LAW IN REFERENCE TO PUBLICATIONS

A New Ruling as to the Legitimacy of the List of Subscribers to Matters of 2nd Class.

The right of a publisher to fix the price of his publication or to induce subscribers by giving premiums, prizes or other considerations, or by clubbing his paper with other papers, or by commission upon subscriptions obtained by agents is not questioned, but such methods will be carefully scrutinized in respect of their effect upon the legitimacy of the subscription list as a whole.

A reasonable time will be allowed publishers to secure renewals of subscriptions but unless subscriptions are expressly renewed after the term for which they are paid within the following period: Dailies within 3 months, Tri-weeklies in 6 months, Semi-weeklies in 9 months, Weeklies in 12 months, Semi-monthlies in three months, Monthlies in 4 months, Bi-monthlies in 6 months, Quarterlies in 6 months.

They shall not be counted in the legitimate list of subscribers, and copies mailed on account thereof shall not be accepted for mailing at the second class rate of postage of one cent a pound, but may be at the transient second class postage rate, one cent for each four ounces or fraction thereof prepaid by stamps affixed.

The right of a publisher to extend credit for subscription to his publication is not questioned or denied but his compliance or non-compliance with this regulation will be taken into consideration in determining whether the publication is entitled to transmission at the second class postage rate.
