We enjoyed our Christmas very quietly, thank you. We hope that you had as pleasant time as we did.

Once more the tide has brought us to the flood time of golden things—the world has again swung around to the days when men's thoughts are arrested by old, familiar, holy things, made ever new by the freshness with which childish eyes gaze upon them and childish tongues tell of them.

Christmas day was almost like a summer day, it was so mild and clear. It reminded one more of a June day than it did of Christmas.

Who is paying the immense sums which it must cost to send broadcast throughout the country the book written by Chancellor Day of Syracuse University in which he attacks the Roosevelt policies and lauds the Standard Oil Company to the skies? We don't know.

Help Your Town Grow No town will become a good business center so long as its business men rely on a few merchants to make the effort to bring trade to town.

Why Move? These are the days when the discontented farmer's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of moving.

A Cough Medicine

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is a regular cough medicine, a strong medicine, a doctor's medicine. Good for easy coughs, hard coughs, desperate coughs.

The dose of Ayer's Pills is small, only one or two at bedtime. As a rule, laxative doses are better than cathartic doses.

fat checks in payment. While these pictures attract the eye, few, if any, have ever bettered their condition by leaving our own fair county, and the few who have left would only be too glad to be back.

Christmas Celebration of the Episcopal Sunday School

The Christmas celebration of the Sunday School of the Church of the Advent was held last night at the Rectory between the hours of seven and nine. The children were there, the teachers were there, the fond mothers were there, and last, but not least surely, there was present that delight of hearts, both young and old, Old Santa Claus.

To begin with, the children gathered around the piano and sang the glad Christmas hymns. After some Christmas words and questions by Mr. Gordon Santa Claus was introduced. He asked first for the presentation of the two prizes given by Mrs. D. S. Biggs.

The Sunday School Teachers: Misses Hattie Thrower, Mayo Lamb and Miss Gordon, and Mesdames D. S. Biggs, R. D. Carter and K. B. Crawford, each received appropriate gifts, Miss Nannie Smith was given a church hymnal in appreciation of her faithful services as church and Sunday School organist.

Unconscious Butt In. "Have you ever noticed," said the melancholy man, "how it is the vocation of certain people to get in the way—"

—Now is the time to think of giving presents. What would be more appreciated by friends and relatives, living in others parts of the country, than to receive a copy of the Enterprise each week next year?

Cupid's Lucky Day. "What is the best and luckiest day to be married on?" somebody once asked an old gypsy whose fame as a sibyl had spread far and wide.

Business Items. Notices will be published under this head at the rate of 1 cent a line. No notice taken for less than 15 cents an issue.

Monday for wealth. Tuesday for health. Wednesday the best of all. Thursday for crosses. Friday for losses. Saturday no luck at all!

Ask for El Coreso. FOR SALE—Old newspapers 20 cents per hundred, this office.

The Real Attraction. English Girl—You American girls have not such healthy complexions as we have. I cannot understand why our nobleman take a fancy to your white faces.

Sulphur Baths at Home. Sulphur baths heal skin diseases, and give the body a wholesome glow. Now you don't have to go off to a high-priced resort to get them.

For Eczema, Tetter and Salt Rheum. The intense itching characteristic of these ailments is almost instantly allayed by Chamberlain's Salve.

Kind Lady—You are a strong and healthy looking man. Why don't you go to work? Trump—Well, it's like this, ma'am. I ain't got nobody to look out fer me but myself, an' if I got work I might be deprivin' a man with a wife an' a lot of kids of a job.
