-The excursionists returned home last Saturday morning about 4:30. It was a tired and worn out crowd that arrived in Williams ton in the early morning, but they all reported a pleasant trip. From the way some of the crowd are "peeling" it looks like the sun treated them with more consideration that it did those who stayed at home.

-There have been good sales on the tobacco market here for the -past several days, and the prices have been excellent. It is reported that nearly 100 000 pounds of the weed were sold Wednesday and yesterday, and that up to the presesnt time there has been nearly 500,000 pounds sold this season. This looks like it might mean two and a half million pounds this year

-Mr. A. R. Mizell, who has several horses in training, is getting ready to take his "bunch" to Lynchburg and Roanoke, Va., and Greensboro, Charlotte, and Raleigh where the horses will be entered in the races of the different fairs. He has a good string of horses and should have a profitable trip. The horses that are now expected to go are: Brigadier, Little Straight, Merry Legs, of Williamston, and the Johnson mare of Gold Point.

The Other Version.

Miss Jane Barlow sent a poem as a first contribution to the Cornhill Magazine when James Payn was its editor. Think of the lady receiving a brief line, scrawled in James' fearful chirogbe held at Williamston, N. C., on raphy, which she interpreted as follows: "I have no use for silly verses." Of course Miss Barlow indulged in copious tears. There never was such an ill mannered snub. Then she commenced to study the scrawl. Now came a gleam of light, for she dimly for the purpose of nominating candidates for the made out what it really was: "I hope to use your pretty verses." Legislative and various County Offices.
