectual Powers of Artists. Between the art value of a fine painting or a great sculpture and the most artistic and faultless garment made there is, of course, as wide a difference as there is between a diamond and a piece of polished glass, but this does not prove that the knowledge necessary to the production of the former was greater than for the latter, that a plan is required a higher order of intellect or that the carrying of it from its beginning to its completion involved deeper thought or depended on greater skill.—London Tailor and Cutter.

Vice and Goodness. The nature of all born in equal station are not so widely varied as to present extremes of vice and goodness but by the effects of rarest and severest experience. Beautiful fairies and terrible gnomes do not stand by each infant's cradle sowing the nascent mind with tenderest graces or vilest errors. The slow attrition of vicious associations and law defying indulgences or the sudden impetus of some terribly multiplied and social disaster must have worn away the susceptibility of conscience and self respect or dashed the mind from the height of these down to the depths of despair and recklessness—before one of ordinary life could take counsel with violence and crime.—Frederick A. Aiken.

Millions of bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar have been sold without any person ever having experienced any other than beneficial results from it. Use for coughs, colds and lung troubles. This is because the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar in the yellow package contains no opiates or other harmful drugs. Guard your health by refusing any but the genuine. C. C. Chase and S. R. Biggs.

Gum and Thought. One thing is certain, you cannot chew gum and think at the same time with any degree of success. You may chew gum and work mechanically, you may read with gum in your mouth and perhaps not miss anything in the author, but when it comes right down to good hard mental effort you cannot concentrate and achieve the best results of which you are capable while your jaws work unceasingly. That champing is just so much wasted energy and as such dissipates your force and keeps your thinking powers reduced to the lowest point. Just put it down in your notebook as a fact that no man can think deep, logical or well balanced thoughts while his jaws are working overtime.—Chicago Tribune.

Are you having trouble with your kidneys? There are lots of people today who wonder why they have pains across the back, why they are tired lacking in energy and ambition. Your kidneys are wrong. They need relief without delay. Take DeWitt's Kidney & Bladder Pills; they are for weak back, inflammation of the bladder, back ache and weak kidneys. Sold by S. R. Biggs, Williamston, N. C., Slade Jones & Co., Hamilton, N. C.

Irrelevant. At a term of the circuit court in Ohio a "horse case" was on trial, and a well known horseman was called as a witness.

"Well, sir, you saw this horse?" asked counsel for the defendant. "Yes, sir, I."

"What did you do?" "I just opened his mouth to find out how old he was, and I says to him, I says, 'Old sport, I guess you're pretty good yet.'"

At this juncture counsel for the opposing side entered a violent objection. "Stop," he cried. "Your honor, I object to any conversation carried on between the witness and the horse when the plaintiff was not present!"—Harper's Weekly.

Beware of Frequent Colds. A succession of colds or a protracted cold is almost certain to end in chronic catarrh, from which few persons ever wholly recover. Give every cold the attention it deserves and you may avoid this disagreeable disease. How can you cure a cold? Why not try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended. Mrs. M. White, of Butler, Tenn., says: "Several years ago I was bothered with my throat and lungs. Someone told me of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I began using it and it relieved me at once. Now my throat and lungs are sound and well." For sale by All Druggists and Dealers in Patent Medicine.
