It allays the pain almost instantly, and unless the injury is a severe one, heals the parts without leaving a scar. This salve is also unequalled for chapped hands, sore nipples and diseases of the skin. Price, 25 cents. For sale by All Druggists and Dealers in Patent Medicine.

At Large.

"What is a congressman at large?" was the next question raised at the grocery store.
"One that ain't in jail," suggested a wit on a cracker barrel.
"A congressman at large," asserted Zeb Whitlatch, "is a congressman who has been elected, but who hasn't took his seat."
"Wrong," declared Peleg Haw. "He has served his term. They're always entitled to the floor."
The question was still open when the grocer adjourned the session.--St. Louis Republic.

A Travelling Man's Experience

"I must tell you my experience on an East bound O. R. & N. R. train from Pendleton to Le Grande, Ore.," writes Sam A. Garber, a well known traveling man. "I was in the smoking department with some other traveling men when one of them went out into the coach and came back and said, 'There is a woman sick unto death in the car.' I at once got up and went out, found her very ill with cramp colic, her hands and arms were drawn up so you could not straighten them, and with a deathlike look on her face. Two or three ladies were working with her and giving her whiskey. I went to my suit case and got my bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy (I never travel without it.) ran to the water tank, put a double dose of the medicine in the glass, poured some water into it and stirred it with a pencil; then I had quite a time to get the ladies to let me give it to her, but I succeeded. I could at once see the effect and I worked with her, rubbing her hands, and in twenty minutes I gave her another dose. By this time we were almost into Le Grande, where I was to leave the train. I gave the bottle to the husband to be used in case another dose should be needed, but by the time the train ran into Le Grande she was all right, and I received the thanks of every passenger in the car." For sale by All Druggists and Dealers in Patent Medicine.

Many people suffer a great deal from Kidney and Bladder troubles. During the past few years much of this complaint has been made unnecessary by the use of DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills. They are antiseptic and are highly recommended for weak back, backache, rheumatic pains, inflammation of the bladder and all other annoyances due to weak kidneys. They are sold by Chase's Drug Store; Biggs' Drug Store.

"How spirituelle she seems!"
"No wonder. Her mother was a medium and her father was a chronic tippler."--Chicago Record-Herald.

My studies of people have led me to the conclusion that the high and lofty soul has a good bit of the hypocrite in his composition.--London Outlook.

How to Get Strong

P. J. Daly, of 1247 W. Congress St., Chicago, tells of a way to become strong: He says: "My mother, who is old and was very feeble, is deriving so much benefit from Electric Bitters, that I feel it's my duty to tell those who need a tonic and strengthening medicine about it. In my mother's case a marked gain in flesh has resulted, insomnia has been overcome, and she is steadily growing stronger." Electric Bitters quickly remedy stomach, liver and kidney complaints. Sold under guarantee at All Drug-gists, etc.

The Boy (cheerfully)--You are the first and only girl I ever loved, Ethel. She--Ah, what lots of fun you have ahead of you, Freddy! London Opinion.

When you have a cold you may be sure that it has been caused indirectly by constipation and consequently you must first of all take something to move the bowels. This is what has made Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup so successful and so generally demanded. It does not constipate like most of the old fashioned cough cures, but on the other hand it gently moves the bowels and at the same time heads irritation and any inflammation of the throat. Sold by Chase's Drug Store; Biggs' Drug Store.

Small Lillian's father was very home-ly, and one day she said, "Mamma, why did you marry papa?"
"Because I loved him, dear," was the reply.
"Say, mamma," continued Lillian, "love will make us women do anything, won't it?"--Philadelphia Record.

Good for Bilioussness

DODGING THE SPEAKER.

One of the First Cases of Filibustering in Congress.

One of the first instances of filibustering occurred in 1805 just after the impeachment trial of the Hon. Samuel Chase, one of the associate justices of the supreme court. A quarrel arose over the payment of witnesses. The house of representatives would pass no bill which provided for the payment of those summoned by Chase. The senate would pass no bill which did not, and a conference followed. Each refused to yield, and the bill was lost.

