In this issue we publish a letter from A. D. Green at Oak City. In this letter the writer states that the leading element of the colored race is very much against such crimes as that committed at Robersonville week before last, and that the colored citizens of that community are so much against it, and so anxious to show their sympathy for the wife and children, that they are getting up a contribution for them. This speaks well for the race, and we commend the spirit in which the letter was written. If there were more of this element in Martin County there would not be half the trouble that has been had in recent years.

We beg to call the attention of our subscribers to the date on their label, and ask them to please send us their renewal as soon as possible. We need all the money we can get at this time to straighten up for the year's business which closes the middle of September. We have been giving you a good paper for at least six months, or since we changed to a 8 column paper. All this time we have been paying out cash for the work every week, paying out a great deal more money than we have been collecting on our paper, both for subscriptions and advertising. We have worked hard trying to give the people of Martin County a good paper, and all we ask now is that those whose subscriptions have expired to renew at once, and those who owe us an account of any kind to please settle it by the 10th, as we are getting up our yearly statement. Our business year ends with the closing of each volume and that is near at hand.

To all new subscribers THE ENTERPRISE will be sent until January 1909 for 25c.

To Our Dear Friend The Merchant:

Do you know how to sell goods? Your clerks, of course, know how to sell goods when people call and ask for them. But when people do not call and ask for what they want and what you have in stock, what then? Let the people know what you have. Our columns are open to advertisers with bargains who want to connect with bargain hunters.

The editor spent Tuesday in the bustling town of Robersonville. It is always a pleasure for us to meet the people of Robersonville, the people there are clever, kind and home like. Although the merchants were not doing so much business, due to the wet weather, they were in excellent spirits and making preparations for their fall and winter trade. The tobacco market is bustling along and paying good prices for the tobacco sold there. The warehousemen are genial fellows and make the farmers feel at home.

Diarrhoea Cured

My father has for years been troubled with diarrhoea, and tried every means possible to effect a cure, without avail," writes John H. Zirkle of Philippi, W. Va. "He saw Chamberlain's Colic, Colera and Diarrhoea Remedy advertised in the Philippi Republican and decided to try it. The result is one bottle cured him and he has not suffered with the disease for eighteen months. Before taking this remedy he was a constant sufferer. He is now sound and well, and although sixty years old, can do as much work as a young man." Sold by All Druggists and Dealers in Patent Medicine.

PATE DE FOIE GRAS.

Fearful Cruelty That Makes This Dainty a Possibility.

To the ordinary man and woman no conception of the torture to which the poor, unfortunate goose is put could possibly be formed.

The geese when about nine months old are taken from the pastures and placed in an underground cellar, where broad, slanting stone slabs stand in rows, and are bound fast to the tables. They are literally crucified.

Feet, wings and bodies are spread out and bound by bands, so that only the neck is left free. As may be imagined, the animal struggles with all its might against this stretching till, after days of vain endeavor to free itself from the bands and its position, its powers of resistance are overcome, and a dull resignation, broken only by its low cries, takes possession of it. Two months must pass away before death brings relief.

The animals are meanwhile crammed with dumplings made of dough of buckwheat, chestnuts and stewed maize. Every two hours, six times a day, they receive from three to five dumplings, which in time become so sweet to the tortured creatures that they stretch their necks to be crammed.

The most difficult task is to determine the right moment for death. Those who die of their own accord are lost to the liver factory; therefore a kind of study is needed to see when the cup of agony is brimming full and the liver is ripe for taking. The bodies of such ripe ones are like pumpkins. Where ordinarily fingers are buried in flesh and fat nothing but skin and bone are found. The livers have absorbed all the strength and juices.

WHY WE SLEEP.

Darkness and Our Eyes the Answer, Says a Scientist.

If it were always daylight we should never sleep. So says a scientist. There is no particular reason why we or any other animals should rest on an average eight or nine hours a day.

The period of rest has been determined by the fact that eight hours is the average time when there is a lack of sufficient light to enable us to move about in comfort.

This most fundamental distinction between day and night is wholly relative to the sense of sight. It only affects those types of life which have developed eyes.

Plants, being dependent for their growth upon the action of rays of sunlight which fall upon their leaves, have a wide distinction between day and night functions. They eat and digest in the light and grow during the hours of darkness.

The lowest forms of animal life—the sightless denizens of ocean depths—do not rest at regular intervals. They prowl around incessantly, seeking prey by the sense of touch alone. When they rest it is at irregular periods. In other words, they have no distinct periodicity of their own.

But as soon as eyes are developed, and in proportion of this development, animals begin to divide their time into two main portions—a waking and a sleeping time. While there is light they perform all motive functions. When darkness comes they retire to nest or lair to rest.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Chinese Athletics.

The Chinese have always had athletic exercises of a sort in which they have rather prided themselves, though none ever seem to have taken such a hold on the nation as ours have on us during the last century or so. They have plenty of stories of strong men capable of wielding extraordinary weapons, of bending wondrous bows or of lifting heavy weights, etc.

Even within the last few years feats of archery were done before an officer could get his commission in the army, and in almost any village there is a bamboo with a pierced stone at either end to test the strength of the rising generation in lifting. But there was nothing of regular athletic training, except for a few wrestlers perhaps, before foreigners came.—Shanghai Mercury.

A Strong Hint.

They had met for the first time since their schooldays and were telling each other of their professional careers.

"And how did you come to leave the stage?" asked one.

"I had a hint that I was not suited for it."

"I see. The little birds told you, eh?"

"Well, no; not exactly. But they might have been birds had they been allowed to hatch."

A Lesson.

The Lady—Look here! You said that if I'd give you your dinner you'd mow the lawn for me. The Hobo—I'd like to do it, ma'am, but I gotta teach yer a lesson. Never trust th' word of a total stranger.—Cleveland Leader.

His Night Work.

Office—What makes you stay at the office so late at night? Do you gain anything by it?

Hobby—No. But I have several times come—er—within an ace of gaining something.—Philadelphia Record.

The Explanation.

Him (in the surf)—The water is getting cold. I wonder why.
Her—That tall girl who just came in is from Boston.—New Orleans Times Democrat.

Wealth is not his that has it, but his that enjoys it.—Franklin.

There are many imitations of DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve but just one original. Nothing else is just as good. Insist on DeWitt's. It is cleaning, cooling and soothing. Sold by Chase's Drug Store; Biggs' Drug Store.

Warning

If you have kidney and bladder troubles and do not use Foley's Kidney Cure, you will have only yourself to blame for results, as it positively cures all forms of kidney and bladder diseases. C. C. Chase; S. R. Biggs

THE ENTERPRISE appears a little late this week, due to the fact that two of our force, our young lady compositor and the "devil" went on the excursion. We are sure that the "devil" had a devil of a time.

Bees Laxative Cough Syrup always brings quick relief to coughs, colds, hoarseness, whooping-cough and all bronchial and throat trouble. Mothers especially recommend it for children. Pleasant to take, gently laxative. Sold by Chase's Drug Store.

MR. BURRAS' ANNOUNCEMENT

TO THE EDITOR:

I was informed by some friends during Court week that the report was being circulated that I would not be a candidate for the office of County Treasurer before the next Convention, I wish to say through your columns that I will be a candidate for renomination, and ask the support of all Democrats.

Very Respectfully

H. M. BURRAS.

Excellent Health Advice

Mrs. M. M. Davison, of No. 379 Gifford Ave., San Jose, Cal., says: "The worth of Electric Bitters as a general family remedy, for headache, biliousness and torpid of the liver and bowels is so pronounced that I am prompted to say a word in its favor, for the benefit of those seeking relief from such afflictions. There is more health for the digestive organs in a bottle of Electric Bitters than in any other remedy I know of." Sold under guarantee at All Druggists. 50c.

There was the latest break of tobacco of the season on the market this morning, about 70,000 pounds. Prices are very high on the common grades and the better grades are selling exceptionally well. The farmers have been busy during the rainy spell grading, and today they rushed it to market. Before the sale some of the farmers were afraid that the prices would be low on account of so much tobacco, but the buyers are all hungry for the weed and the amount did not cut any figure with the prices.