John Randolph then attempted in the closing hours of the session to have the witnesses for the managers of the trial paid out of the contingent fund of the house. But the Federalists were ready. They hurried from the room, and when the vote was taken the speaker announced no quorum. Members were thereupon summoned from the lobby and committee rooms. Hardly were they in their seats when a message from the president was announced, and while the clerk was reading it the Federalists again left the room, so that when the resolution was again no quorum. Once more the sergeant at arms went into the lobby and once more the members came in. But an enrolled bill was reported, and while the speaker was signing it the Federalists a third time slipped out. The announcement of no quorum which followed was greeted with shouts of laughter. Randolph in a great passion desisted, and late on the evening of Sunday, March 3, 1805, the Eighth congress ended.--Baltimore American.

SCIENCE AND TEARS.

Weapon of the Heroine Coolly Analyzed by French Chemist.

One does not care to have one's tears analyzed like a patent food of medicine and to associate them with chemical substances, but we are nothing if not practical nowadays, and every shred of romance, poetry and sentiment is remorselessly wrenched from us for scientific purposes.

A French journal devoted to matters of this kind has been telling us not only of what tears are composed, but exactly the effect that is produced on brain and body when we shed them.

So henceforth when we read that the heroine's "beautiful eyes were suffused with tears," that "in a moment she was weeping passionately on his shoulder," we shall know that by a kind of shower bath arrangement a mixture of albuminoid, water and chemical substances was let loose at the back of the skull, thus dulling the nerve center and really giving her relief.

However, it does not sound romantic and mere man is likely to imagine that the fair one is really suffering doubly when all this happens. Gentlewoman!

Not So Funny After All.

On one of the cruises out of Rockland we ran into Castine, Me., where crowds of visitors boarded the ship. One old grizzled farmer fell into the hands of a youngster from Montana. For the time being ventilators became torpedo tubes, those "sticks" up in the air were to hold up for nets, the ropes were clotheslines, the engines ran by radium, and the Hartford was the fastest ship afloat.

The old man seemed deeply interested, especially in the chute for getting overboard, the legs and arms that might be adrift in action and the valve for letting out whatever water might run into the ship. When he finally went over the side he was profuse in his thanks. Turning to his escort, he drew out his card, on which was engraved, "Rear Admiral, U. S. N., Retired," and said, "The old ship has changed since I commanded her."--Army and Navy Life.

The Whole Business.

A very young housekeeper went to market to purchase a spring chicken. After selecting one and inquiring the price she said:

"Isn't 3 shillings rather high? The poultener in our roo only charged me 2s. 9d. the other day."

"With the feet on?" asked the sales man.

"No. I believe, now you mention it the feet were cut off," she replied, with some hesitation.

"I thought so," said the man at the stall. "When we sell a fowl here, ma'am, we sell it feet and all."--London Scraps.

Insect Notes.

The slow flapping of a butterfly's wing produces no sound. When the movements are rapid, a noise is produced which increases with the number of vibrations. Thus the house fly which produces the sound of "f" vibrates its wings 21,120 times a minute or 335 times a second, and the bee which makes a sound of "a," as many as 26,400 times; or 440 times a second. A tired bee hums on E and therefore, according to theory, vibrates its wings only 330 times a second.

Experience.

Johnny--Smokin' cigarettes is dead sure ter hurt yer, Jimmy--G'on! Where did yer git dat idee? Johnny--From pop. Jimmy--Aw, he wuz jist stringin' yer. Johnny--No, he wuzn't stringin' me. He wuz strappin' me. Dat's how I know it hurts.--Philadelphia Press.

Beyond Him.

"There's only one thing the armless wonder can't do with his feet," said the showman.

"What's that?" asked a spectator.

"Put on his gloves," answered the showman.

September Birthstone

"A maiden born when Autumn leaves
Are rustling in September's breeze,
A Sapphire on her brow should bind,
'Twill cure diseases of the mind."

Of all ornamental stones, the Sapphire was the most highly esteemed by the ancients. It was the "gem of gems," the sacred stone par-excellence.

There is a legend among the Jews that the Ten Commandments were engraved upon this stone.

Sapphires occupy an important position in the gem collections of nearly all the crowned heads of Europe. It was a Sapphire ring taken from the finger of Elizabeth just after she expired, which was sent to James VI of Scotland as a token of his accession to the English throne.

Poppy is the September flower.
